We believe that we will be and/or become an ecumenical body. Father whereas we realize that we are not always in uniformity, we thank You that we are marching towards unity. I pray blessings over our governor, this legislative body, and the entire state of Michigan. I thank You Father God and declare all these things to be so. In the name above all names I pray, AMEN!!!!”

Messages from the Senate

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 13.

A concurrent resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Bill S. Huffman, former member of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Whereas, It is with great sadness that the members of the Michigan Legislature learned of the passing of Billy Huffman. He was a thoughtful and devoted advocate for his constituents in southeastern Oakland County and the people of the entire state during six terms in the House and two terms in the Senate; and

Whereas, Billy Huffman had a distinguished record of public service long before he arrived in Lansing. He served in the U.S. Navy during World War II and was involved in local government, first as a member of the Madison Heights city council and then as the city’s mayor. The people of Madison Heights and the surrounding areas appreciated his contributions to the community and elected him to be their representative in the House for the first time in 1962, where he served until he was elected to the Senate in 1974; and

Whereas, During his time in the Legislature, Billy Huffman was known both for his ability to forge relationships with his colleagues and skill in mastering policy. He put those talents to work serving as one of the Capitol’s key powerbrokers on a wide range of issues. He did extensive work on the appropriations committees in both the House and the Senate, taking a particular interest in higher education. It was especially important to him that people from all walks of life were able to attend college and that a university education would not be out of reach for people simply because of the cost; and

Whereas, After leaving the Senate in 1982, Billy Huffman continued his efforts to improve the educational opportunities for the people of Michigan through his work with the Michigan Higher Education Association. Retirement also gave him plenty of time with his family and friends whose company he greatly cherished; and

Whereas, Billy Huffman was a consummate legislative dealmaker, tremendous colleague, and tireless public advocate. Upon his passing, we offer our condolences to his family and friends. We hope that they may find comfort in the knowledge that the community as a whole shares in their bereavement and that the legacy of Billy Huffman’s contributions will long continue to enrich our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Bill S. Huffman, a member of the House of Representatives from 1963 to 1974 and a member of the Senate from 1975 to 1982; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Huffman family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The Speaker and the entire membership of the House of Representatives were named co-sponsors of the concurrent resolution.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

The concurrent resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Lilly to the Chair.

The Committee on Agriculture, by Rep. Alexander, Chair, reported

House Resolution No. 104.

A resolution to memorialize the United States Department of Agriculture to recognize industrial hemp as a valuable agricultural commodity and to take certain steps to remove barriers to encourage the commercial production of this crop.

(For text of resolution, see House Journal No. 48, p. 579.)

With the recommendation that the following substitute (H-1) be adopted and that the resolution then be adopted.

A resolution urging the United States Department of Agriculture to recognize industrial hemp as a valuable agricultural commodity and take steps to remove barriers to the commercial production of this crop.

Whereas, Industrial hemp is cultivated to produce fiber, grain, biomass, or non-intoxicating medical compounds, such as cannabidiol (CBD). Industrial hemp is genetically distinct from the drug varieties known as marihuana and includes only parts and varieties that contain a tetrahydrocannabinol concentration of 0.3 percent or less by dry weight; and

Whereas, Industrial hemp is among the earliest and most-widely cultivated plants in human history, with artifacts dated at approximately 10,000 years old. Today, industrial hemp is known for a multitude of uses and can be found in thousands of products including textiles, fibers, biodegradable plastics, cosmetics, food, and oil extracts; and

Whereas, Industrial hemp has played a crucial role in the development of the United States, providing raw material for the manufacture of rope, sail canvas, textiles and paper in the 18th and 19th centuries. Increased availability of other industrial fibers combined with concerns about marihuana abuse led to a gradual prohibition of cannabis cultivation in the United States. By the mid-1930s cannabis was regulated as a drug across the country and effectively outlawed by the federal Marihuana Tax Act of 1937; and

Whereas, In recent years reduced regulations at the federal level have created opportunities to revitalize this valuable commodity. After nearly 80 years of federal restriction, the 2014 Farm Bill permitted regulated research by state governments or universities on this valuable agricultural commodity, and, later, the 2018 Farm Bill legalized commercial production of industrial hemp in all 50 states; and

Whereas, In 2019, Michigan began an agricultural pilot program to study the growth, cultivation, and marketing of industrial hemp, as authorized by the 2014 Farm Bill. To date, 547 grower registrations and 403 processor-handler licenses have been issued; and

Whereas, The United States Department of Agriculture has not yet completed promulgating federal rules for hemp production. Industrial hemp farmers in Michigan continue to operate under emergency guidelines established by the Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development. Uncertainty in processing rules and regulations may stymie an important economic opportunity that could stimulate an economic resurgence for the agricultural industry across and throughout the state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the United States Department of Agriculture to promulgate rules and provide guidance to state departments of agriculture on submission of state hemp plans in a timely manner; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Secretary of Agriculture and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

Messages from the Senate

Senate Bill No. 348, entitled

A bill to amend 1939 PA 280, entitled "The social welfare act," (MCL 400.1 to 400.119b) by adding section 111n.

The Senate has passed the bill.

The bill was read a first time by its title and referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11.

A concurrent resolution to urge the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to promptly approve a variance regarding shared bathroom facilities at the D.J. Jacobetti Home for Veterans.

Whereas, The D.J. Jacobetti Home for Veterans provides a home-like environment that meets a range of care needs, including skilled nursing care. Former service members choose the D.J. Jacobetti Home for Veterans for the unique environment it provides, which includes the comradery gained by living with other veterans. Because this population is predominantly male, it differs significantly from most skilled nursing environments; and

Whereas, The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) requires skilled nursing facilities to equip each resident room with its own bathroom. If a facility wants to provide shared bathrooms, CMS must approve a variance, an exemption from these federal regulations; and

Whereas, 105 of the 186 beds at the D.J. Jacobetti Home for Veterans, all occupied by male residents, do not meet this bathroom requirement because they offer shared bathroom facilities. This means they are currently ineligible to be dually certified for Medicare and Medicaid like the other 81 beds; and

Whereas, There are times when a veteran eligible for Medicare or Medicaid benefits seeks placement in this facility, but the only available beds are non-certified. Veterans face the difficult position of choosing between receiving only partial benefits to be able to stay at the D. J. Jacobetti Home for Veterans and being able to use all of their entitled benefits, a right they have earned through their service to our country; and

Whereas, The advantages gained by allowing veterans to fully utilize the health benefits available to them by approving a variance from CMS bathroom requirements far outweigh any potential issues. Veterans deserve to be able to live where they choose without sacrificing any of their health benefits; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we urge the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services to promptly approve a variance regarding shared bathroom facilities at the D.J. Jacobetti Home for Veterans; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Administrator of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, the Director of the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, and the Director of the Michigan Veterans Affairs Agency.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Committee on Military, Veterans and Homeland Security.
