Reverend Jim Lee of Renaissance Unity of Warren offered the following invocation:

Now we're bowing our heads in prayer to this one presence and one power that goes by many names, and today we call on this presence and this power, God Almighty—the omniscient, the absolute magnificent essence of the universe.

We pray today with an attitude of gratitude and we're grateful because we are alive and awake and aware, and we're grateful on this day that we are being seen, in fact, not viewed. We're so grateful and thankful that we're in our right mind, and I call upon this God Almighty to bless everyone here as they honor their commitment to be of service to the great state of Michigan. Almighty God, bless everyone here with Your wisdom as they grapple with complex issues and conditions to bring forth good for this great state.

Our prayer today, God, is that we live in this state of Michigan, but also we acknowledge that we live in a state of creativity and innovation and abundance that is the lifeblood of this magnificent state into the future. We see and know that something is springing forth with wonderful health and wealth and prosperity for everyone—for the upper class, for the middle class, and for the underprivileged class, everyone here can prosper. That is our prayer.

May all who are in this legislative body be filled with the courage and the boldness to stand up to bring forth the best that they have for Michigan, and may everyone here be connected to that one true source which is You, God, transcending all polarity. On this day, we declare this a new day, full of infinite possibilities as we affirm and declare that the best is yet to be.

My prayer is, May the light of God surround you, the love of God enfold you, the power of God protect you, and the presence of God watch over each and every one of you. We affirm and declare that this is so through the presence and the power of the infinite loving guidance of God Almighty.

So let it be, and so it is. Amen.

As always, we have a lot of folks that work for us that do a lot of things behind the scenes, and I have one of them here today, Paul Fisher, who will be retiring from the Legislative Service Bureau's legal editing services after 38 years. Paul began as a proofreader at LSB in 1980 and is now retiring as a supervisor.

His expertise in the field led him to share his skills teaching at both Michigan State University and Lansing Community College. He is a patient teacher and supervisor, and his proficiency will be missed by many at LSB.

With over 48,000 sections of Michigan Compiled Laws, Paul has likely read all of them during his time at LSB, sometimes after working well into the night and morning. Paul has played a pivotal role in the legislative process to ensure that the legislation we work on is not only accurate but clear and consistent, and we are grateful for his service.

We wish Paul and his wife Sandy the happiest of retirements. Could we congratulate and thank Paul for his service to this body?

Whereas, Every year on April 28, in cities, towns, at worksites and memorials in communities around the world, we gather to honor friends, family members, and colleagues who have been killed or injured on the job; and

Whereas, More than 579,000 workers' lives have been saved since the passage of the Occupational Safety and Health Act in 1970, but many workers remain in serious danger; and

Whereas, The Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that 5,190 fatal work injuries were recorded in the United States in 2016, and an estimated 50,000-60,000 died from occupational diseases; and

Whereas, In 2017, 162 workers were lost through fatal workplace accidents in Michigan, and in 2016, there were 97,000 injuries and illnesses reported; and

Whereas, It is appropriate to honor the memory of the courageous and dedicated members of Michigan's labor force who have been injured, disabled, or have died as a result of workplace accidents; and

Whereas, We remember those who have died in workplace catastrophes, suffered occupation-related diseases, or have been injured due to dangerous conditions; and

Whereas, Recognition of the integrity of Michigan's work force and its achievements on behalf of the economic growth of our state is necessary; and

Whereas, The Michigan Senate wishes to pay tribute to the workers who have died, been injured, or disabled in workplace accidents. We honor the contributions of Michigan's work force and call for increased workplace safety; now, therefore, be it

Today I rise to address my resolution to honor Workers' Memorial Day here in Michigan. We're home to a great labor tradition here in Michigan, and we all care about the workers who make our state run. We've made great strides to protect our workers, but we still have a ways to go. In 2018, we shouldn't be seeing any more workplace deaths, but we still do. So today, I am asking that we reaffirm our commitment to keeping workers safe on the job.

Senators Hertel, Schuitmaker, Rocca, Gregory, Conyers, Young and Ananich offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 158.

A resolution to recognize April 26, 2018, as Survivor Empowerment Day.

