Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Cole moved that the following remarks be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Hornberger to the Chair.

Rep. Chirkun:

"Thank you Mr. Speaker.

The first rule of speech-making is Do Not Use Names. Well, I am going to be breaking that rule very often. First, let me start OUT WITH THANKING SOME OF MY SEAT MATES FOR MAKING THE PAST 6 YEARS, one of the greatest experiences of my life. Each and every day I am truly amazed at all the hard work that each one of you did on behalf of your constituents. It was something to marvel at.

I would also like to thank the voters of the 22nd District, Roseville and Warren, for giving me an opportunity to serve you for the past six years.

I could not imagine I would actually be here. It surely didn't hit me when the election results came back in November 2014. It hit me on when I first got to the Capitol and sat in my office for the first time, realizing the massive responsibilities that laid on my shoulders. I had some big shoes to fill, taking over from my predecessor, Harold Haugh, in representing the 22nd House District.

I didn't know what to expect up here in the Capitol. I came from being the Mayor of the sixth largest city in Macomb County but I never realized until I got up here that my district was even bigger than some entire out of state counties in Michigan.

I knew I was a big fish in a little pond in Roseville, but when I got here, I was just another fish in a way bigger pond called the State Capitol. So being the True Detective that I am, I just observed for the first 6 months before I started moving outside my lane. I like to think I did some good things up here and made some life-long friendships along the way.

To my past seatmates, thank you for the memories we had. During my first session, I sat next to Robert Wittenberg and Frankie 'the Animal' Liberati. Frank had the dubious distinction of being the first person I met at on one of orientation meetings. As much as I wanted to do over the past six years, I never made it to the deli. But now in January, I will have plenty of time. I am looking forward to some of those want world famous cookies and pizza but I want the family and friends discount unlike term limited former state representative from Westland whom he charged full price.

During my second session, I sat with Ms. Harvey Santana and Representative Rosemary Robinson. I fondly remember Rosemary Robinson. I have known Rosemary since 1976 when she was a Wayne County Commissioner and I was a snot nose rookie in the Wayne County Sheriff's Department. We had some epic debates over the years at the county level and even on the chamber. But with Rosemary, you always knew she was sticking to her convictions.

Sylvia was very nice, calm and collected and not nearly as outspoken as her husband, who was the chair and only member of the Harvey Santana Caucus during my first term. Now Chairman Harvey Santana is at the Wayne County Sheriff's Department. The world has gone full circle, I hope he now understands where I was coming from on some of the criminal justice stuff.

My third term, I got to sit next to John Cherry Jr. I knew his father so I tried to take care of him. Before COVID-19 took away what was supposed to be a glorious last year of my final term, I got to know John and will forever be appreciative of his attempts to help me navigate the House session page during a crucial vote.

Santa delivered me some great committee assignments. They say committees are where most of the work done and I know this first hand. My first term, I served on Reg Reform with Chairman Franz and Minority Vice Chair Scott Dianda. I also served on Comm and Tech with Brad Jacobsen, and on Financial Liabilities with Pat Sommerville.

During my second term, I was thrown right into the fire being the minority vice chair of Transportation with Chairman Cole. It was there I learned firsthand the difficulty in finding a political viable way to fix the roads. Oversight was interesting, where I served with Chairman Joe Graves and Minority Vice Chair Kevin Hertel as we tackled the UIA Fraud Fiasco. Reg Reform was always interesting with Chairman Iden Minority Vice Chair Jeremy Moss. There I learned how to drink (Jamieson and orange juice) with Hugh and Kathy Crawford.

In this job, you get to meet all sorts of people from all walks of life and differing perspectives. Thank you to Scott Dianda and Sara Cambensy for showing me how cool the Yooper landscape is truly God's County and your hospitality to us trolls when we visited. I will never be the same after going to the dog sled races in Calumet and Marquette. And karaokeing at Flanagan's Bar. I definitely did lose years off my life. As they say, the Lake of Superior never gives up her dead.

To Sergeant Dickson and the Red Coats: no, that's not a singing group from Motown Records. Your dedication, professionalism and friendship is something truly to be proud of. I can tell you that you and your team are very much appreciated by everybody in this chamber and I thank you protecting our SIX.

Frank Liberati and I had quite the experience serving on the committee to investigate the actions of two former state representatives whose love debacle fiasco brought great shame to this body. Once again Sgt Dickson and team did a heck of a job. Thank you for what you do from all of us, protecting our six.

I would be remiss not to thank several other individuals who I have served with for the past six years.

To Leader Tim Greimel: Tim you have been a great leader under the most adverse of circumstances. Thank you for your wisdom and friendship.

To Speaker Chatfield : Your leadership and the pure class you bring into this chamber every day is something I admire. Speaker Cotter, I am still waiting but not holding my breath for that reimbursement for the Mackinac Public Policy Conference when you cancelled the House's Participation in my second term.

To Floor Leader Rutledge: David, I thank you for your dedication to this state and county and the love of the veterans of this county.

To the first Majority Floor Leader I served with, Aric Nesbitt, whom I always respectfully called 'Auric Goldfinger'. One thing I can say about the good Senator is that when he gives you his word, there is no messing around or waffling. He's a credit to his side.

To our Macomb delegation: Most of us knew each other before we even arrived in Lansing. My advice: stay together whenever possible. We put Macomb back on the state map. I love it when I hear our other colleagues say 'those damn Macomb reps did it again'. Thanks to all of you. And to Derek Miller, I always did my best to listen to what your father, the legend Art Miller told me, 'take care of my boy' I will never forget the after-session hours with the Dagwood caucus. If I never see another fried pickle again, I'll be happy. Terry Sabo, Frank Liberati, Sara Cambensy, Pat Green, Scott Dianda, Sam Singh, Kevin Hertel, Nate Shannon, Zvonko, Will Synder, Curtis Audette, Kevin Coleman, Tyrone Carter, Alex Garza, and Joe Tate thanks for the strategy sessions and memories.

I would also like to take the time out to honor the memories of our gone but never forgotten colleagues: Pete Pettalia, John Kivela, Issac Robinson and Julie Plawecki. May you rest in power. Before we became reps, I knew Julie's husband and the family for years. Julie Plawecki was truly one of the most caring people I have ever met. I also got to work with her upstanding daughters during my time here.

Thank you Fred Durhal, Bob Kosowski, Scott Dianda, Paul Clemente, Sarah Roberts, Andrea LaFontaine, Ken Goike, Tony Forlini, Winnie Brinks, Gretchen Driskell, Pam Hornberger, Diana Farrington for your friendship. And thank you to Pete Lucido. Good Luck in your new endeavor

I would also like to thank my Purple Housemate, Patrick Green for the great times and memories.

Additionally, I am always grateful for the many conversations I had with Marilyn Lane (and I do mean many) at the Radisson and also who I got to spend quality time with. Thank you for your mentorship in my first term.

To the House Dem policy staff over the last six years, you were great. I didn't always agree with you but always respected your opinion and insight. My first term, I relied heavily on Lansing's Angels: Emily, Rosie, Caty, Hillary. Later on, Danny, Ashley, Mitch, Peter, Coffiann, Patti, Nathan, and Kris Young. If I missed anyone, I am sorry. I would also like to thank my writers, Drew and Susan, and my graphics people, Liz Krantz and Bobby.

I would also like to thank Joelle Demand. I call her the Queen of the Floor and she always treated me great over the past six years.

