Pastor Jevon Catlett of Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church of Flint offered the following invocation:
Lord, great is Your name and wonderful are Your works and Your hands.

Lord, this is the day which You have indeed made, and our responsibility is to rejoice and be glad in it, for, God, You have made us and not we ourselves. God, our prayer today is this: that You will continue to grant peace, love, compassion, faithfulness, forgiveness, and justice as we are conveyed to be loving and to always give Your name praise, honor, and glory.

Lord, we end this prayer with the words of St. Paul and St. Peter: to You be glory, to You be the majesty, the dominion, and the power for now and forever. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senators Lucido and Santana asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Lucido’s statement is as follows:

I stand before you on a package of bills that has bipartisan support.

This is a bill package that started many, many years ago and that package is to go ahead and keep our most valuable resources in this state safe, but also make sure the penalties are in line so they don’t continue to have recidivism. This is the “raise the age” package that we’re about to vote on. This package—starting from Senate Bill No. 84 and continuing down—has bipartisan support because both sides of the aisle worked very hard and diligently over the last five years. I am very happy to report to you that this package takes care of our children, our most prized and precious resources that we have.

I appreciate the support of both sides of the aisle in this package because these children don’t need to end up in prison for the rest of their life. There is given a chance. You can’t vote in this state until you’re 18; you can’t get married in this state until your 18 without parental consent; you can’t even go into the military without parental consent before your 18th birthday; and the best part is you can’t even sit on a jury at 17, but yet we try adults at 17.

Today, I am proud to present to you, with colleagues from both sides of the aisle, a package that will give our children a chance. I appreciate, Mr. President, the support of the entire Senate today.

Senator Santana’s statement is as follows:

I rise in support of the “raise the age” bill package—Senate Bill Nos. 84 and 90 through 102.

Over the past 30 years, we have had many 17-year-olds whose lives have been forever changed because they were treated as adults in the criminal justice system. We now know what past legislators did not know—that getting “tough on crime” only resulted in more crime, having juveniles sexually assaulted in the prison and treated as prey by adults with no true opportunity for real reform.

We are turning the tide today and for this we can all be grateful. This legislation is long overdue but still timely, and let us not delay any longer. Compromise is inevitable, especially when there is a monetary cost that must be considered. But let us not let the perfect be the enemy of the good.

I want to thank all my colleagues who started this journey five and a half years ago and those who are continuing to carry the baton to the finish line, to all the advocacy groups who stayed in the conversations and helped right this wrong, and to all the local governments who know that this is simply the right thing to do.

Our quality of life and our future generations’ quality of life is dependent on every decision we make in this chamber, and when this legislation passes and is signed into law, we can all be proud not to be one of the last three states that allow mistakes at 17 years old become a lifetime of wrongdoing.

The following bill was read a third time:

Senate Bill No. 90, entitled

A bill to amend 1939 PA 288, entitled “Probate code of 1939,” by amending sections 1, 3, and 11 of chapter XIII (MCL 712A.1, 712A.3, and 712A.11), section 1 as amended by 2016 PA 496, section 3 as amended by 1996 PA 409, and section 11 as amended by 2016 PA 185.

Resolutions

Senators McCann, Brinks, Polehanki, Ananich, Alexander, Hollier, Chang and VanderWall offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 39.

A resolution to recognize May 7, 2019, as Michigan Foster Care Day.

Whereas, May is National Foster Care Awareness Month, and during that time, we reflect on the dedication of foster and kinship caregivers, faith-based and community organizations, and child welfare professionals who are improving the lives of children and youth in foster care throughout the country; and

Whereas, Michigan is deeply indebted to these selfless and compassionate Americans; and

Whereas, We also observe this month with sadness because of the plight of innocent children who are in foster care and who have had their lives disrupted by neglect or abuse; and

Whereas, Providing a stable, secure, and nurturing home environment is one of the greatest gifts a foster parent or guardian can give a child; and

Whereas, This critical investment in their well-being, safety, and sense of belonging brings precious hope to children in need. With gratitude, we acknowledge the tremendous sacrifices made by our foster families as they open their hearts and lives and provide secure and supportive home for the hundreds of thousands of infants, children, and youth in foster care; and

Whereas, We also take this opportunity to acknowledge that there is still much more we can do to prevent the abuse and neglect that forces children into foster care placements. As the number of children placed in foster care continues to increase, driven in part by the opioid crisis and drug abuse, we are dedicated to bringing help and healing to families threatened by addiction so that parents and children can stay together in a safe and stable home environment; and

Whereas, We are blessed that our country is filled with generous individuals and families who willingly welcome children in need into their homes so that they can experience loving guardianship and some of the joys of family life. Many of these heroic families provide foster care for children with complex medical and challenging psychological and behavioral needs; and

Whereas, During May, we look to set aside a special day as an opportunity to raise awareness about the increasing number of children and youth entering foster care and to encourage Americans to invest in the lives of some of Michigan's most vulnerable children and families; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body recognize May 7, 2019, as Michigan Foster Care Day; and be it further

Resolved, That we call upon all Michiganders to observe this day, and the entire month of May, by taking the time to help children and youth in foster care, while also recognizing the commitment of those who touch their lives, particularly by celebrating their foster parents and other caregivers.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator MacGregor moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Bayer, Bullock, Daley, Geiss, Lucido, McMorrow, Moss, Santana and Wojno were named co-sponsors of the resolution.