Whereas, Sexual assault is an endemic in our society, with one in three women and one in six men experiencing some form of sexual violence in their lifetime; and

Whereas, Incidents of sexual assault are exponentially higher on college campuses, where women ages 18-24 are three times more likely to experience sexual assault; and

Whereas, Despite this pervasiveness, an estimated 63 percent of sexual assaults and 90 percent of campus sexual assaults are not reported; and

Whereas, In order to create meaningful cultural and systemic change to end sexual violence, the voices of survivors who bravely come forward must be heard and uplifted; and

Whereas, We encourage survivors to embrace their voice and realize their power to become agents of change; and

Whereas, Survivor Empowerment Day is intended to promote a society where survivors of sexual assault are believed, supported, and strengthened; and

Whereas, We recognize the continuing need to bring awareness to this issue and stand in solidarity with every survivor of sexual assault; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body recognize April 26, 2018, as Survivor Empowerment Day.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Bieda, Booher, Casperson, Hansen, Hood, Knezek, Knollenberg, MacGregor, Proos, Warren and Brandenburg were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senator Hertel asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Hertel's statement is as follows:

Today I rise in support of my resolution to recognize April 26, 2018, as Survivor Empowerment Day in Michigan. In recognition of Sexual Assault Awareness Month in April, Survivor Empowerment Day is a day dedicated to encouraging survivors of sexual assault to embrace their voice, realize their power, and to become agents of change. This day is also intended to promote a society where survivors are heard, believed, strengthened, and uplifted.

Joining us in the Gallery are many guests who are here in Lansing today in support of Survivor Empowerment Day. Though I know just how prevalent and widespread the issue of sexual assault is, I was awestruck by the outpouring of support and dedication to survivors we have seen throughout this event today. We have advocates who have driven to Lansing from Sault Ste. Marie and another who took a red-eye flight from Seattle just to be here with us and talk to legislators about their stories. They are here to show this Legislature how many lives are affected by sexual violence and how far all should be willing to go to support them.

There are a few guests in particular today who I would like to recognize. We have 18 of the Sister Survivors joining us today—the women who captivated the nation earlier this year as their voices rang out from an Ingham County courthouse. These women sparked a national dialogue, broke systems that enabled abusers, brought their abuser to justice, and have inspired us all with their strength and powerful words. Those of us listening intently were quick to dub their powerful testimonies and courage in facing their abuser as empowering. While that may be true for some survivors, for many, the experience from the sentencing, to the media attention, to the public scrutiny, and to legal cases has been fraught with rehashing trauma and lingering questions—“Am I believed?” We're here to say, definitively, “Yes.” Survivor Empowerment Day gives survivors back what many of them were missing for far too long—controlling their own story. We hope survivors will embrace their voice today and leave with the knowledge that they will hold the power to effect real and lasting change. We hope every survivor knows this Legislature hears you. We believe you. We know your voice can change the world.

At 11:00 a.m., colleagues, I want to join you in the Speaker's Library where we will have pizza, a luncheon, and speakers. At 1:00 p.m., in Rooms 402 and 403, we're going to have a forum on consent. I ask that you try to join us for all that. I also ask that my colleagues please support this resolution, and co-sponsor it as well.

Senators Bieda, Gregory, Conyers and Knezek offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 159.

A resolution to encourage the Congress of the United States to enact stronger Medicare fraud enforcement measures.

Whereas, The Medicare program costs over $591 billion in 2017. Also in that year, the program lost about $60 billion in tax dollars, or about 10 percent of program costs, to fraud and waste, an amount reportedly higher than the annual budget for some federal departments and programs; and

Whereas, The Medicare program provides vital health care to millions of seniors and disabled individuals. Fraud and abuse in the Medicare system stem from numerous sources and are costing the program billions of dollars; and

Whereas, Funds are fraudulently siphoned from the Medicare program in various ways. Most commonly, the theft occurs as a result of charges for services that were not delivered, duplicate claims, falsified records, identity theft, fraudulent actions of patients and providers, billing for unnecessary equipment, and inflated claims; and

Whereas, Medicare fraud results in approximately $1,000 lost in health care spending for each Medicare enrollee. Additionally, fake billing impacts individual beneficiaries by causing a loss of personal medical information and may result in higher life insurance rates; and

Whereas, More efforts to address fraud before it takes place is essential to turning the tide of Medicare fraud. Part of the fight involves health care advocates who must encourage beneficiaries to scrutinize their explanation of benefit statements, and carefully guard their Medicare cards; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we encourage the Congress of the United States to provide funding for early detection of fraud and to enact stronger Medicare fraud enforcement measures; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Senator Kowall moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

The motion prevailed.