To my staff: Zvonko Blazeveski, Ryan Earl and my new addition, Matt Lantzy, I can't thank you enough for our time together. You are the best and I wish you only the best in the future. You were always my trusted advisors and always seemed to calm me down before I got too upset. To Zvonko, you definitely did your best to live up to your nickname, Loki, the prince of mischief. To Ryan Earl, thank you for keeping me organized and focused on the task at hand. To Matt, thank you for being a friend and continue to aim high. The future State Representative for the 22nd District is going to be in very capable hands.

To the lobby core: All of your institutional knowledge has always been considered a valued asset by me. To all those I have interacted with over the six years and have guided me thank you for all your help. To all those who I did not interact with, or they ignored for me for the past six years, I still won't switch parties.

Someone asked me not too long ago if I would I do something different in life other than being an elected official. The thing is, looking back over the years, I realized that I have been a public servant for the majority of my time on God's Green Earth going back to when I was 18 and served in the United States Air Force for six years, at the Wayne County Sheriff's Department for 29, and as Councilman, Mayor Pro Tem and Mayor for 19 years and as State Representative for 6 years. And I got a chance to try to make positive change and stand up for what I believe in. Stand up for what I believe was best for my constituents as their representative. Looking back, I wouldn't change a thing. I also got to meet wonderful people that I never would have ever met otherwise. It was never a dull moment to be sure.

I now move on to a new phase of my life and a different career path. To all of you Democrats and Republicans (110) in this chamber-you are good people first and elected officials second. Good people do good things. Try to work with each other and try to do what is right for the people of the wonderful state of Michigan.

I thank every one of you from the bottom of my heart for this awesome life experience of meeting, interacting and working together with you on different projects and laws, and getting to know you and knowing some of your families. It was a rewarding experience. As I depart, I will leave you the words of my former Purple House mate, Patrick Green. 'If you don't like the apple, turn it around.'

Thank you and God bless the State of Michigan and God bless America."

Rep. Garrett:

“Thank You Madam Speaker

Well, saying farewell is never easy, especially when you truly love what you do. It has brought me great joy partnering with my fellow colleagues in creating policies that are for the betterment of not only the amazing folks that I represented in House District 7, but ALL of the great people of the Great State of Michigan.

However, the most gratifying aspect of the last 6 years of service was resolving the everyday issues of the people. My office received countless calls from citizens dealing with DHHS, unemployment and various other daily living concerns. These calls grew exponentially and were a true thorn in the flesh with the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. No matter the size of the issue, I took pride in handling the challenges head on because I remember what it was like to be on the other end of those calls with pressing needs, hoping to find relief. I pray that our State agencies will continue to resolve these issues for our people who absolutely count on us for guidance and leadership during times of adversity.

It is always an honor to have a seat at the table and advocate especially for those that are not able to champion issues for themselves. I would not have been allotted this opportunity if it were not for the hard work of my family and closest friends. Therefore, I must first start by thanking my family for all of their support. My aunt, Judge Ruth Garrett, who always actively listens to me rant and then gently offers valuable wisdom to assist me with many pressing issues. She is my backbone and I thank you Auntie. Also, I thank my cousins Cathy, Albert, Kelly, Austin and Kristina who also carry the family legacy of service to the people. To my favorite my cousin Sue, Thank you. Most importantly, I thank my Husband Anthony who is very excited about having me a little bit closer and having a little bit more of my time. Somebody save me I do not want any more children, lol. I thank you more than anything for always stepping up to the plate and doing last minute lunches for the community events.

Moreover, the job I have always cherished and been most appreciative of is the duty of motherhood. To my 3 children, from oldest to youngest, Future, Chosen, and Majesty and our newest addition my 3 week old granddaughter Legacy, I love you all but I'm truly not looking forward to being at the house all day cleaning up every 5 min and picking up toys. Somebody please help me, lol Again, it is always an honor to be mom and wife but with COVID a breather is necessary for us moms. On a serious note, family thanks for supporting me during the last six years in my current role. I know that it has been a task but we always triumph as a family, I Love you all.

To my friends from my childhood who have supported me on this journey, in particular Myles W. Miller. I want to thank you for standing tall and taking on the challenge to travel this journey with me. You made sure that not only was I taken care of but the constituents of House District 7, Thank you.

One thing that I love most is I have developed longstanding relationships with a couple of people: Honorable Harvey Santana who is a straightforward, fair guy with a great sense of humor. I Truly thank you for our friendship.

To Brian Banks who showed me how to triumph regardless of people's opinions and how to navigate through the many traps they might strategize against you.

To Sherry Gay-Dagnogo, Thank you for being an education warrior. I value your sisterhood.

To Tenisha Yancy, my legislative best friend and my sister. I am so glad that we met. You are the sister that I've never had. I love you and I look forward to continuing our life long journey traveling the world and eating Gordon Ramsey steaks in Las Vegas, so get ready!

To Stephanie Chang my former seat mate boy do I miss talking mother hood with you and discussing environmental issues.

To Leslie Love thanks for challenging me to think outside the box in my approach to legislation and in this political arena. I appreciate you.

To John Hoadley one of the best bakers outside of my mother in law.

To my buddy Wendall Byrd. I will always remember our talks and the wisdom that you shared with me to help my community groups. I am truly convinced that you were born to be a comedian you missed your calling, but you never fail to make me laugh. You will always be my buddy.

To memory of Isaac Robinson, who I will always miss dearly. He always encouraged me that 'you have no time to rest.' He then began to include me in on every press release he created. You can always tell the reps with no children or spouses They get around town, lol

To Frank Liberati and his son. Thank you for coming to my very first meet and greet. His son surely did have a grand time and boy did he cut a rug.

To Former Speaker Tom Leonard. Thank you for being so concerned about me during the birth of my baby and continuing to check in on me. Even after your term ended, you still made it a priority to follow up. I will forever be appreciative to you and the many members of your caucus that sowed a tremendous amount of love during the most difficult and uncertain time of my life. Although I am lifetime Democrat, you taught me that the human touch doesn't know party lines.

To my former staffers, Kevin Harris, Leyland Lindie, Chelsea Townes, Mya Jones and countless interns, thank you for your service to the people of House District 7 and know that I will always appreciate your efforts.

Thanks to my current staffers, Gabrielle Dingell and Robert Davis. Gabrielle, thank you for all that you do and have done to make sure we are on track with constituents concerns and complaints. Robert, I thank you but I am so glad I don't have to defend the many law suits you file anymore, lol. Nevertheless, I will miss our bumping heads and many debates. More than anything, you are truly a gem to have around.

To my fellow colleagues of the MLBC and the Detroit Caucus, former Rep Sheldon Neeley thank you for your comradery.

To Tyrone Sanders and Ken Cole, thank you for your wealth of political knowledge and your friendships.

Former Democratic Leader Tim Greimel who showed up to every function I don't know how you did it but Thanks.

To Yousef Rabhi, thank you for always providing solid leadership. To Joelle Demand, thank you for always being dependable.

To Mike Aaron, Rory Gamble, Lisa Canada Thank you for your partnerships and support.

Molina, Pace (Laurie) and Danny Craig with AARP my seniors are grateful for your participation and resources you have provided to them throughout my tenure The collaborative effort was like none other.

David Katz DMC thank you for assisting me with Patient dilemmas.

To Ms. Little from Theresa Maxis Senior coordinator, thank you for assuring cleanliness and safety for my seniors and creating an abundance of activities that they enjoyed. The seniors really are blessed to have you.

To Ronnie Peterson, thank you for the many insightful conversations.

To Coffiann Hawthorne, you are just a wealth of institutional knowledge I appreciate you.

To Tracy Winston, I appreciate you as well. These are policy advisors when I asked them a question, they had an answer. Committees became a breeze with these two dynamite women.

