The bill would amend Chapter IX (Judgment and Sentence) of the Code of Criminal Procedure to delay the sunset date of the Criminal Justice Policy Commission from January 12, 2019, to January 12, 2023.

Section 32a of Chapter IX establishes the Criminal Justice Policy Commission within the Legislative Council, and provides for the appointment of its members and its procedures.

Under Section 33a, the Commission must do all of the following:

- Collect, prepare, analyze, and disseminate information regarding State and local sentencing and proposed release policies and practices for felonies and the use of prisons and jails.
- Collect and analyze information concerning how misdemeanor sentences and the detention of defendants pending trial affect local jails.
- Conduct ongoing research regarding the effectiveness of the sentencing guidelines in achieving certain purposes, such as providing for the protection of the public, and ensuring that the guidelines are proportionate to the seriousness of the offense and the offender's prior criminal record.
- In cooperation with the Department of Corrections, collect, analyze, and compile data and make projections regarding the populations and capacities of State and local correctional facilities, the impact of the sentencing guidelines and other laws, rules, and policies on those populations and capacities, and the effectiveness of efforts to reduce recidivism.
- In cooperation with the State Court Administrator, collect, analyze, and compile data regarding the effect of sentencing guidelines on the caseload, docket flow, and case backlog of the State's trial and appellate courts.
- Develop modifications to the sentencing guidelines for recommendation to the Legislature.
- Consider the suitability and impact of offense variable scoring with regard to physical and psychological injury to victims and victims' families.

Sections 32a and 33a are scheduled to be repealed effective January 12, 2019. Under the bill, these sections would be repealed on January 12, 2023.
