Pastor Jason Jackson, Pastor of Brookside Missionary Baptist Church in Shelby Township, offered the following invocation:

“O gracious Father and God of our Nation, as the triune Godhead, You alone are God. You created everything, and by Your providence we stand here today.

We thank You we can pray to You as an official part of our governmental process. Let this be a great proof that a separation of church and state does not mean separation of God from government. As George Washington said, we cannot rightly govern without God and the Bible.

So Lord we pray to You, the God of the Bible.

We pray that You will lead and guide the members of this house. Like all powers that be, they are ordained by Your greater power. Keep them in remembrance that they are set under Your authority and that as Your servants they have the duty to seek biblical answers to the issues facing Michigan today. Let them not do what is right in their own eyes, but only what they are certain is right in Yours.

Lord, Deliver us from those who would oppose Your will, and turn even them to follow it.

Forgive us for where we have sinned.

But Lord, Holdback that forgiveness except we repent.

Thank you for the many ways You have blessed Michigan, greatest of which was providing the way of salvation. Your Word tells us that ‘The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.’

So above all our other requests today, we plead that if any of these Representatives are still lost in their sin they will receive Christ’s sacrifice as the total payment for their sin debt and that they will trust in Christ as their Lord and God who has risen from the dead and lives that they may have eternal life also.

Father, You alone have the power to answer this prayer.

This is Your State.

And so we yield this floor to You. Please come and govern us.

We pray all of this in the name above all names; the precious name of Jesus, Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Rabhi moved that Rep. Pagan be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Cole moved that Rep. Inman be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Lilly to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Garrett, Byrd, Yancey, Gay-Dagnogo, Cynthia Johnson, Wittenberg, Cambensy, Kuppa, Hope, Lasinski, Ellison, Stone, Haadsma, Brixie, Love and Sowerby offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 204.
A resolution to urge the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to add bottled water to the list of WIC-eligible foods.
Whereas, The federal Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) provides supplemental foods and nutrition education for low-income women who are pregnant or post-partum, infants, and children up to age five who are at nutritional risk; and

Whereas, Access to safe drinking water remains a concern for many communities across Michigan and the entire United States. Lead from aging water infrastructure and per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS) from firefighting and manufacturing are only a few of the many contaminants of concern that can be found in drinking water; and

Whereas, The WIC population is particularly vulnerable to the negative impacts of contaminated water. During pregnancy and early childhood, even low levels of exposure to drinking water contaminants, such as lead, can have long-term impacts on brain development; and

Whereas, Federal law establishes the minimum requirements that states must follow to develop WIC food packages, but bottled water may not currently be purchased with WIC benefits. Allowing the purchase of bottled water with WIC benefits would ensure a clean, healthy source of water for WIC participants; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Congress of the United States to enact legislation to add bottled water to the list of WIC-eligible foods; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Families, Children, and Seniors.