To Dan Feinberg, thank you for helping me with all things involving Education and Financial Services.

Mayor Hubert Yopp, Alexis Ramsey, and Miriam Kramer thanks for your Leadership and activism in Highland Park.

Brother Fuqua Bey I commend you for feeding the 1000's of people weekly. You are definitely the thread that hold many communities together. Keep doing the work of God.

To my Detroit cohort Councilman Roy McCalister, Jr. Thank you for being a friend and a brother and taking every call to resolve issues. You are a kind hearted person remain true to the people you serve.

I could not have made it this far without prayers and spiritual guidance. A special thanks to my clergy partners Rev. Robert Smith, Bishop Antonio Smiley, Bishop Eric Lloyd, Bishop Clarence and First Lady Joyce Haddon, Bishop Wayne T. Jackson, Prophet Fred Brame, and Mother Lyte. Thanks for all the prayers and support.

Last but not least, I have to thank the amazing people for House District 7 for entrusting me to represent them for three terms in the Michigan House of Representatives. The voice of Detroiters and Highland Parkers was allowed to resonate loud in these chambers when you sent me here on your behalf. Therefore, because of you, I am proud of our fight for Education Reform, Auto No-Fault Reform, Healthcare, elderly issues, water and environmental equality and bringing some resolve to the opioid crisis to save our youth. Some of the most fulfilling aspects of our time together were:

- Feeding my community
- Retaining appropriation dollars for special projects that beautified my neighborhood
- Raising funds for London who was shot in the head at a local gas station. I had the opportunity to meet London's father unfortunately he passed two days ago. My condolences to the family. London is now part of my family.
- Raising funds for six year old Nyla Law's burial and her aunt Liz who was hit by drunk driver. Thank you Representative Karen Whitsett for giving of yourself and having a compassionate heart to assist this family during their time of bereavement.
- Partnering with PACE, AARP, Grind Time Gym to provide multiple workouts and resources for our seniors throughout the district.
- Partnering with the Epilepsy foundation to create legislation that will enhance the lives of our children regardless of the environment in which they are in.
- Creating coffee by conference in my first term for constituents that had so many issues of why they could not make it to coffee hour or wanted to travel but still desired to be updated from afar.

Taking children to University of Michigan and Michigan State University on multiple occasions to explore career fields out of the norm that they may be interested in boy to see the smiles on their faces, Priceless!

- Multiple scholarships we have given away within the district
- And creating the Executive Women business group which provide resources and assistance for entrepreneurs were the most fulfilling moments.

In my final desires, I am adamant about advancing legislation that will prohibit animals from riding on the laps of those that are operating a vehicle which creates distracted driving and passing my Epilepsy Bill out of both chambers. I am confident that the members of the 101th Legislature will be able to provide true auto no-fault insurance that will provide true rate relief and even more.

In closing, Psalm 133:1 tells us, ‘Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!’ A House divided can never stand up to live up to its potential. When this body operates as one, in unity, there’s nothing that it can’t accomplish for the good of the great people of the Great State of Michigan. I am LaTanya Garrett and I thank you all for your time! Tuebor!”

“An act relating to the economic development of this state; to create the Michigan strategic fund and to prescribe its powers and duties; to transfer and provide for the acquisition and succession to the rights, properties, obligations, and duties of the job development authority and the Michigan economic development authority to the Michigan strategic fund; to provide for the expenditure of proceeds in certain funds to which the Michigan strategic fund succeeds in ownership; to provide for the issuance of, and terms and conditions for, certain notes and bonds of the Michigan strategic fund; to create certain boards and funds; to create certain permanent funds; to exempt the property, income, and operation of the fund and its bonds and notes, and the interest thereon, from certain taxes; to provide for the creation of certain centers within and for the purposes of the Michigan strategic fund; to provide for the creation and funding of certain accounts for certain purposes; to impose certain powers and duties upon certain officials, departments, and authorities of this state; to make certain loans, grants, and investments; to provide penalties; to make an appropriation; and to repeal acts and parts of acts.”

The House agreed to the full title.
Rep. Cole moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Albert, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I fully support funding the Flint Water Settlement. However, it is unwise to fund this settlement with $600,000,000 of debt because it will have a long-term negative budgetary impact. Additionally, children that were not even born when the Flint Water Crisis occurred will be on the hook to make these payments in the years to come. I would be fully supportive of using funding sources that are currently available to the legislature.”

Comments and Recommendations

Rep. Love:

“Distinguished members, I’d like to share with you what it’s meant to me to serve in this magical manic production called the ‘Michigan House of Representatives: The Legislature.’ So, in the words of Hova/Jay Z/Shawn Carter/Beyoncé’s husband, ‘Allow me to reintroduce myself.’

My name is Leslie Love. I am the daughter of Norman and Frances Gladden and child of God. The youngest of 4 siblings Norman Jr., Marcia and Bethany. I am the aunt of 8 nephews Jerome, James, Brian, Jeron, Brandon, Matthew, Norman, and Gab and 4 nieces Cassandra, Alicia, Brittany and Elizabeth. I am the grand aunt of 9. The godmother of Amaya and Justin. The mother of two beautiful boys Chaco Obama Love and Robusto Bararko Love, my beloved dogs.

And I am a black woman, born and raised in Detroit. Graduated Burns Elementary, Cadillac Middle and C-O-O-L-E-Y Cooley High. I went on to graduate with honors from Wayne State University, Marygrove College and Siena Heights University.

I am that little black girl who attended the historic Second Baptist Church nursery school (in downtown Detroit) while my mom worked down the street at Blue Cross and Blue Shield and my father, a veteran, worked as a heavy machine operator for the City of Romulus Water Department I’m that girl they teased and called ‘chicken legs’ that grew up on Coyle, played video games at the arcade on Grand River, bought records and Michael Jackson posters from Wonderlove Music, raced go-carts made from old milk crates and found wood. That girl who was too afraid to get in the swim-mobile but climbed trees and jumped off garage roofs onto a discarded mattress or a pile of leaves. I’m the high school girl that made her own Gucci gym shoes from plain white leather sneakers purchased at S.S. Kresge’s on Greenfield. Three days later, when the kids at school noticed my fake Gucci in the cafeteria, they laughed so loud and teased me horribly. I wore them for another week to prove a point: I-AM-A-GENIUS! A pioneer ahead of my time! I saved $125 of my allowance. Today, knockoffs are normal. What I instinctively knew, was no one was going to shame me for my creativity, my independence, and what I thought philosophically made better sense. I guess I knew from a very early age that my existence; my individuality; my beliefs and my feelings do not require nor request your approval or permission. Because in the words of House Music, ‘God made me Phunky!’ like that.

I am that young lady who was the President of the black student union at college-Siena Heights African American Knowledge Association (S.H.A.A.K.A.). I’d successfully lead a protest sit-in demanding the college diversify its faculty and staff. Three African American women were hired as a result. I’m the young lady who wrote and produced her own plays when I learned my college did not believe in non-traditional casting. Siena Heights College in Adrian, MI was challenging on many levels. Yet, it was a transformational experience that enriched me and casted me, in what I see now, as a very self-aware, self-determined, compassionate, wise and worldly woman who strives to be COMPETENT, PURPOSEFUL and ETHICAL and to respect the dignity of all. To my Adrian Dominican Sisters, Idali Feliciano, Doug Miller, the faculty and staff, and housekeeping crew at Siena—THANK YOU for an outstanding liberal arts education. And to my colleagues and students and The Sisters, Immaculate Heart of Mary at Marygrove College—especially Dr. Glenda Price, Rose DeSloover and Vince Abatamarco—THANK YOU. Before coming to the legislature, I had 13 amazing years at Marygrove College as staff and adjunct faculty.

