Pastor Henry Fuller of Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church of Flint offered the following invocation:

Dear God our Father, we come humbly as we know how to come. God of the universe, we gather here today as a collection of a body of believers and workers together co-laboring for the good of all mankind. I ask now for Your forgiveness and Your blessings upon the families of these Senators, that they may be well.

Now, Lord, we pray also for Your leadership and guidance as these people work through their agendas. We ask a blessing upon them as they are away from families. We pray for well-being for their families. Lord, may they know now that as they labor in this house that You are God all by Yourself.

We ask You to speak now and directly to remind every heart that they may all understand, as they labor together, they affect the lives of others by the decisions they make here. May they labor together for the good of all mankind. May the decisions here show sensitivity toward the great needs of mankind in these difficult and turbulent days.

Master, we pray now that love from every heart would reach out to the heart of another and that understanding the needs for love may ever guide every heart. Lead these leaders to have hearts of compassion to be so conscious of the plight of the citizens of the state of Michigan. Help now, Lord, that this body of lawmakers would reflect concern for every group, the least of these, those who hurt, those who are weak, and those who remain. Grant now, Lord, always compassion and sensitivity to the plight of others.

Then, Lord, we ask today that Your lovingkindness would ever direct their hearts and minds; that there may be meetings of the minds. We ask Your richest blessings on all those who serve here on this floor; that each may work, labor, and toil for the good of humanity. So direct each person that envy, jealousy, and hatred would find no place here. Allow each person to esteem the other above themselves.

Lord, help now, that each person may know that regardless of party lines, they must all labor together for the common good of all humanity, in spite of differences. We call upon You asking right now to lead even the lead of these. Direct their hearts, thoughts, and processes. Bless now, Lord, that the efforts may not be in vain. May love ever abide.

In the precious name of our Lord, we pray. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Schuitmaker, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senate Resolution No. 34

The motion prevailed.

Senator Richardville offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 202.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Glenn S. Anderson.

Whereas, The members of this legislative body are proud to commend and thank our colleague, Glenn Anderson, for his eight years of service representing the Sixth District. His tenure as a public servant began with nine years on the Westland City Council, continued with three terms in the Michigan House of Representatives, and, as his years in the Senate draw to a close, his efforts and high standards are to be lauded; and

Whereas, Senator Anderson has served with distinction on the Appropriations Committee during each of his Senate terms, two as minority vice chair. He also sat as vice chair on several Appropriations subcommittees, including Community Colleges, Department of Corrections, Transportation, and General Government. His vision, experience, and leadership have been valuable assets as he worked to make government fiscally responsible and ensure the continuation of vital services while maintaining a balanced budget; and

Whereas, Senator Anderson is committed to building strong communities which are essential to a stronger Michigan. Over the years, he has been active in community service organizations including the Jaycees, Goodfellows, Rotary Club, Civitans, Kiwanis, Rouge River Rescue, Churchill High PTA, and the Western Wayne NAACP. In recognition of his dedication to the work of the people, his honors have included Legislator of the Year awards from the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, the Police Officers Association of Michigan, and the Hemophilia Foundation of Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we honor Senator Glenn S. Anderson as he concludes his service to the Michigan Senate; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Senator Anderson as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Meekhof moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous standing vote of the Senate.

Senator Meekhof moved that rule 3.204 be suspended to name the entire membership of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor as co-sponsors of the resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Anderson asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Anderson's statement is as follows:

After 14 years in the Michigan Legislature, it has come time to say farewell to this phase of my life and move on to life outside of the Legislature. Hopefully, I will continue in some capacity serving the citizens of Michigan. At the outset, I would like to thank my family for tolerating my countless hours away from home; most of all, my amazing and dedicated partner for the past 37 years, my wife Gail.

It has truly been an honor to have been given this opportunity to serve the people of the 6th Senate District. I have always maintained that I am an ordinary guy who has been given an extraordinary opportunity. As I told someone who asked what it was like to be a Senator soon after being elected to the State Senate in 2006, I replied, "Well, I got up this morning and still put my pants on same as before, one leg at a time." I have always tried to stay well-grounded and not exaggerate my importance in my life. If I ever get even the slightest bit full of myself, I received a reset when I returned home. I thank my wife for that.

