Pastor Strick Strickland Sr., Pastor of Second Baptist Church in Kalamazoo, offered the following invocation:

“Lord God we have assembled together today as the result of Your sovereign kindness and mercy. We look to You this day because we recognize that You are the source of all wisdom, knowledge, and provision. So now Lord we stand subjecting ourselves to Your divine direction. We pray that Thou would work in and through each of us to gain the desired progress out of today’s agenda and beyond. We recognize that You are God to us all and have no select people or parties. Therefore, we both thank You and praise You for being a God of diversity and inclusion; and one Who loves, values, and cares for us all. We ask that Thou would train our minds and govern our hearts to work fervently together, while endeavoring to maintain commitment to the unity of the whole. We come against combative and divisive spirits in Your name.

Dear Lord, I lift up every representative to You and ask that Thou would strengthen them and give voice to those they represent. I recognize the assignment on their lives and ask that Thou would continue to work through them to prosper our communities, state, and beyond. Bless us all as You see fit. Finally Lord, we thank You in advance for Your presence and involvement in the next steps of our journey and future phases of our lives.

Hear now Thy servants prayer, that through the lives we live Your Name will be Glorified, Saints be Edified, and Enemy be Terrified in the blessed and powerful name of our Lord. Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Singh moved that Rep. Garrett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

House Resolution No. 265.

A resolution to declare April 2016 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Since 1983, April has been designated National Child Abuse Prevention Month and has served to increase public awareness of the need to ensure the safety and welfare of children; and

Whereas, Crossing all racial, economic, and geographic boundaries, and including physical, sexual, and emotional abuse and physical neglect, the repercussions of child abuse are long-lasting, not only for the victims and their families, but also for communities and society as a whole; and

Whereas, Nationally in 2014, an estimated 698,000 children were victims of maltreatment at an expense of at least $124 billion annually, costing the average American family $1,400 each year; and

Whereas, Nationwide, 1.8 million reports of maltreatment were investigated in 2014; and

Whereas, In Michigan, the rate of children investigated in families rose by 52% between fiscal years 2006 and 2014, from 63 of every 1,000 children to 95 of every 1,000 children; and

Whereas, According to the Kids Count in Michigan Report, in 2014 more than 200,000 children in Michigan live in families investigated for abuse or neglect; and

Whereas, A focus on promoting and building parent resiliency, providing social supports, and educating about child development will help build and strengthen positive relationships between parents/caregivers and the children in their care; and

Whereas, We recognize that no one person can do everything, but that everyone can do something, and together we can create change for the better; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2016 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of this legislative body encourage all Michiganders to work to build safe communities, promote strong families, and raise healthy children by supporting those who are striving to end the tragic abuse and neglect of children and allow them to realize their full potential.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Sarah Roberts moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 265.

A resolution to declare April 2016 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Since 1983, April has been designated National Child Abuse Prevention Month and has served to increase public awareness of the need to ensure the safety and welfare of children; and

Whereas, Crossing all racial, economic, and geographic boundaries, and including physical, sexual, and emotional abuse and physical neglect, the repercussions of child abuse are long-lasting, not only for the victims and their families, but also for communities and society as a whole; and

Whereas, Nationally in 2014, an estimated 702,000 children were victims of maltreatment at an expense of at least $124 billion annually, costing the average American family $1,400 each year; and

Whereas, Nationwide, 1.8 million reports of maltreatment were investigated in 2014; and

Whereas, In Michigan, the rate of children investigated in families rose by 52% between fiscal years 2006 and 2014, from 63 of every 1,000 children to 95 of every 1,000 children; and

Whereas, According to the Kids Count in Michigan Report, in 2014 more than 200,000 children in Michigan live in families investigated for abuse or neglect; and

Whereas, A focus on promoting and building parent resiliency, providing social supports, and educating about child development will help build and strengthen positive relationships between parents/caregivers and the children in their care; and

Whereas, We recognize that no one person can do everything, but that everyone can do something, and together we can create change for the better; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2016 as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That the members of this legislative body encourage all Michiganders to work to build safe communities, promote strong families, and raise healthy children by supporting those who are striving to end the tragic abuse and neglect of children and allow them to realize their full potential.

The motion prevailed and the substitute (H-1) was adopted, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Crawford, Cochran, Driskell, Faris, Hoadley, Hooker, Hovey-Wright, Howrylak, Hughes, Kelly, LaVoy, Love, Moss, Potvin, Schor, Whiteford, Wittenberg and Yanez offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 266.

A resolution to declare April 2016 as Paralyzed Veterans of America Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Approximately 44,000 veterans live with spinal cord injury or disease. Paralyzed Veterans of America is the only veterans organization dedicated to serving veterans with spinal cord injury or disease and the group highlights the unique challenges veterans with spinal cord injury or disease face, and how people can get involved and help; and

Whereas, Paralyzed Veterans of America has been on a mission for 70 years to change lives and build brighter futures for our seriously injured heroes and to empower these brave men and women with what they need to achieve the freedom and independence they fought for; and

Whereas, Paralyzed Veterans of America advocates for quality VA health care, much-deserved veterans benefits, and pushes to make America more accessible; and

Whereas, Paralyzed Veterans of America national officers and their 34 chapters represent thousands of veterans in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2016 as Paralyzed Veterans of America Month in the state of Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs.