I am also the woman who packed my Ford Probe and drove out to California with my best friend Raquel seeking to become a movie star only to return home after 3 years with a few Hollywood credits, a love of standup comedy, and lots of stories. And like Dorothy in The Wiz, when I came home my heart’s desires came to pass.

I toured internationally doing stand-up comedy, toured with Cedric the Entertainer and appeared on BET’s ComicView (thank you Big Daddy Fitz for telling me to get a passport because you believed I’d go places in my comedy career and, surprisingly, I did!). I performed in and wrote plays, was casted in numerous industrials, voice overs and a few commercials. And in June 2014, the year I ran and won this seat, I was casted as the Mayor of Metropolis in the Batman v. Superman: Dawn of Justice movie. I thought I’d made it! I had my own honey wagon. I had my own chair under the tent with Director Zack Snyder; my own personal handlers that fussed over my hair and makeup and put slippers on my feet when I came off set. I ate with the stars like Laurence Fishburne, Amy Adams, Gal Gadot, and Henry Cavill. Honey, I’d made it! Then the movie came out. And in a packed AMC theatre with all my friends and family, we watched the movie to the end only to learn my big part was cut out. My part was cut out, but there was Senator Randy Richardville, Jim Kirsch, and U.S. Senator Debbie Stabenow! The credits read: Debbie Stabenow Governor of Metropolis. Apparently, Metropolis is a district/state like Washington D.C. Who knew? Anyway, I thought my scenes were much more important, after all I gave a rousing mayoral speech and unveiled the statue of Superman after rebuilding Metropolis from complete destruction. Oh well. It wouldn’t be the first time I’d get undercut.

After that experience, I knew the real actors must be in Lansing and Washington D.C.! So, even though my part was cut out the movie, winning my election that year meant I would be on an even larger stage; with even bigger divas... and bad actors. Only this time, my part would not be cut and I’d play a major role in sponsoring, co-sponsoring or negotiating landmark legislation including the reconstruction of DPSCD, auto insurance reform, juvenile justice reform, election reform and COVID-19 preparedness in nursing homes.

Since I was a child, I’ve dreamt of becoming a movie star, but I guess God saw fit to use my talents to be one of 148 stars in one of the biggest productions of my life—the Michigan legislature. And I am so fortunate to have worked with this wonky, oftentimes infuriating and occasionally delightful cast of characters that have performed in this chamber. Still today, when I walk up Michigan Ave and see our beautiful capitol, I feel like Dorothy going to see the Wizard. I am still in awe of its majesty. When I walk the halls, sit in the Appropriations Room, eat in the Speaker’s Library, or press the button at my desk I pinch myself because this black girl from Coyle Street in Detroit, with a heart as big as her head, gets to work here. I feel so blessed and privileged for this experience.

As a black woman in this world; occupying this space. It matters that little black and brown girls see women like me and Padma Kuppa in this space. It matters that our voices are heard in these hallowed halls, and our legislation gets passed. Whether it’s the Crown bill by Rep. Anthony or Rep. Brenda Carter’s maternal mortality legislation, it’s time for the issues affecting black and brown women and our communities to take center stage. From housing to health disparities, and from respect in the workplace to water security, including and incorporating us in the process and decision-making is paramount to the evolution of American culture. This became evident to me when a little girl from Fisher elementary school met me during her school's visit to the Capitol. She was so excited to see me. She was pointing and jumping up and down. I kept looking around for Rep. Jones because he's the only one I know who gets that kind of fan reaction. But she was pointing to me. She wanted a picture with me. 'Are you really Ms. Love?', she asked as she hugged me. 'Yes, it's really me. And I'm really your State Representative,' I whispered as I hugged her tighter to make sure I wasn't dreaming. That interaction motivated me to read to every 3rd grader in my district during March is Reading month and to start civic engagement sessions in my district's high schools. I wanted little girls like me from Coyle Street in Detroit to know the possibilities in all areas—from astronaut (Mae Jemison) to zoologist (Mrs. Roger Arliner Young) and even Vice President (Kamala Harris).

The 100th legislature is historical in terms of black women in the legislature. There are 54 women elected and serving with 43 in the House and 11 in the Senate. Of those women, 13 are African American and all of them are Democrat; with 10 in the House and 3 in the Senate. In the history of Michigan's legislature, there have only been 36 black women total who have served. Now with 13 members, this term has the largest number of black women serving in Michigan's history.

It means a lot to me, my family and my community that I've been a good and faithful servant to the people and a change-agent in the legislature. To be able to say, I'm a lawmaker eight times over while in the minority is significant. To have passed meaningful legislation around sexual assault, juvenile justice reform, banking reform, auto insurance reform and the mitigation of COVID, to name a few, is astonishing. To have been able to secure and deliver nearly $1 million to my district is dope. To sit on both policy and appropriations committees and hold chairmanships is powerful. To receive a special appointment by both Governors Whitmer and Snyder is distinguishing. To serve as the Dem caucus vice- chair, the first vice president and treasurer of the Progressive Women's Caucus, and Executive Vice Chair, 2nd Vice Chair and Chaplain for the Michigan Legislative Black Caucus is phenomenal. To be a 3rd term is a huge accomplishment and something to be proud of because not everyone who starts this journey gets to finish it until term limited. I'm a 3rd Term; a senior member. And now that I'm actually good at my job, term limits are kicking me out. But I'm not sad. I have NO regrets. I've had a thorough legislative experience. From standing on top of the Mackinac bridge, to touring the cavernous Detroit salt mine, and from visiting the Soo Locks to a MSP helicopter ride over Detroit and from bear hunting with the Huffs near Gaylord and duck hunting with Rep. Cherry in Nyanquing Point, to Salmon fishing in Lake Michigan with Sen. Vanderwall, I've done it, honey!

Speaking of hunting and fishing. Serving as co-chair of the Legislative Sportsmen Caucus, with Triston Cole, is one of my best experiences. It afforded me the opportunity to try new things, have a lot of fun and learn a great deal about hunting and fishing and the contributions sportsmen and women make toward conservation efforts across our state, but especially in southeastern Michigan. In addition to preserving and protecting everything from our wildlife to wetlands, sportsmen and women generate over $11.2 billion annually and $3.7 billion of that is generated in southeast Michigan. So with that, I'd like to thank The Academy for this unique opportunity. What an honor and privilege it's been to serve. Thank you to my parents, grandma, family and friends for raising me in a loving and encouraging environment. Thank you, Michigan.

Remember to: Work with PURPOSE. Lead with CHARACTER. Decide with VALUES.

In closing, and in true Tony Award winning fashion, I'd like to give my 'Thank You's':

To My Friends: Jimalatice Thomas-Gilbert, Terrence German, Raquel Plaskett, Brad Clark, Teeka Jenkins-King, Cheryl Prude, Alfred Cureau, Jr., Soror Angela Bullock, Rick Blocker-my golf coach, and my beloved Sorors of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority Incorporated. Thank you.

To the People: The residents of District 10—Redford Township and northwest Detroit two dynamic municipalities—Thank you! Without you, I really wouldn't be here. Your love, laughter, criticism, kindness and—Your Vote—has sustained me and made me a better legislator. Thank you. I love you.

To the 'Love Bugs': My diverse crew including childhood, college and neighborhood friends, and my dynamic office team. Thank you for gracing me with your brilliance and sharing your talents to make Michigan a better place and me a better person.

Special shout out to all the campaign volunteers and community leaders; especially Arielle Edwards. The only person to ever get attacked by a dog in all my 7 election campaigns. I'm so thankful you weren't hurt. And to the many neighborhood association leaders and members. THANK YOU.