Even being in the minority and facing many challenges in getting good legislation passed in such a partisan atmosphere, I can't imagine anything that would have presented such personal rewards as regularly having folks back home come up to me and express their appreciation for what I and my staff have done for them. I agree with the good Senator from the 16th District, who just the other day said that he believed it would be good for all legislators to serve in the minority at least once to understand what it's like. It's not because I am unhappy as to how I've seen some members' opinions and efforts disregarded by the majority, but because we should all be better than that and realize our whole state would be better represented, and this great institution would have greater standing in public opinion as well. Being an eternal optimist, my hope is that this begins to change under new leadership next year.

At a time like this, I cannot help but think back to when I'd walk up to the Capitol in the evening from the House Office Building after I was elected to my first term in the Michigan House of Representatives. I remember looking at the Capitol aglow in the night, thinking how fortunate I was to be coming to work each day in this magnificent building on behalf of those back home. I continue to believe we are all fortunate to be part of this great institution. I have tried to always be consistent in my belief that my duty here was to be on the job and to, first of all, be present to cast votes—cast votes without fear of whether someone would disagree, but based on the information I had available to me at the time and always represent what I believed to be the best in the long run for our citizens.

While I have on a number of votes and issues made my opinion known, I have tried hard to be respectful of other opinions and not be personal. I have always tried to keep my word with others and uphold the highest ethical standards. Over 14 years, as you've probably also experienced, I've observed others who did not. One great disappointment was to see one current Senator, who I and my staff invited to be part of a workgroup, send her staff to be a part in her stead. After we put my proposed bills on the table and met numerous times, she then broke faith and undercut all the work my staff and I had done on trafficking. It is unfortunate that some choose to deal in a less than honest way. It not only disrespects members, but dishonors the institution of the Senate as well.

I have tried to always be respectful of everyone who serves the people in state government, including those who work at all levels; including those just passing through while they work toward a degree. A large number of these have been students who have interned for me in the House and Senate, performing valuable services and thoroughly enjoying what it feels like to have helped someone. The pride I have gained from seeing them continuing on their career paths has been immeasurable.

Now for thank you's. I have had the good fortune to meet and work with many people over the past 14 years who were, indeed, ethical and respectful to those around them. I will never forget their honesty and dedication and the way they conducted themselves. Many of these members were chairs of committees that I have served on. They were genuinely interested in listening to ideas from this side of the aisle and many times took my suggestions under consideration and supported them. Two such chairs are people I consider to be my friends. Tony Stamas supported a number of ideas I had while on the Higher Education Appropriations Subcommittee. I've enjoyed working with our Appropriations chair, as difficult as that has been at times when the philosophical gap was wide between members. More recently, the Senator from the 35th District has been an outstanding chair of the Community Colleges Appropriations Subcommittee, who has been incredibly open to ideas that I have brought to the table. He has conducted himself with class, honesty, and respect.

There are others who have made an impression on me, including the current majority floor leader, who, despite the wide gap in our political views, has been extremely honest in his discussions and dealings with me. He has been open to discussion on virtually every issue I've approached him with and has never blindsided me. I respect that and I respect him as a leader. I also appreciate my Democratic colleagues for fighting the good fight and standing up for values that I believe are right and making sure others outside this Capitol have a voice. I especially appreciate my good friend, the Senator from the 3rd District, whose impassioned comments have silenced the floor many times. He has attempted to call us to a higher level.

I'd like to give a great big thank you to those who have served on my staff over the last 14 years and most recently in the Senate. Many have moved on to other opportunities, but I've been fortunate to have had a steady, stable, and capable staff over the past eight years in the Senate. I'd like to extend my deepest appreciation to my former legislative aide Scott Hendrickson; current staff, Zach Crim, Michelle Zylstra, and my chief of staff Josh Brandt. They have helped me make my office one of the most responsive offices in the Senate and were so professional. I couldn't imagine having done this job without them.

In honor of one of my colleagues on this side of the aisle, I'd like to leave everyone with a couple of quotes: "The only people with whom you should try to get even with are those who have helped you." John E. Southard. A quote from my late father, who traded in livestock in Tennessee and was candid about sizing people up. His quote was one that I've heard all of my life, which aptly applied to some who have a tendency to think too highly of themselves. Some we all have known in the Legislature. "I wish I could buy him for what he's worth and sell him for what he thinks he's worth."