Senators Ananich, Booher, Brandenburg, Hansen, Hertel, Hood, Knollenberg, Rocca and Warren were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Warren, Gregory, Hopgood, Kowall, Brandenburg, Hansen and Marleau offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 160.

A resolution to express support for efforts to raise awareness of the fight against cancer.

Whereas, Cancer is one of the major public health threats facing our state and nation. Cancer is the second leading cause of death in the United States, and a person has a 1 in 3 chance of developing cancer; and

Whereas, More than 57,000 Michiganders will receive the news that they have been diagnosed with cancer in 2018. Cancer patients face countless challenges associated with their diagnoses, including physical, emotional, financial, and daily challenges; and

Whereas, There is a continued need to raise awareness of this disease, share information on ways to reduce the risk of cancer, and support the efforts to find a cure. The American Cancer Society, its partners, and similar organizations help meet these needs by helping people stay well, finding cures, and fighting this disease; and

Whereas, The Coaches vs. Cancer Program is an example of the collaborative efforts to fight against cancer. This nationwide partnership between the American Cancer Society and the National Association of Basketball Coaches works to leverage the personal experiences, community leadership, and professional excellence of coaches nationwide to increase cancer awareness and promote healthy living. Through efforts like the Coaches vs. Cancer “Suits and Sneakers” event, where Michigan coaches join with their fellow coaches nationwide by wearing sneakers with their game attire while coaching games, this program raises awareness about the fight against cancer and shares the importance of nutrition and physical activity in reducing one’s cancer risk. Since 1993, coaches and their supporters have raised more than $87 million for services and programs available to fight cancer; and

Whereas, Partnerships like Coaches vs. Cancer are needed now more than ever to raise awareness of the ways to reduce the risk of cancer. Such endeavors must continue to be supported so that one day cancer will be eliminated as a major public health issue; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we support efforts to raise awareness of the fight against cancer.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Ananich, Bieda, Booher, Casperson, Hertel, Hood, Knezek, Knollenberg, MacGregor, Proos and Rocca were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Gregory, Hood, Marleau, Hopgood, Warren, Ananich, Knezek, Conyers, Young, Hertel, Hansen and Bieda offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 161.

A resolution to commemorate May 2018 as Lupus Awareness Month.

Whereas, The Michigan Lupus Foundation will be highlighting awareness this year by hosting “Cure to the Capitol Lupus Awareness Bike Ride” on Saturday, May 12, 2018, where participants will be biking to the State Capitol from their office in Southfield; and

Whereas, Each year, the lupus agencies of Michigan designate May as Lupus Awareness Month to show support for the 1.5 million Americans and 5 million people worldwide who suffer from the often debilitating effects of lupus, a chronic autoimmune disease that can cause severe damage to the tissue and organs in the body and, in some cases, death; and

Whereas, Thousands of people are newly diagnosed with lupus each year, the great majority of whom are young people in the prime of their lives and 90 percent of whom are women; and

Whereas, Lupus is most prevalent among African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans, and Asians. Tragically, thousands of people die from lupus each year because a cure remains elusive; and

Whereas, There is a continued need for increased public and professional awareness of lupus; and

Whereas, Medical research efforts into lupus and the discovery of safer, more effective treatments for lupus patients are underfunded in comparison with diseases of comparable magnitude and severity; and

Whereas, Increasing community awareness and focusing public attention on lupus and its devastating impact on people’s lives will provide hope for a better future for those affected; and

Whereas, The Michigan Lupus Foundation is dedicated to improving the quality of life for individuals with lupus and their loved ones by providing education, support, and outreach services and promoting programs of awareness, advocacy, and research; and

Whereas, This legislative body recognizes the needs of those chronically-ill people who are living with lupus. We urge all citizens to support the search for a cure and assist those individuals and families who deal with this devastating disease on a daily basis; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we commemorate May 2018 as Lupus Awareness Month; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Michigan Lupus Foundation.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Kowall moved that the rule be suspended.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Ananich, Gregory and Bieda asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Ananich's statement is as follows:

Fifteen million dollars is not nearly enough, but if it is what the Republicans are willing to give at this time, we will take it. But I will hold you to this being a first step, not a final commitment.

