Rep. Curt VanderWall, from the 101st District, offered the following invocation:

“Our Father, we ask You to bless each and every one of us today. I ask that You give comfort to those who have lost loved ones and that You heal those battling illness. I ask that You give us listening ears and soft tongues as we do the work of the people of the great state of Michigan.

I pray that once again that You can use us to heal the hostile feelings of our state and country as we move forward from this election season.

I ask that You are with us as we move forward and that You heal some of the damage that has occurred and that we can be the olive branch to our communities and country.

Lord, I ask that You bless us again today, tomorrow, and over the next few weeks as we turn the page on 2018 and move on to 2019. Please, Lord, help us to be positive and great leaders as we do our work and that we remember You as we make our decisions.

For Jesus’ sake, Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Rep. Greig moved that Rep. Scott be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Guerra, LaGrand, Cochran, Greig, Phelps and Sneller offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 413.

A resolution to urge cities and counties to use savings realized from bail reform to increase spending on community policing efforts and staffing of sheriff and police departments.

Whereas, The money bond system unnecessarily increases the number of people incarcerated prior to trial because there are many people, who pose no risk to public safety, unable to pay the bond set by the court. Incarcerating people prior to trial is a burden on local governments and taxpayers in Michigan and should only be done when public safety requires it. The cost of food, medical care, and security is estimated at $60 per day per person housed in a Michigan jail. Approximately 40 percent of the jail population is unable to post a cash bond, costing local municipalities $150 million in taxpayer dollars annually to house these individuals prior to trial; and

Whereas, House bills ___ and ___ currently pending before the Michigan Legislature would reform the bail bond system used in Michigan, ensuring that individuals who are low flight risks would not be detained due to an inability to pay a money bond. The bills would encourage non-financial conditions of release, such as court reminders, monitoring, and supervision already being used in many counties; and

Whereas, Local municipalities in Michigan can utilize savings realized from bail reform to initiate or bolster community policing programs. Community-oriented policing brings police and citizens together to stop crime before it happens and provide citizens greater control of their community’s quality of life. As residents and police officers communicate more frequently, trust and willingness to share information with officers increase. Hiring additional officers in sheriff and police departments will provide local municipalities the tools necessary to guarantee successful community-policing programs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge cities and counties to use savings realized from bail reform to increase spending on community-policing efforts and staffing of sheriff and police departments; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Municipal League, the Michigan Association of Counties, the Michigan Sheriffs’ Association, and the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Reps. Cochran, Albert, Allor, Barrett, Faris, Greig, Kelly, Liberati, Maturen, Phelps and Sneller offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 414.

A resolution to commemorate the centennial of the end of World War I.

Whereas, November 11, 2018, is the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice of November 11, 1918; and
Whereas, In 1918, on the 11th day, in the 11th month, at the 11th hour, the Allies and Central Powers agreed to a cease fire that would mark the end of World War I; and

Whereas, During the First World War, Michigan contributed over 135,000 service men and women and suffered over 5,000 casualties; and

Whereas, Michigan provided several volunteer units of their own, as well as the many volunteers and draftees who served in the Regular, National Guard, and National Army formations; and

Whereas, Although Michigan's service men and women greatly contributed to the war effort, Michigan's largest contributions were its engineering and manufacturing capabilities; and

Whereas, The war ended before Michigan reached the peak of production. However, twenty years later, Michigan would show the world its true power and become the "Arsenal of Democracy"; and

Whereas, With the help of Detroit City Councilman, Detroit Mayor, and Commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Eugene I. Van Antwerp, Congress approved Armistice Day to be a national holiday in 1938 and be dedicated to the cause of world peace; and

Whereas; November 11 is commemorated annually in many countries under various names such as Armistice Day, Remembrance Day, Veterans Day, and in Poland as Independence Day; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the centennial of the end of World War I. We recognize the 100th anniversary of the Armistice of November 11, 1918, in remembrance of the courage and bravery of those who stood against tyranny and oppression; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan World War I Centennial Commission, as evidence of our esteem for helping educate the public on Michigan's history during the Great War Years.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Kosowski, Allor, Barrett, Cochran, Greig, Kelly, Maturen, Phelps and Sneller offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 415.

A resolution to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the restoration of independence of the Republic of Poland.

