Thank You, Lord, our Creator, Sustainer, and gracious guide. You are the one God with so many magnificent names. Please bless each member of this Legislature with confidence, courage, commitment, and compassion so they make sure all people of this state enjoy protection, prosperity, liberty, and equal opportunity.

Please assist all representatives in their fight against poverty, prejudice, and racial and religious discrimination. Direct our Senators with Your divine light so they can easily identify the state's priorities and principles beyond the parties and personalities path. Please let the light of Your divine wisdom enlighten their debates and direct their decisions so they are aware of Your presence in their intentions, expressions, and actions. Let them present Your law of love, mercy, truth, and justice. Save them from any harm, confusion, contradiction, and selfishness.

Help our state to help our nation, and let this beautiful country be a shining example of defending democracy, human dignity, and standing against the forces of injustice, tyranny, terrorism, corruption, and crime.

Lord, forgive us for our shortcomings, and please don't punish us for our mistakes. Help us to stay one nation under Your glory. Amen.

Protest

Senator Colbeck, under his constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the passage of Senate Bill No. 90 and moved that the statement he made during the discussion of the bill be printed as his reasons for voting “no.”

The motion prevailed.

Senator Colbeck’s statement is as follows:

I rise in opposition to Senate Bill No. 90. It’s not an easy “no” vote, and many of you guys in this audience know why. But I want to make sure that everybody here understands. Let me be clear that I would oppose this legislation if it were to create any racially-segregated commission. Whether it was a Polish or Ukrainian or English-American commission, I would oppose it. I have previously opposed legislation that appropriated state funds to the Asian Pacific commission. Formation of this new commission will likely lead to a similar racial-based commission appropriation in the future. Dividing Americans into racial groups is by definition racist, regardless of which race is being singled out. Racism in any form has no place in our state.

Mr. President, behind you on the wall behind the rostrum is our state crest. On it are the words “e pluribus unum.” This is Latin for “out of many, one.” Senate Bill No. 90 seeks the exact opposite. It seeks to divide us into many from one. It seeks to divide us into groups of citizens organized by racial profile instead of recognizing that we are all citizens of Michigan. Our nation is called the United States of America for a reason. United we stand; divided we fall.

As you may recall in my remarks yesterday, I believe we’ve lost sight of what it means to be an American. Perhaps one of the reasons is because we are too busy worrying about which racial group we fit into, rather than appreciating the fact that we are all American citizens.

We need to stop promoting policies that divide us, and start promoting policies that unite us as Americans. It is for this reason that I urge a “no” vote on Senate Bill No. 90.

Senator Young entered the Senate Chamber.

The following bill was read a third time:

House Bill No. 4459, entitled