I will leave you all with the following message that someone from the district, who recently lost his young son, shared with me. I thought it very appropriate and something we could all use. It is written by Bonnie Mohr, entitled "Living Life."

"Life is not a race - but indeed a journey. Be honest. Work hard. Be choosey. Say 'thank you', 'I love you', and 'Great Job' to someone each day. Go to Church, take time for prayer. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh. Let your handshake mean more than pen and paper. Love your life and what you've been given, it is not accidental - search for your purpose and do it as best you can. Dreaming DOES matter. It allows you to become that which you aspire to be. Laugh often. Appreciate the little things in life and enjoy them. Some of the best things in life really are free. Do not worry, less wrinkles are more becoming. Forgive, it frees the mind. Take time for yourself - plan for longevity. Recognize the special people you've been blessed to know. Live for today, enjoy the moment."

Thank you to all whom I've had the pleasure of working with and especially the people of the 6th District. I urge everyone to always reach for higher ground. Merry Christmas and goodbye.

Senator Hunter entered the Senate Chamber.

Senator Richardville offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 203.

A resolution of tribute for the Honorable Howard Walker.

Whereas, It is a privilege to extend the congratulations of the Senate to the Honorable Howard Walker as he leaves this legislative body. For the last four years, he has represented the residents of the Thirty-seventh District with integrity and unflinching values; and

Whereas, Prior to his arrival in Lansing, Senator Walker was a successful businessman and active community member in his Northern Michigan home. He grew up in St. Ignace and received his bachelor's degree from Michigan Technological University. Beginning his career in the oil and gas industry, he would go on to establish a land surveying business. At the same time, he was involved in a number of community organizations, including the Grand Traverse Regional Land Conservancy and Involved Citizens Enterprise (ICE), and he served as a member of the Traverse City Area Public Schools Board. In 2002, he was elected state representative for the One Hundred Fourth House District; and

Whereas, For the next six years, Senator Walker championed many causes important to Northern Michigan residents and the entire state. An avid outdoorsman, he worked to preserve Michigan's agricultural heritage, protect its environment, and promote renewable energy. In addition, he fought for funding equity for all public schools; and

Whereas, Senator Walker was elected to the Senate in 2010 and continued his work on educational and natural resource issues. He served on the Appropriations Committee and was chair of the Education Subcommittee and vice chair of the Environmental Quality, Natural Resources, Higher Education, and Corrections Subcommittees. At the same time, he championed legislation to maintain and promote Michigan's tourism industry by protecting the Great Lakes from aquatic invasive species, keeping Michigan's ports and harbors accessible, and encouraging the growth of Michigan's wine, beer, and spirits industry; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Howard Walker for his notable contributions to this legislative body and to our entire state; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Senator Walker as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Meekhof moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous standing vote of the Senate.

Senator Meekhof moved that rule 3.204 be suspended to name the entire membership of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor as co-sponsors of the resolution.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

Senator Walker asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Walker's statement is as follows:

Let me start off by saying that I didn't plan on running for the Senate. I was conflicted, but I realized that it was a good fit, and now I am glad that I did. The Legislature really is an amazing arena in which to work. I have thoroughly enjoyed my time serving. A decade ago, I would have never thought I would have had the opportunity to be part of such a historic time in Michigan's history. I served in the House when Michigan's economy led the nation with so many negative indicators—jobs lost, percent of unemployment, population decline, wage decline, increased percentage needing government assistance, and there are probably more.

Today, I really want to dwell on the positive. While I served in the Senate, we have lost most of the monitors, and most have changed in a positive direction. That feels really good. It wasn't all us, but I am really happy to have served while those indicators moved in a different direction; one of the most significant being the unemployment rate. Now our state has led the country in the unemployment rate moving in a positive direction.

While leadership does play a big role, we all play our part. No one person can be credited for the work that we've done in the state. I do want to thank and let the Governor know that I appreciate his leadership guiding our state and conveying an image that helped move us in a positive direction. I have worked with so many others who have had a role in this positive time we've served in these last four years. I can't name all of those, but I can tell you that I have enjoyed serving with all of them. I did want to give a shout-out to a few.