Special shout out to Jasmine Thompkins whose brilliance is only matched by her bravery. From jumping out of a plane with me to plunging into polar cold waters as Ninja Turtles, you are fierce! And I love you for your tenacity and humility. Please thank Kennedy for sharing her mommy with the district. (We were putting in L-O-N-G hours in those days!) You are more than a colleague; I consider you a friend and one of the most brilliant women in Lansing.

Special shout out to ‘The Kevins’: Kevin Harris and Kevin Shopshire. You guys are the best! Thank you for your unwavering loyalty and excellent work ethic. And even though you weren’t good with fashion advice, you are beyond outstanding wingmen. Shopshire, you have learned more black slang and black women-isms than any white man not married to a black woman should be allowed to know! And you rolled with it all like a true ‘ride-or-die’ solidier. Thank you.

My beloved Kevin Harris, I don’t have enough time here to thank you enough. You have been my ‘Day 1’ in politics and campaigning. We have been on some journeys together! We’ve almost died, we’ve cried, ‘rolled up’ on some fools, we fed the needy and kept each other’s trust. And when I had to make the horrible decision to move my mom out of our family home, you were there. Nothing but love for you my brother; my friend forever. Thank you.

To the Cast and Crew: The legislators, policy team, and capitol staff.

To the Daves (the board operators in the back), I really didn’t know what the heck you did until that fateful night in 2015. And I learned about the many roles you play behind the scenes to make sure our votes are counted and recorded. Thank you. And to Dan, Mike, Julian and Tom who run the cameras. Thank you for nailing my close ups and my scene-stealing air kisses to Rep. Sneller.

To the ‘Supremes’—Stephanie, Paris, Marcy and Cheryl (aka/the Journal Clerks) and the ‘Backstreet Boy’—Dan, Eric, Kevin & Darric (aka/the Bill Clerks). I call you the Supremes because you always respond, ‘good night’ to me in perfect harmonic unison and it sounds like music. And I call you Backstreet Boy because when I hand over my resolutions, ‘I Want It That Way,’ but there’s always revisions.

Thank you, Clerks Brown and Randall. Clerk Randall, I want you to know the sapling jade you gave me my freshmen year (which I named Randall) is alive and thriving and has sprouted a second jade that I’ve named Darlene.

To all the sergeants especially Chief Sgt. Dixon and Deputy Chief Fawn, thank you. Chief Dixon, we’ve shared a special type of respect and admiration for each other. From you dragging an intruder off the floor from his collar and belt to you chasing me on the Floor as I attempted to be recognized to speak on DPSCD. I will truly miss you. And I’ll especially miss Nicholas, the Page, who holds the door open when I enter the chamber. I’m sure they’re not going to do that for me at my next job. Thank you.

Alice, I’m eternally grateful for your kindness, spiritual guidance and talks. You’re such a fun and funny lady.

My awesome seatmates Marcia Hovey-Wright, Erika Geiss and Kara Hope. Marcia is a vivacious woman and founder of the progressive women’s caucus. Rep. Hope is the Zen vegetarian who’s as cool as a coronavirus vaccine shipment. And Erika is my legislative bestie. She’s a dame like me. She smokes cigars, drinks dark liquor and cusses like a sailor. She’s a great partner to get into Good Trouble with. Our friendship was forged over trying times and our bond has remained. We’ve had some great times. And I’m sure there will be other ceilings we’ll not only break but walk on. Wink wink.

To Asja and Liz in communication and all the Dem Policy team, especially Dan, Peter, Mao, Andy, Cynthia Paul, and Coffiann—THANK YOU!

If you don’t know, Coffiann Hawthorne is institutional knowledge! She is the lighthouse of legislation. The mistress of Amendments. The Wakanda’s Dora Milaje of policy. This woman is the BEST to have ever done it. A consummate professional; an honorable woman whom I deeply cherish and respect. Thank you for ALWAYS keeping members first; keeping us honest; and keeping us from falling. THANK YOU.

I’ll cherish the memory of Julie Plawecki We’d always ask each other, ‘What the hell is going on here?’ John Kivela who I always liked better than Scott Dianda. Isaac Robinson was my brother in Greeddom and life. I wish he was still here. He was brave, bold and brazen and would’ve flip this chamber on its ear. (His mom once told me I was the least full of shit member of the Detroit caucus. That was a high compliment from former Rep. Rose Mary Robinson.) Joe Tate doing the polar plunge with me and your ‘Not Bothered’ nonconfrontational demeanor. I hope to grow up to be as gracious and unaffected by annoying people and things like you. Cara Clemente we just vibe. I’ve always adored you. I miss serving with you on committee. Duck Hunting with John Cherry. I still get teased for going into the woods with a group of white men with long guns. Golfing with Frank Liberati and John Chirkun. The first time we golfed, I thought I was going to be the worst player. Nope, that would be John. And I love John’s wife Sharon. She’s the best. Rep. Ellison’s wife Jodie is great too. You guys really lucked up! Having dinner with Appropriations members when Julie and Jon argued with Sue and I kept trying to change the conversation to types of honey, to no avail. Then Angela Witwer and her friends appeared with an extra ticket to see Hamilton. I bailed on that dinner faster than a duck can drop a turd. Our first ‘Black Girl Magic’ gathering and the steadfast support and enthusiasm of Reps. Sarah Anthony and Kyra Bolden. You ladies are a class act! #keepitclassy Sheldon Neeley thank you, my brother, for your leadership with MLBC. You raised more money, oversaw the portrait hanging of William Webb Ferguson, the first black legislator, in the Capitol. Floor Leader Yousef Rahbi and Jelani, you have such a good spirit and awesome energy. I love you two. Senator Moss and Rep. Wittenberg I love you guys. Donna Lasinski, I remember meeting you and the talk we had. Now you're the Leader-elect. I'm so proud that you chose to define yourself. I appreciate and admire your tenacity and audacity. Please keep that energy going. Rep. Sneller for bribing me to be his friend with Snicker bars and Reese cup. It worked. Fifteen pounds later, I couldn't love you more. Sheryl Kennedy when you came on the DPSCD school tour, I knew you were the Real Deal! You are an education juggernaut! Sara Cambensy for introducing me to the U.P. and sled dogs races, touring the iron mine, learning about Stormy Kromer. Thank you. Love you 'Howdie' Jon Hoadley because you're so freakishly smart and funny. You were fair. Laurie Pohutsky, Lori Stone, Kevin Coleman and Cynthia Neeley for staying the course when the going got tough on the nursing home bill package. Pohutsky, you rock! Be more you. Padma Kuppaa, 'We're kept from your goal not by obstacles, but by a clear path to lesser goals.' Make this experience worthy of your efforts. And thank you all for the tremendous work you did on the nursing home bill package. Please keep that energy in the next term. Over 6 years, I've had the honor to serve with 26 different members representing Detroit: Bert Johnson, Virgil Smith, Coleman Young II, Morris Hood III, David Knezek, Ian Conyers, Marshall Bullock, Adam Hollier, Stephanie Chang, Betty Jean Alexander, Sylvia Santana, Harvey, Brian Banks, Alberta Tinsley-Talabi, Wendell Byrd, Fred Durhall III, LaTanya Garrett, Sherry Gay-Dagnogo, Cynthia A. Johnson, Rose Mary Robinson, Isaac Robinson, Joe Tate, Tyrone Carter, Karen Whitsett, Tenisha Yancey, and Abraham Aiyash. We are one of a kind. In the words of Missy Elliot our caucus is 'Planet rocka. Show stoppa. Flo proppa. Head knocka.' Wendell, LaTanya and Sherry we came in together and we're leaving together. One day we'll all gather around a large table of food (like only Detroit Reps do), laugh and truly enjoy each other's company as Wendell leans back in his chair, pull out those teeth and ask the table, 'Am I right or am I wrong?' To Cynthia A. Johnson, I was so glad coronavirus came so you would stop all that damn hugging and kissing. Just kidding. In all seriousness, thank you for helping me with me new dog and your friendship. My big brothers Ken Cole and Tyrone Sanders, Tommy Stallworth, Dr. K.B. Stallworth, Buzz Thomas, Bert Johnson and Jimmy Womack and big sisters Monique Fields, Lisa Howze, Shanelle Jackson and Maureen Stapleton. Your wisdom, your confidence, your realness is held hallowed. Thank you. Jean Doss-Crahen Disease. Melissa McKinley-Polar Plunge. Bill Wortz, Breslin brothers, Mike Hawks Rusty Merchant, Nicole Nystrom, and Andrea C. Jill Scott, Aretha Franklin, The Clark Sisters, Missy Elliot, Nicki Minaj, Megan Thee Stallion, Eminem/Marshall Mathers, Drake, Busta Rhymths, and the cast of Hamilton for all the sing-a-longs as I drove back and forth to work. To the leaders of the Democrat caucus Tim Greimel, Sam Singh and Christine Greig. Thank you for your leadership and friendship. Chris, you're a dynamic woman.

