Rev. Brett Barlett, Pastor of Wyldewood Baptist Church, offered the following invocation:

“Father in Heaven,

We assemble ourselves today as Your creatures and subjects, to humble ourselves before Thy magnificent holiness, acknowledging Thy Headship over Adams’s fallen race and Lordship over the affairs of our lives both; Individually, as Thy workmanship and Corporately, over the kingdoms and governments of this world. We, being but mortal congregants, desire to thank Thee for thy Providence in granting us, we proud, privileged few ... we Americans ... a nation where such public petition of Thy blessing upon our incumbent duties as stewards of the crown jewel of this union ... the grande state of Michigan, may be offered to Your Throne of Grace without fear of reprisal.

We thank Thee for having endowed this beautiful estate and its exceptional citizenry with chargeable overseers and would ask;

-Thy Mighty hand wouldst guide them in the matters of State which Thou hast ordained...

-That Thou wouldst empower their efforts of genuine and noble patriotism to raise the lives of Michiganders to the level of Thine divine intentions ...

-That Thou mightiest enable them to harmonize a righteous, and sensible, and practical application of our laws and legislature with their abstract principles, reducing to actual facts the cherished ideals of our jurisprudence which have been founded upon scriptural precept ... elevating instruction to knowledge ... deepening knowledge to wisdom ... rendering wisdom complete in the Truth of Thy words ... and realizing our love for the great and sovereign state of Michigan and our Country which ‘Tis of Thee’, in the Great Commandment to love You, our Great God and Your glorious Son, Jesus Christ with all our hearts and soul and mind and strength ... and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

Finally, we pray that Thou wouldst ennoble these, our elected officials, to stand sentinel on the wall of this Republic, protecting us from those who would see this cherished nation defiled and seek only to exploit the largess ... traitors within our midst ... they who would remove the sacred landmarks of upholding; Thy word as Truth, Thy Son as God, and Thy mercy as our only hope.

Holy Writ hath declared in 2 Corinthians 3:17 ‘Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.’ Father, we desire liberty, and peace and righteousness ... but how can we have liberty with out Jesus Christ? How can we have peace without the Prince of Peace? How can we have righteousness without acknowledgement and repentance of sin before Thee? Oh, may the Bible ever be a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path! Oh, grant us a revival, dear Lord ... may we return to sentiments of our ‘National Hymn’. May they become our crowning benediction:

‘O Lord, our God, arise. Scatter our enemies and make them fall. Confound their politics. Frustrate their knavish tricks. On Thee our hopes we fix, Great God our King!’

We thank Thee for this day which Thou hast ordained for Thy praise and glory. Purify our hearts and minds that we may join the eternal purpose of Your worship today. We pray for a Pure Michigan ... only as Thou art Pure. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory forever and ever, Amen.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Lilly to the Chair.

Rep. Rabhi moved that Reps. Garrett and Whitsett be excused temporarily from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Anthony, Sowerby, Love, Sabo, Koleszar, Stone, Jones, Bolden, Garza, Kennedy and Lasinski offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 180.

A resolution to urge Congress to enact legislation to classify domestic terrorism as a federal crime to provide the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Department of Homeland Security with more tools to combat these types of crimes.

Whereas, According to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), domestic terrorism is a persistent threat perpetrated by individuals or groups advocating extremist ideologies of political, religious, social, racial, or environmental nature. The FBI has 850 open domestic terrorism investigations involving anti-government, anti-authority, or racially motivated violent extremism. These open cases and recent events in El Paso, Texas and Dayton, Ohio demonstrate the need for such legislation; and

Whereas, Federal law provides serious penalties for those convicted of acts of international terrorism. Additionally, individuals with plans to back an international terrorism group can be charged with providing criminal support under federal law; and

Whereas, Federal law defines domestic terrorism as “activities that involve acts dangerous to human life that are a violation of the criminal laws of the United States...” and among other things, are “intended to intimidate or coerce a civilian population...”. However, there is no federal law prohibiting acts of domestic terrorism nor are there penalties associated with these acts. There is no federal charge for people providing material support to domestic terror organizations. Americans charged with stockpiling weapons and plotting mass attacks often face lesser firearms offenses; and

Whereas, Law enforcement has additional tools under terrorism charges to widen the scope of investigations, potentially implicating additional suspects and providing greater penalties for those who perform such atrocities. Enacting a federal domestic terrorism law will funnel additional resources to the FBI allowing it to gather data and track situations involving domestic extremism; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge Congress to enact legislation to classify domestic terrorism as a federal crime to provide the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Department of Homeland Security with more tools to combat these types of crimes; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Military, Veterans and Homeland Security.

Reps. Garrett, Brixie, Hood, Kennedy, Chirkun, Stone, Rabhi, Lasinski, Sowerby, Liberati, Cherry, Haadsma, Ellison, Garza, Tyrone Carter, Bolden, Hoadley, Sabo, Pohutsky, Robinson, Pagan, Manoogian, Kuppa, Brenda Carter, Hertel, Gay-Dagnogo, Cynthia Johnson, Hope, Wittenberg, Shannon, Clemente, Love and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 181.

A resolution to urge the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to address the current shortage of critical, lifesaving drugs.