I'm offering an amendment to ease the burden on our already cash-strapped schools. My amendment removes the 25 percent matching requirement, removes the grant limitation amount, and removes the requirement that schools pay for the building improvements and then be reimbursed.

School safety and security is a serious issue and it deserves a serious response. My amendment restores the $50 million in the grant program for building security and then adds the $50 million for the Department of Education to use for school counselors, school social workers, and resource officers. This is a serious commitment to making our schools and children safer.

Michigan law enforcement says they need over $100 million. Wisconsin has committed $100 million to school safety and security. My caucus is prepared to vote to use state dollars to provide schools the necessary resources.

The safety of our kids should not come with conditions and strings. Schools should not be refused grant money because they can't provide matching funds.

Senator Gregory's statement is as follows:

I rise to offer my support for the school safety supplemental because I think it's a start in the right direction, but that doesn't mean I think it's the golden solution, because it isn't. This is just a drop in the bucket compared to what career police officers, educators, school administrators, and public health professionals believe we need to keep our kids safe.

As lawmakers, it's important for us to take a step back and recognize that we may not have all the answers to every problem. We may use our prior experience throughout the years to make informed decisions. I often rely on my experience in the Marines during Vietnam and over 30 years as a police officer and detective in the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

But it's also important for us to seek out advice from people currently in that field. For example, the Michigan Sheriff's Association, in conjunction with other public safety professionals, issued the Michigan School Safety Reform Plan. Their plan called for $120 million to place additional sheriffs and police officers in schools, hire more mental health professionals to identify problems early, upgrade buildings with protective measures, and require mandatory reporting to stop school shootings before they happen. We should listen to the public safety experts.

There will be those who say that this supplemental is multiple times what has been offered in the past, but just because it's more than last time doesn't mean it's good enough. We have school safety threats now. We have children dying now. We don't have time to wait. The time for action is now, not next year.

Senator Bieda's statement is as follows:

I rise to offer my support for the school safety reforms before us. The number of school threats is the highest it's ever been in Michigan. We are setting a new record, year after year, for the wrong reasons, and it has to stop. Security experts and school administrators overwhelmingly agree that every school needs basic security features to keep children safe, such as surveillance cameras, panic buttons, and single points of entry. Today, we're proposing putting $15 million toward those enhancements, which are needed, and that's why I'm voting for this supplemental.

While we are taking steps in the right direction to keep our children safe, I want to make one thing clear: this is not enough. With nearly 3,500 schools in the state, this $15 million supplemental breaks down to just $4,285 per school building. That's not nearly enough to outfit every school with reinforced doors. That's not nearly enough to hire resource officers to patrol every school. That's not nearly enough to keep our kids safe. Which is why my Democratic colleagues and I introduced the state's largest school security funding plan nearly a week ago, with more than $100 million proposed for school safety funding. Our children are precious and we believe that every child is worth protecting.

This supplemental puts a $15 million price tag on a lot of public school students which breaks down to about $10 per student, and that's just $10 per student. I know our students are worth more than a few packs of Skittles. While I'll be voting "yes" on this supplemental, I want my colleagues to know that this is not enough.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of Statements

Senators Colbeck and Warren asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Colbeck's statement is as follows:

In August 2004, an alert Maryland Transportation Authority police officer observed a woman videotaping the support structure of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge and conducted a traffic stop. The driver of the vehicle was identified as Ismail Elbarasse and detained on an outstanding material witness warrant issued in Chicago, Illinois in connection with fundraising for Hamas. The FBI's Washington Field Office subsequently executed a search warrant on Elbarasse's residence in Annandale, Virginia. In the basement of his home, a hidden sub-basement was found. The contents of the sub-basement proved to be the archives of the Muslim Brotherhood in North America. Among the 80 banker-boxes worth of documents discovered there were papers that confirmed what investigators and counter-terrorism experts had long suspected and contended about the myriad Muslim-American groups in the United States: nearly all of them are controlled by the Muslim Brotherhood.