To my Republican friends Rep. Tommy Braun. I see your humanity. You are such a kind and thoughtful beautiful being. Thank you for what you did in my honor at the Jim Crow Museum at Ferris State University. Love! Reps 'photo' Phil, Brumstead, Canfield, Kelly and LaVoy- my freshman year we had such a GREAT bi-partisan quad-squad. We had such a great raucous good time back here. Maybe that's why they implemented this new seating thing. To ensure no commiserating shall be had between the two parties. It hasn't been the same since. I cherish the camaraderie and fellowship with Tony Forlini, Jeff Farrington, Ed McBroom, 'Uncle' Al Pscholka, Pete Pettalia, Randy Richardville, Pete MacGregor, Wayne Schmidt, Tonya Schuitmaker, Julie Alexander, Kathy Crawford, Bronna Kahle, Lana Thesis, and Holly Hughes. Did you know Holly sponsored a bill in my 'stripper bill package? Kevin Cotter- the quintessential gentleman statesman. Thank you for your compassion and protection. As the James Bond type, you set the bar extraordinarily high. Tom Leonard- you were like the Leonardo DiCarpio in The Wolf of Wallstreet type but not in the bad hookers and Quaalude way, but in the good times were really good and the bad times were really bad way. I was such a naïve bright-eyed freshman, when I wandered into a Republican reception and started mingling. And instead of making me feel like this wasn't a reception for me, you befriended me and even pinned me that evening. I passed three bills and numerous resolutions under your leadership. Chatfield did not surpass your record, though he had the chance. Making you the most 'Love Legislation' friendly Speaker. Lee Chatfield- I couldn't decide if you were a Bruce Willis tough guy type or the Deadpool type. Either way, you are tough! You are the bad guy and the good guy. And I've never had more frustration and fun with any other Speaker. I'm so delighted and impressed with myself that I was able to crack the Chatfield code sometimes. We have had the most dynamic, powerful and meaningful exchanges. I appreciate our unique relationship and the mutual respect we share. Even though I had to give a doctoral dissertation to get you to agree on some things, I am glad you have the capacity and willingness to try. So many people are closed-minded and unalleable. I'm glad to see that you can be open and are willing to step WAAAY out of your comfort zone and that was evident when you allowed the African praying drums. Thank you. Lastly, you all can thank me for toilet seat covers. It was my first legislative action and I couldn't be prouder I've help save a tush from toilet seat tinkle.

Distinguished ladies and gentlemen of the 100th legislature, that's a wrap! Thank you. [Love drops the mic and exits stage left.]”

Rep. Webber:

"Every time I step foot on the House floor, it is truly an honor. We can all remember that first time, during orientation as Rep. Elects, that we get to walk onto the floor. A lot of hard work, years, sometimes decades, of involvement in our communities, have gotten us to this point, where we are sent to Lansing to represent our districts.

I will always remember that walk onto the House floor in November 2014. But for me it wasn't the first time. In fact, the first time I can remember sitting on the floor during session was in 2004. I was a staff person for Speaker Rick Johnson, and I was given the 'task' of sitting near a Rep and keeping him awake long enough to vote during one of our late-night sessions. I didn't care, I was just happy to be on the House floor.

My time in Lansing started as an intern in the State Senate when I was 20 years old. And it continued for nearly ten years as a staff person for a governor and legislators in both the House and Senate. You could say that I grew up in Rochester Hills, but I really GREW UP working around the Capitol in Lansing. This was an invaluable experience that prepared me for my time as a representative. I had previously done almost every job you can do in the legislature except to vote.

I want to start off by thanking the Residents of the Greater Rochester area for sending me here to represent you for the past 6 years. When I was 29, the City of Rochester Hills residents took a chance on me and elected me to City Council. Thirteen years later, it has been an honor to be your voice. Our office has strived to deliver strong constituent service and accessibility to help you navigate state government.

Next, I want to thank my family. My wife Julia and my son James have kept me humble and grounded during this journey. After a day in Lansing of hearing Mr. Chairman or Representative, I know I can come home and be 'dad' or 'Michael'. For 13 years, I have debated my wife on the issues of the day, as I struggle to formulate a position on this issue or that issue. She is my sounding board.

I must also thank my parents – Bob and Nancy – for always supporting me and being great role models for community involvement and giving back. Thank you to my more famous, rock star brothers Tim and Matt for accepting a politician into the family. And thank you to the Wimberley and Barlow families for always being supportive of Julia's husband.

Next, I must thank the great staff I have had over the years. It can't be easy to work for a former staff person, but each had a unique role in successes that our office had over the years. Kari Bearman, John McNamara, Charles Visser, Mitch Moore, Doug Boehm Jr, Molly Wingrove, Peter Escho, and Kevin Rose. I could not do what I do if it wasn't for their hard work over the years. Each earned rave reviews from constituents and each left their mark on the 45th House District.

I have been blessed to serve under three speakers who entrusted me to serve on some of the most powerful committees in town. I must single out Speaker Lee Chatfield for allowing me to Chair the House Regulatory Reform Committee over this past session. It was an honor to serve in that role and to serve as part of your leadership team. Our committee was one of the busiest of the session. Thank you to the members, particularly Vice Chair John Chirkun for your partnership over the last two years, we were able to accomplish a lot. And a special thank you to Jimmy Biehl from the Policy office for your tireless work in support of the committee.

Thank you to all the staff who make this institution run – the Business office, the Sergeants, the Clerks, the Pages, the Michigan State Police, the Cleaning staff, the Building staff, the Tour guides. You keep us organized and you keep us safe. Special recognition also goes to our Policy Staff, our Communications staff, and the Leadership staff for working to keep our caucus running and informed.

I have had the pleasure of sitting next to three different seat mates – Lisa Lyons, Joe Graves, and now Jack O'Malley. Thank you for your friendship and conversation over the years. I want to congratulate Speaker-Elect Jason Wentworth and wish him, and the 101st Legislature, the very best next session. This chamber is in great hands with Jason at the helm. Please welcome my friend Mark Tisdell into this exclusive club, he will make an excellent representative of this body.