Whereas, The people of Michigan and the Polish nation enjoy a deep and abiding relationship rooted in kinship and cultural and economic ties, with millions of Michiganders proudly tracing their roots to Poland; and

Whereas, In 1795, Poland was partitioned among the Prussia, Russia, and Austro-Hungarian Empires, taking away the Polish nation's independence and right to self-rule for the next 123 years; and

Whereas, Upon being granted statehood in 1837, the state of Michigan welcomed many oppressed Polish immigrants who became and remain a large and vital part of this state's rich history; and

Whereas, During this period of bondage, the slogan "For Our Freedom and Yours" became the battle cry of Poles throughout the world, enshrining the message that no country has the right to exploit, enslave, and oppress another nation and that each nation is entitled to self-rule; and

Whereas, During the First World War in 1917, the Allies united behind the Polish cause by issuing a decree establishing the Polish Army in France, known as the "Blue Army"; and

Whereas, In April 1917, the renowned Polish statesman and pianist, Ignacy Jan Paderewski, submitted a proposal to the U.S. House of Representatives to accept Polish-American volunteers for service on the Western Front in the name of Poland's independence; and

Whereas, Nearly 25,000 Polish immigrants in the United States of America, including many women, volunteered and joined over 60,000 other Poles in France as a constituent part of the Allies, of which over 2,000 were from Michigan; and

Whereas, In the crucial, final weeks of the Great War, the Blue Army, under the command of General Jozef Haller, distinguished itself on the battlefields in the Champagne Region, at Rheims, Roche Mère Henry, Alsace, Nancy in Lorraine, Marne, and in the defense of Paris; and

Whereas, After the United States of America entered the Great War in support of the Allies, of the first 100,000 volunteers to the U.S. Army who responded to President Wilson's call to military service, 40,000 were American citizens of Polish descent, many of whom were from Michigan; and

Whereas, President Woodrow Wilson, influenced by the heroic efforts of Polish-Americans on behalf of Poland's cause, on January 8, 1918, announced his famous Fourteen Points as the basis for peace in Europe, with Point 13 referring to the reconstruction of an independent Poland "with an outlet to the sea and an international guarantee of its independence and integrity"; and

Whereas, On November 11, 1918, Germany signed the Armistice with the Allies, thereby ending the war and also released from prison Jozef Pilsudski, who was proclaimed the Commander in Chief of the Polish forces by the Regency Council; and

Whereas, On behalf of the newly resurrected Polish nation, Roman Dmowski and Ignacy Jan Paderewski signed the Treaty of Versailles, which formally recognized the reemergence of Poland as a sovereign and independent nation; and

Whereas, On November 11, 2018, the 100th anniversary of the restoration of Poland's independence is recognized; and

Whereas, This legislative body is pleased to have this opportunity to recognize such events of significance which foster pride and exemplify the cultural diversity that represents and strengthens the fabric of the people of the state of Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 100th anniversary of the restoration of independence of the Republic of Poland. We reaffirm the bonds of friendship and cooperation which have existed between the United States of America, the state of Michigan, and the Republic of Poland for the past 100 years.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker Pro Tempore called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Glenn to the Chair.

Messages from the Governor

The following veto message from the Governor was received and read:

Executive Office, Lansing, October 16, 2018

Michigan House of Representatives
Michigan Senate
State Capitol Building
Lansing, Michigan 48913

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I write today to notify you that I have vetoed Enrolled House Bills 4350 and 4351. The bills would have exempted all parts used in an aircraft, excluding drones, from our sales and use taxes. Under current law, parts used in commercial aircraft, as well as parts installed on aircraft that fly into the state temporarily for repairs, are exempt from the tax.

Thanks to our robust economic growth and rapidly growing collections of sales and use tax, many believe that now is the time to enact industry-specific tax relief to promote competitiveness or parity with tax treatment in other states.

However, consideration of tax exemptions before we have a more complete picture on incoming revenues, other recommended revenue reductions, and any necessary investments, represents a change in course from the fiscally responsible principles that have helped put our state back on solid financial ground over the last eight years. As such, I do not believe it is appropriate to consider tax exemptions like those found in House Bills 4350 and 4351 at this time.

I look forward to having further discussions on proposed changes to the tax code, but only in the context of maintaining our commitment to a long-term balanced budget and ensuring we can fund investments critical to continuing the reinvention and comeback of Michigan.

Sincerely,
Rick Snyder
Governor

The question being on the passage of the bills, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding, Rep. Lauwers moved that the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Tax Policy.
The motion prevailed.