The documents make clear the groups' sole objective is to implement Islamic law in America in furtherance of re-establishing the global caliphate. One of the most important of these documents made public to date was entered into evidence during the Holy Land Foundation trial. It amounted to the Muslim Brotherhood's strategic plan for the United States and was entitled, "An Explanatory Memorandum: On the General Strategic Goal for the Group in North America."

The explanatory memorandum clearly explains the anti-American objectives of the Muslim Brotherhood. It includes the following chilling statement in reference to what they call "civilization jihad": "The process of settlement is a Civilization-Jihad Process with all the word means. The Ikhwan," i.e. the Muslim Brotherhood, "must understand that their work in America is a kind of grand jihad in eliminating and destroying the Western civilization from within and sabotaging its miserable house by their hands and the hands of the believers so that it is eliminated and God's religion is made victorious over all other religions."

The document goes on to identify friendly organizations in support of this mission statement. Among these organizations are the following: the Islamic Society of North America, the Muslim Student Association—the pledge for members of the Muslim Student Association says that, "jihad is our spirit," and "I will die to establish Islam," not exactly the Scout Oath—and another organization is the Islamic Association for Palestine.

In 1994, three years after the explanatory memorandum was written, three leaders of the Islamic Association for Palestine incorporated the Council for American-Islamic Relations, known as CAIR. CAIR was subsequently identified as an unindicted co-conspirator with the Muslim Brotherhood in the Holy Land Foundation trial. All of this information is a matter of evidentiary fact. It is not conjecture. It is not a conspiracy theory as some have asserted.

Just as my expression of concerns with the actions of the Westboro Baptist Church when they interrupt funeral ceremonies for our military heroes is not an indictment of all Christians, neither should my concerns with the Muslim Brotherhood be interpreted as an indictment of all Muslims as some have falsely chosen to assert.

Make no mistake, there are those among us who prefer that the general public be denied awareness of this information about the Muslim Brotherhood and its friendly organizations. They target anyone who seeks to share this information with incendiary terms like racist or xenophobe. Mind you, there is no refutation of the validity of the information that I have shared. They simply lob inflammatory, derogatory remarks my way in an attempt to silence the truth. Silence is their friend.

We cannot afford to be silent on this issue. The organizations which share the professed mission of the Muslim Brotherhood to destroy our nation from within are real, not theoretical. They are active right here in the state of Michigan.

As one who took an oath to support the Michigan Constitution and U.S. Constitution, it is my duty to expose those who would wish to eliminate and destroy our system of governance. They can call me whatever names they want. It is a small price to be paid in the defense of freedom. Others have paid a much higher price.

Now it is my turn and I will not flinch in my service to defend the citizens and values that make America truly exceptional. As fellow policymakers, I encourage each and every one of you in this room to read the explanatory memorandum and join me in the defense of freedom.

Senator Warren's statement is as follows:

Today I rise to ask for your support for Senate Resolution No. 77, which urges Congress to adopt an amendment to the United States Constitution to clarify the distinction between the free speech of natural persons and the political spending done by corporations. It's no secret the outcomes of both our state and local elections are increasingly being decided by moneyed interests and candidates who are able to fundraise more dollars instead of the votes of individual citizens. Each year, enormous and ever increasing sums of special-interest money flows into American and Michigan elections, drowning out the voices of individual citizens.

As you know, one of the primary factors that has allowed this concerning trend to continue is the 2010 Supreme Court ruling in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, which upheld the ability of corporate donors to make unlimited contributions to influence the outcome of elections. By ruling in Citizens United that corporate donors' funding of election communications is considered free speech, the United States Supreme Court hamstringing the ability of state legislatures to maintain fair and transparent elections.

