Pastor Sam Krikke of Searchlight Ministries of Hudsonville offered the following invocation:

Our Father, we bless You this morning for this opportunity to gather at the start of our workday to seek Your face. We bless You for the love of the Father, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. We bless You for Your presence here with us.

Help us to know You and to recognize Your works: Your power, goodness, wisdom, mercy, and kindness. May we model our lives—all we say and do—so that we reflect the fullness of Your presence within us. And may You be honored and praised.

I thank You, Father, for these men and women who serve our state so faithfully and diligently. They have dedicated themselves to public service and we are grateful for them. And so may they, along with all people, humble themselves in Your presence, seeking Your leadership and guidance in all of their work.

May they take to heart Your message from the prophet Isaiah, who said “I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line.” Father, may Your Holy Spirit empower them to govern, not simply according to party lines, but according to Your righteousness and Your justice. May they be filled then with compassion and understanding, being quick to listen and slow to speak. May they abound in wisdom and in love for what is right. May they model mercy and love in their approach to governing.

Help these men and women to respect each other, even when they have differing views and opinions. May their words to each other be gracious and their words about each other be even more gracious. Forgive them when they are not respectful, and in those moments give them the grace to seek reconciliation.

Father, we know that governing is hard work, and yet it is the work that You have given to them. Grant them courage to do what is right and embark on the path that serves the common good. And may You grant us here—in the state of Michigan, and throughout our nation—the gift of peace.

We pray all of this in confidence that You will hear and answer our prayers. In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.