Whereas, Drug shortages have a devastating impact on patient care and public health by limiting access to vital drugs and increasing health care costs; and

Whereas, U.S. healthcare providers experienced 186 new drug shortages in 2018, a 27 percent increase from 2017, and the highest number of shortages in the previous five years. In the first half of 2019 alone, there were 282 drugs in active shortage in the United States; and

Whereas, Shortages in medicines have plagued the United States for many years. These include intravenous immunoglobulin (IVIG), a drug used to treat immune disorders; intravenous sodium bicarbonate, an inexpensive drug often used in critical care; the EpiPen injection for allergic reactions, and other important drugs; and

Whereas, A survey conducted by the Institute for Safe Medication Practices showed that most healthcare providers feel patient lives are often endangered because they cannot administer needed drugs or provide proper treatment due to drug shortages, forcing them to ration and conserve drugs and prioritize which patients receive available drugs first; and

Whereas, Drug shortages have led to adverse patient events including mortality, treatment changes, inferior treatment, and medication errors, which occur because the right drug is not available or because of dosing errors in the preparation or administration of alternative medications; and

Whereas, Drug shortages increase patient out-of-pocket expenses, and cost hospitals and health facilities at least $359 million per year in labor costs alone as they employ mitigation strategies; and

Whereas, Efforts by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to prevent and mitigate drug shortages have been insufficient. Despite the enactment of federal legislation in 2012 expanding the FDA’s regulatory authority to address drug shortages, new and active shortages have reached their highest levels in almost five years; and

Whereas, It is crucial that the FDA expand its efforts to solve this public health crisis by working proactively with manufacturers and other stakeholders to prevent and mitigate drug shortages; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to address the current shortage of critical, lifesaving drugs; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Commissioner of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Reps. Hoadley, Brixie, Hood, Kennedy, Chirkun, Stone, Rabhi, Sowerby, Liberati, Cherry, Ellison, Haadsma, Garza, Garrett, Tyrone Carter, Bolden, Sabo, Pohutsky, Robinson, Pagan, Manoogian, Kuppa, Brenda Carter, Hertel, Gay-Dagnogo, Cynthia Johnson, Hope, Wittenberg, Shannon, Clemente, Love and Lasinski offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 182.

A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to enact legislation allowing Medicare to negotiate prescription drug prices.

Whereas, Many Michigan residents and people across the United States struggle to afford the high cost of prescription drugs. Older adults are particularly affected by this issue, with nearly 9 out of 10 adults over the age of 65 taking at least one prescription drug and more than half taking four or more prescription drugs. Approximately 76 percent of older adults think prescription drug costs are unreasonable; and

Whereas, Federal laws currently prohibit the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services from interfering in negotiations between drug manufacturers and pharmacies and prescription drug plan sponsors under Medicare, the federal health insurance program for older Americans. Federal law also prohibits the Secretary from requiring a formula or price structure for prescription drugs reimbursed under Medicare Part D. Under the existing structure, private health insurers negotiate pricing directly with drug companies; and

Whereas, According to recent polls, 80 percent of the public demonstrate strong, bipartisan support for allowing the federal government to negotiate lower prescription drug prices for Medicare beneficiaries; and

Whereas, To address high prescription drug prices, the U.S. Congress is considering various proposals to allow the federal government to negotiate Medicare prescription drug prices; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to enact legislation allowing Medicare to negotiate prescription drug prices; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Reps. Brixie, Bolden, Clemente, Garza, Green, Hertel, Kennedy, Lasinski, Leutheuser, Liberati, Love, Pagan, Sabo, Sowerby, Stone, Warren, Wittenberg and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 183.

A resolution to declare October 15, 2019, as Pregnancy Loss Awareness Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, According to the Mayo Clinic, about 10 to 20 percent of known pregnancies end in miscarriage; and
Whereas, The National Center for Health Statistics estimates there are more than 1 million fetal losses per year in the United States. The vast majority of these losses occur before 20 weeks of gestation; and

Whereas, According to the Center for Disease Control and Prevention, stillbirth affects about 1 percent of all pregnancies in the United States and there were approximately 24,000 stillbirths reported in 2018; and

Whereas, The availability of information and support is of the utmost importance to the women and families who experience miscarriage or other types of pregnancy loss to better help them cope; and

Whereas, A public that is informed and educated about miscarriage or pregnancy loss can better learn how to respond with compassion to affected families. Professionals who come in contact with families who have suffered miscarriage or pregnancy loss, such as physicians, clergy, emergency medical technicians, funeral directors, police officers, public health nurses, educators and employers, can better serve families if they have better knowledge of miscarriage or pregnancy loss; and

Whereas, Pregnancy Loss Awareness Day was created to recognize the grief of the families, to remember all of the pregnancies lost, and to increase awareness about pregnancy loss. This day will help to heal and comfort the families in a time of pain and heartache, give the families hope for the future, and help women and families understand and process their experience; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare October 15, 2019, as Pregnancy Loss Awareness Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize the grief of the families who have experienced miscarriage or pregnancy loss and wish to help heal and comfort these families in a time of pain and heartache, to give the families hope for the future, and to assist women and families across the state in understanding their experience.