Yesterday, reports were due to the Secretary of State's Bureau of Elections regarding the funds raised and spent in political action committees. But even if our citizens take the time to pore over the reports, they still won't have the whole picture of who is trying to influence the elections of more than 1,000 candidates who had filed for office before Tuesday.

Colleagues, this is our fault. Even though public opinion shows that large majorities of both Republicans and Democrats believe that increases in political spending and independent expenditures are bad for our democracy, we voted last year for what has been called Citizens United on steroids. We voted not only to allow candidates to use the same attorneys and vendors as super PACs, but even to allow candidates to solicit contributions to super PACs. This election cycle is projected to be the most expensive in our state's history. These extreme and often untraceable sums of money are undermining fundamental political free speech and the basic democratic principle of one person, one vote, and entrenching special interest groups in our political process.

Unfortunately, ultimately, they are making it increasingly difficult for federal lawmakers, and even us as state legislators, to find solutions to the most pressing issues. It's becoming increasingly clear that stemming the tide of money in politics is critical to maintaining the freedom of ordinary citizens to effectively and equally participate in the democratic process. It is for this reason that I introduced Senate Resolution No. 77, urging the adoption of a 28th Amendment to the United States Constitution that would allow state legislatures to set campaign finance limits, to prevent anonymous and untraceable spending, and to limit any one individual's influence over the political process. And, ultimately, to ensure that the voice of ordinary citizens are no longer overwhelmed by corporate interests and wealthy individuals.

This is a change that our constituents are demanding. Just one example: during last summer's Ann Arbor Art Fairs, an organization called Reclaim Our American Democracy—or ROAD—collected more than 550 signatures on a petition asking that this resolution be brought to a hearing. This issue is more than deserving of a hearing, colleagues, it's deserving of all of our support.

I hope you will join me in supporting Senate Resolution No. 77.

The Committee on Outdoor Recreation and Tourism reported

Senate Resolution No. 153.

A resolution to oppose the Michigan State Waterways Commission recommendation that legislation be introduced to require the registration with a fee of all rigid-hulled kayaks, canoes, and paddleboards eight feet or longer.

With the recommendation that the following substitute (S-1) be adopted and that the resolution then be adopted:

A resolution to oppose the Michigan State Waterways Commission Resolution 02-2018-01 which recommends the Legislature implement a registration fee of up to $10 per year for each rigid-hulled kayak, canoe, and paddleboard eight feet or longer.

Whereas, Paddle sports are one of the fastest-growing outdoor activities in the nation. Many Michigan residents and visitors from other states enjoy a leisurely paddle on the waters of this state and in doing so, contribute more than $140 million to Michigan's economy; and

Whereas, The Michigan State Waterways Commission recently passed Resolution 02-2018-01 recommending that registration fees be implemented for all rigid-hulled kayaks and canoes as well as paddleboards eight feet or longer. Under current law, these vessels are exempt from fees and registration in Michigan; and

Whereas, Most paddlers will receive minimal benefit from the registration fees, especially the many boaters who exclusively paddle inland waterways and rivers. Although some rustic and unimproved access sites exist along Michigan's waterways and rivers, most funding for access sites go to state boat launches designed for powerboats and trailers. These sites are not necessarily safe or easy for paddlers to use. Paddlers who do choose to launch from state sites must purchase a recreation passport which supports the maintenance and operation of these sites. Registration fees also fund sheriff patrols on Michigan's inland lakes. Although safer inland lakes are beneficial to paddlers, increased safety patrols will provide little benefit for paddlers traversing rivers and scenic waterways; and

Whereas, As more Michigan residents discover the excitement and adventure of paddling on Michigan waterways, a registration fee on these vessels would only curtail the growth of a sport that provides great benefits to our state. A family sport, paddling allows residents who are unable to participate in powerboating to access our boundless water resources. A registration fee would only place a burden on our residents while adversely impacting the economic benefits that paddle sports bring to Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That we oppose the Michigan State Waterways Commission Resolution 02-2018-01 which recommends the Legislature implement a registration fee of up to $10 per year for each rigid-hulled kayak, canoe, and paddleboard eight feet or longer; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the members of the Michigan State Waterways Commission.