If I start to list a lot of members, I will leave someone out and I don't want to do that. The truth is that I have enjoyed serving with all of you – past and present. There is great potential in this room when we put politics aside and work together. Experience from all walks of life, every corner of this state. I am proud to have served with each of you – You were in the Arena.

As I leave political life, I look forward to being closer to home and having more time with family. One of the things my son James and I like to do together is ride the roller coasters. For a seven-year-old, he is fearless. He will find the tallest, fastest ride in the park and want to get on. One time, we tried to convince him he wasn't tall enough to ride, but the measuring stick at the front said otherwise.

Now seven-year old's lack patience, so standing in line can be hard. Still, when you are in the line, you can kind of size up the ride, see all the twists and turns. You hear the roar of the crowd as they fly by, go upside down, and drop from the highest of levels. The anticipation builds for your turn.

Now James always wants to sit with me on these rides, instead of mom. He is convinced that somehow, if something goes haywire, that I can save him because I am so strong – his words. And while one can size up a ride in the line, you really must experience it for yourself.

Riders can and will have different experiences. Some put their hands up while others cover their eyes. Some are just looking for the camera that takes your picture. Some are not having any fun at all while others are having a blast.

All the buildup, the standing in line, the anticipation – and the ride is over like that. It is exhilarating – you wish you could ride it all day long. But then you look to the side. Other people have been waiting in line for a while now too. It is their turn to ride the ride, their turn to experience everything it has to offer.

It is time for me to exit, with all my personal belongings. But it was a great ride, one that I will always cherish.”

Rep. Wittenberg:

“6 years, but a blink of an eye. There is a saying about having young children. The days and nights are long, but the years go by fast. I could say the same about serving in the House. We had many...far too many... long nights here, but the years went by fast.

It seems like yesterday, although it was 5 ½ years ago, that we were at ease here on the floor during a late-night session, and I decided to take a tour of the Capital. I might have also spent a bit of time in the bathroom on the first floor. Little did I know, I wasn’t getting cell service there, and when I walked in the double doors in the back, it was completely quiet, and everyone turned back to look at me as I was the last one to vote. I was quick to say loudly that I wasn’t getting service in the bathroom. You can imagine the reaction I got.

I have far too many stories to share, but just one more I want to mention, about Julie Plawewski.

Julie...my colleague, my lunch buddy, my friend. As a few people have mentioned in their speeches, I am a bit of a foodie and I never say no to food. I always like trying everything at the table or at a group lunch, so Julie indulged me and always split her sandwiches with me or gave me some of her meal to try. And that was just during orientation. That was the start of our friendship. She was the most caring and generous person, always thinking about others. Julie, this institution and this world hasn’t been the same since you left us far too early. Mark, Lauren, Rachel and Monica, I think of her and you, often.

I am also sad to say we lost Pete Pettalia, John Kivela, and Isaac Robinson, all far too young and too early.

I am a very thankful person. I believe in the Thank you culture so this will be a speech of gratitude. I’m also not as funny as the incomparable Cathy Crawford, so I won’t even try to match her stand-up routine. And I will try to not speak for too long, because with term limits, and the turnover in this institution, it’s like every student getting to speak at 8th grade graduation.

In no particular order, I’d like to start with my wife Kimberly. So much changes over 6 years: my girlfriend became my fiancé, then wife, and now the mother of our two beautiful, sweet and exhausting kids. You are thoughtful, caring, smart and selfless. You are my proof reader and my best friend. I love you more today than I did 6 years ago, and I’m excited to be able to spend additional time closer to home to be with you.

Also, a big thank you to my parents, Mollie and Howard, for always supporting me and encouraging me. I literally wouldn’t be where I am today without them. To my brother and sister. You were my first best friends, and that hasn’t changed. I know I can always count on you. Jamie - You are my mentor and my hero. I have always looked up to you and always tried to make you proud. You are the strongest person I know, and what you are dealing with is just a bump in the road. I know you’ll live a long and meaningful life. And to my in-laws and all my friends and family back home, thank you and I love you all.

The People of the 27th district. You are the most active and engaged constituents in the state, without question. Thank you for your support and for pushing me. I was never here for me. I was here because of all of you. I was here because I wanted to serve my community, and you honored me with the opportunity. I wish my successor, Regina Weiss, all the best. The 27th District is in great hands.

Now, to the people that make this institution work.

Our Caucus team including writers, graphic designers, photographers, videographers, policy, legal, member services and social media and all my friends and colleagues working in other District offices.

There are far too many of you to mention here, but you are all appreciated.

And to Kris Young, Ryan Seabolt and Jelani McGadney, for making sure I voted in a timely manner (sometimes), and for keeping us all in line. KY, thanks for answering all of my ridiculous texts. I appreciate you and your friendship.

To all the pages here over the years.

IT Dept

Tim Bowlin who is definitely somewhere warm. Doug Simon, the business office and the HR dept including Lisa, Mark and Stacy. You keep the ship afloat.

To the clerks Rich Brown and Gary Randall, and Darlene, the committee clerks, LSB, Andi and Lainie and HB the cat, the Peckham staff including Christina, who the friendliest person in the world. Nae, who we miss dearly and Janet. The sergeants. All the maintenance and facilities staff. And Joelle – Fun fact, I didn't realize she worked in a partisan office until months into my tenure. None of this happens without all of you. And Alice. You do a great job of brightening up everyone's day. – I know you'll keep running until you are 100!

And to the lobbyists. With term limits, your role is very important here. There are lobbyists for everything. I used to say it at my coffee hours often when it came up. Lobbyists aren't an issue. They are people just advocating on behalf of their clients or for a particular cause. Term limits, gerrymandering and money in politics are the issue. One has been addressed, the others are for another discussion.

Media - Unfortunately, you have become small in number but monumental in importance. Thank you for the work you do every day to keep the residents of our state informed.

As everyone here knows, you're only as good as your team that surrounds you. Our team in the 27th district was second to none. Aaron Keel, Barbara Winter, Ricardo White, Liam Bagley, Mario Arribas, Neema Katibai, and the countless interns... Thank you. We always tried to have fun in our office while still being helpful and responsive to our residents, and always going above and beyond. You are all friends and I can't thank you enough for always being there to support me and our neighbors back home. And Liam and Mario, for adapting on a moment's notice and responding to every constituent during this extremely trying time. I would be remiss if I didn't talk a little more about Barbara. Barbara – the office hasn't been the same without you.... Check that, the entire HOB hasn't been the same without you. Your contagious laugh and unique sense of humor is missed by everyone within three floors of our office. Thank you for allowing me to work for you!!

Speakers Leonard and Chatfield. We disagreed on a lot, agreed on some, but are friends, nonetheless. I said a lot of things about you at my coffee hours regarding things you did here, or just as importantly, things you didn't do. But I never threw you under the bus without adding that I consider you both friends and that I would continue to chip away at you. I appreciate your friendship.

Sam Singh – You are a mentor and a friend.

Speaker-Elect Wentworth – We've spent some time together and I know you are a selfless and principled person. I encourage you to look at Democrats as partners, not opponents, and you'll get a lot done for the state. Donna Lasinski is a thoughtful, tough, smart and attentive leader. I hope you two work well together.

Chris Greig - We came in together and we are exiting together. It has been an honor serving with you. You did a great job during a difficult time. You are my leader and my friend. I am excited for whatever the future holds for you.

Yousef – Your loud voice is only surpassed by your big heart. Keep shouting to the mountaintops.

My Seat mates – John Chirkun, Frank Liberati, and Jim Haadsma. It was a pleasure getting to know you. Thanks for sharing your food with me and letting me vent to you on nights when we were here past 3 am. We had a lot of fun. Frank, I'll definitely see you at your deli soon.

