Senate Bill 937 (as reported without amendment)
Sponsor: Senator Marty Knollenberg
Committee: Michigan Competitiveness

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Corrections Code to define "recidivism" as follows: the rearrest, reconviction, and reincarceration in prison or jail of an individual within three and five years of his or her release from incarceration, placement on probation, or conviction, whichever is later, and probation and parole violations as well as misdemeanor and felony convictions, if recidivism data regarding technical probation and parole violations are collected and maintained separately from data on new felony or misdemeanor convictions.

The bill would take effect 90 days after its enactment.

Proposed MCL 791.208a

Legislative Analyst: Suzanne Lowe

FISCAL IMPACT

The bill would have no fiscal impact on State or local government.
