Senate Bill 882 (as reported without amendment)
Sponsor: Senator David Knezek
Committee: Oversight

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Open Meetings Act to allow a school board to meet in a closed session to consider security planning.

Under the Act, all meetings of a public body must be open to the public and held in a place available to the general public. However, the Act allows a public body to meet in a closed session for limited purposes.

The bill would add that a school board could meet in a closed session to consider security planning to address existing threats or prevent potential threats to the safety of students and staff.
