Rabbi Marla Hornsten, Rabbi of Temple Israel in West Bloomfield, offered the following invocation:

“Elohainu v’elohai avotainu v’imotaninu,

Our God and God of our fathers and our mothers, as You blessed our ancestors in ancient days, we ask Your blessing upon us as well.

Particularly today, we ask for blessing upon the House of Representatives here in the great state of Michigan, as they gather in session.

As well we know, these are challenging times in which we live.

We are too often separated by our differences, rather than our similarities.

But it is in our similarities where our strengths lie: our common bonds of family, love and patriotism—

Our wish to hand our children a better world.

You, our leaders, can best impact that future by discourse and actions here that are founded on tolerance, understanding, wisdom and kindness.

The Talmud, the ancient Jewish text of commentary on religious law, actually teaches that ‘the highest form of wisdom is kindness.’

As a rabbi, I do not profess to know the world of creating legislation; but I do know that your responsibility is great, and that how you treat each other in this House is vital to your ability to help the good people of our great state.

And so, I implore you to always take the high road of kindness and compassion.

One of our ancient rabbis, Rabbi Shimon is quoted in the Pirke Avot, ethics of our ancestors saying: Al shelosha de’varim ha olam omed: The world stands on three things: On law, on truth and on peace.

Certainly, that is the case today as well and the goals of this esteemed body:

To create law that is fair and supportive of all Michiganders

To pursue truth as our guiding principle in the work that we do

And to be sources of peace in a state and a country that cherishes peace.

God, we seek Your guidance today and every day, as we work to achieve these goals. Grant us pure hearts and pure souls as together we strive, to create a pure Michigan.

Amen.”

Rep. Garrett moved that Reps. Elder and Pagan be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Cole moved that Reps. Alexander and VanSingel be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Eisen, O’Malley, Markkanen, Lightner, Mueller, Allor, Bellino, Green, Steven Johnson, Berman, Maddock, Paquette, Wakeman, Frederick, Lower, Alexander, Wozniak, LaFave, Afendoulis, Hornberger, Hoitenga, Meerman and Filler offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 227.

A resolution to reaffirm the right of Michigan residents to keep and bear arms under the Constitution of the State of Michigan of 1963 and the Constitution of the United States.

Whereas, Article I, Section 6 of the Constitution of the State of Michigan of 1963 clearly affirms a right to keep and bear arms. This provision prescribes that the primary purpose of the right to keep and bear arms is not related solely to hunting, but undoubtedly allows Michigan citizens to be able to protect their selves and families from the private lawlessness of other persons or potential tyranny of governments; and

Whereas, The Second Amendment to the Constitution of the United States clearly states that “the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed.”; and

Whereas, The Michigan Legislature will not pass laws that would infringe upon the ability of Michigan residents to own and keep firearms. The Michigan Legislature will ensure that legislation in violation of our constitutional right to bear arms will not be imposed upon the citizens of Michigan by either the federal government or itself and would view such infringements as violations of both the Second Amendment and the Constitution of the State of Michigan of 1963; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we reaffirm the right of Michigan residents to keep and bear arms under the Constitution of the State of Michigan of 1963 and the Constitution of the United States. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.