First of all, because I have worked so closely on the Appropriations Committee with someone I consider to be a great chairman, thank you to Senator Kahn. Your steady hand and understanding of the issues are amazing. I appreciate your leadership during these tough budget times and you getting us to a point where we are fiscally sound. I think it has helped many, and so I thank you.

Thank you also to Senate Majority Leader Randy Richardville. It's a big thank you because I think it has served the Senate in a great way in not only your ability to lead, but also be led, in a way that can bring out the best in those who are working with you. So thank you for that. I also thank you for putting up with all of my smart-alec remarks.

I also want to thank those who participated in our devotional time. We had devotions every Tuesday; we met before session. We studied the Bible, and we grew in our Christian faith. Now that is an experience that I never anticipated having when I first came to Lansing, but I can tell you that it was important both personally and for our work. So a special thanks to Senator Moolenaar for helping to organize that and participating and bringing that group together.

Now I would like to give special thanks to my staff. Caitlin, you did a great job managing the office and helping with constituents. It is a tough job sometimes to deal with your constituents back home. Sometimes they are happy, but a lot of times they don't call you unless they are not. Then with regard to constituents, I also want to give a major thank you to Brianna and Kat. They worked tirelessly in the fallout from a lot of my decisions and work. They also assisted many of our constituents through bureaucratic mazes, while all the time keeping a positive attitude. Not once did they tell a constituent, "Screw you, dude." They are great ladies.

I want to thank Rory for his campaign help, his legislative help, and his political instincts. He is greatly appreciated. He is now a big-shot editor for a car magazine in Detroit, and I am very proud. Also thank you to my chief of staff Eric. Talk about someone who really stepped up to the plate to handle some tough work. He helped to shepherd four K-12 budgets through the legislative process, which is really a monumental effort. I have never seen a person like Eric who can absorb and recall the details like he can. It has kept me on track; it has kept our budget on track, and really, we have all been served well by him. His ability, knowledge, and political instincts will be a great asset to his next employer.

I want to give a quick thank you to Carol Viventi, the Secretary of the Senate, for not only helping me, but all of us to look good during General Orders.

Close to finally, I want to thank the citizens of my district. Thank you for your trust in electing me to serve you down here. Thank you for the opportunity to serve. I know we didn't always agree, but I did what I said I would do or at least the best I could. Nothing is ever black and white down here. I kept my promises, and I can tell you I always kept my district as my No. 1 priority. So thank you to the citizens of the 37th District.

Now I know that most of you know and staff knows this job has a profound impact on one's family. That is one of the reasons that I have decided not to run again. So I want to give a big thank you to my wife Diane, and let her know I am really looking forward to spending more time with her back in Traverse City.

In The Chair: Schuitmaker

Senator Meekhof moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.
The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of Statements

Senators Hunter, Jones and Jansen asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Hunter's statement is as follows:

There have been numerous media reports over the last day or so about the so-called Satanic Temple of Detroit's plan to erect here at the Capitol what they call the Snaketivity Scene with the motto: "The greatest gift is knowledge." This is an effort to mock the concept of religious freedom, first of all, and secondly, it is obviously an attempt to scorn Christianity.

Well, I would like to respond to this development with a quote: "You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth because there is no truth in him. Whenever he speaks a lie, he speaks from his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies." That is from Jesus of Nazareth. I know him as Jesus the Son of the living God. John 8:44.

Senator Jones' statement is as follows:

I want to thank the distinguished Senator from the 5th District for his words. I, too, was shocked to learn that after a group received a permit to put up a Nativity Scene on the Capitol lawn, another satanic group from Detroit received a permit to put up a Snaketivity Scene and honor the darkness. It is sickening, but it's legal.

Then, unfortunately, the Capitol rules came out, and the group was not able to put the Nativity Scene up and down every day, so we weren't going to have one. I have been in contact with them last night and today, and we will have a Nativity Scene. Senators will be setting it up and taking it down every day. We will make sure that we have one and that we have the true spirit of Christmas at the Capitol.

Senator Jansen's statement, in which Senators Schuitmaker, Meekhof, Proos, Colbeck, Kowall, Emmons, Brandenburg, Moolenaar, Hildenbrand, Booher, Marleau, Robertson, Nofs, Pappageorge, Caswell, Walker, Pavlov and Casperson concurred, is as follows:

I would just like to say amen to the speaker from the 5th District.