And to Sherry, my love. Your passion and eloquence are unlike anyone else I've ever met. To this day, I still go back and re-watch some of your speeches. You are a phenomenal public servant and an even better person. I learned so much from you over the years. I'll miss you, but I know we'll stay in touch and you'll continue to do everything you can to help the people, and specifically, the students of Detroit.

To some of the other legislators I came in with -

Vanessa Guerra – The first time I met her was at our orientation. She introduced herself and said very properly 'my name is Vanessa Guerra, I'm from Saginaw and I like puppies' ...or something like that. Then I got to know her and realized she swears like a sailor. She is really smart, brutally honest and doesn't pull punches. That's what I love about her. She will be an excellent clerk for Saginaw.

Jon Hoadley – You are one of the smartest people I know, and you are an expert on messaging. I have always looked up to you here in the legislature, and I'm happy to have your friendship. You are also an amazing baker and very generous with your snacks. I won't be mad if you send me tins of baked goods.

Latonya Garrett – You constantly shared your food with me. I definitely wasn't upset when you would over order and pass some on to me. You'll forever be in my heart for that and for your friendship.

Leslie Love!! I always looked forward to your speeches. I never knew if you were going to use a fart analogy or something else crazy like a duck turd. But you were always on message. I look forward to buying a ticket to your show one day.

Kristy Pagan – We've worked together on many issues. Gun Violence Prevention, the environment, reproductive rights, sex education, and a host of others. You are a policy wonk and I appreciate all of the work we did.

Jeremy Moss, my friend. Frick left Frack here in the House, and my last term wasn't the same without you. I missed having you here, but that didn't stop us from talking every single day. I'm proud to call you my senator and thankful for all the work that you do for our district. You are truly an effective and influential legislator. You are also one of my best friends, and I know that will continue long beyond your time in the legislature. I will always remember Dec 7, 2014. I know, because you won't let me forget it.

I also missed Stephanie Chang, the hardest working legislator anywhere.

Erika Geiss, Winnie Brinks and Jeff Irwin. I look up to you all and thank you for your friendship. Keep up the great work in the Senate.

Darrin and Abdullah – AKA Wittenberg/Moss 2.0. You are both perfect leaders for your respective districts. Thank you for your friendship, and I'm excited to see what the future holds for you both.

Sarah Anthony - You did a great job wrangling the circus that is our caucus. You are destined for great things and I'm eager to cheer you on along the way. Shalom!!

Cara Clemente – You came in and it was a huge upgrade from your predecessor. I know he would say the same :) You have a big heart and I appreciate you and Paul and your friendship with me and Kimberly.

David LaGrand – You're too smart for your own good, but I always value your opinion. Thanks for the respirator.

Matt Koleszar – You have a heart of gold. And that's why you are a teacher. I know you'll keep doing the work, even though you won't always get the credit.

Laurie Pohutsky – I can't tell you how glad I am to have a scientist in the legislature. Especially during a pandemic. You are brilliant and do a great job for your district.

Joe Tate – I've known you since high school, longer than anyone else here. We actually played football against each other. I won't tell you which one of us went on to play in college and the NFL. You'll have to google it. Joe, it's been great reconnecting with you here.

Tenisha Yancy – You are an inspiration to so many. You didn't let a mistake in your past define you, but rather to motivate you to do great things and serve your community. You are a passionate advocate and the Detroit Caucus is in good hands. Thanks for sharing your smoothies with me.

Wendell Bird – I haven't seen you in a while, I hope you are doing well up there. I might be calling you with some tax questions.

Our Oakland County Crew – I won't be far, and I look forward to continuing our work together. Jim Ellison, Brenda Carter, Padma Kuppa, Mari Manoogian and Kyra Bolden. Thank you for your friendship and your partnership on behalf of the residents of Oakland County. I am also looking at you, Webber, Howrylak, Tedder, McCreedy, Kesto, Schroeder and Berman.

And specifically, to Manoogs and KHB, stay On Fire.

Dave Maturen, boy do I miss him. He is a kind and decent man, full of integrity, and I miss having him around here.

Tommy Brann – You have a big heart. Always follow your heart, Tommy!

VanSingel – You're a good person, and I appreciate you, so I won't taint your reputation by telling stories from our trip.

Andrea Schroeder – It's been a pleasure getting to know you, and I'm glad you are healthy and doing well. I'll continue to see you and check in on you.

Chris Afendoulis – You are a friend and I miss you. I read more now because of you.

And outside of the legislature, our fearless state-wide leaders that I am honored to call friends. Governor Whitmer, Attorney General Nessel and Secretary of State Benson. Keep up the great work.

And if I missed anyone else, I am sorry. But know that it has been a pleasure sharing this unique experience with you.

Last, and most importantly, to my kids Ada and Abel, I didn't even know you when I first got here, but I've loved you my whole life. Everything I've done and will continue to do is for you. I wish you all the best and I will support you every step of the way.

And I want to end by talking about a light that was extinguished far too early. Just this week, we heard the news of the passing of Taylor Derosa, a student at Grand Valley State. She was just 18 years old. She grew up in Royal Oak and graduated from Royal Oak High School. I got to know her through her activism with Students Demand Action, a group advocating for Gun Safety in Michigan. She had a beautiful soul that was evident from her kind nature, her passion to help, and her big bright smile that never seemed to leave her face. Her potential was limitless, and I want her mom to know that I, and so many of us here are thinking about her and offer our condolences. So, colleagues, and everyone else that might stumble upon this video, life is fleeting. Don't take anything for granted. Tell your family and friends you love them and always say thank you.

Stay safe everyone, and all the best in the future."

(The resolution was introduced and postponed for the day on December 15, see House Journal No. 98, p. 2531.)

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Kuppa, Hertel, Hope, Neeley, Guerra, Tyrone Carter, Elder, Aiyash, Haadsma, Greig, Sneller, Lasinski, Sowerby, Wittenberg, Rabhi, Peterson, Chirkun and Sabo offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 353.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to work collaboratively with states on a national strategy to help small businesses and local units of government.

Whereas, The COVID-19 Pandemic has had a dramatic effect on small businesses in Michigan and throughout the United States. In order to mitigate the virus' spread, non-essential businesses have needed to temporarily close or significantly reduce operations. Businesses have also faced reduced traffic as consumers have limited potential exposure to the virus. This has led to unprecedented declines in revenue and the permanent closure of tens of thousands of small businesses throughout the country; and

Whereas, Local governments have also been significantly affected by the Pandemic. Falling revenues from property, casino, and local income taxes have placed these governments under immense fiscal stress that may be exacerbated by a decline in state revenue sharing; and

Whereas, Michigan and states throughout the nation are experiencing rising coronavirus cases that may place further stress on small businesses and local governments. In Michigan, some mitigation measures have been temporarily reinstituted to control the virus; and

Whereas, Establishing a coordinated national strategy to support small businesses and local governments will alleviate some of this burden and help the nation to recover more quickly when the Pandemic has ended. Providing support to small businesses will help protect jobs and American livelihoods in the immediate future, while also ensuring that these businesses are able to avoid permanent closure. Likewise, supporting local governments will allow them to avoid unnecessarily harmful budget cuts immediately and emerge in a stronger financial position after the crisis; and

Whereas, The aid provided by the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act was critical in saving lives and businesses but insufficient to weather the ongoing crisis. The funding provided to small businesses was inadequate to support the number of small businesses affected by the Pandemic. Further, the act only provided direct aid to local governments with a population of half-a-million or greater, meaning the vast majority of Michigan's nearly 2,000 local units of government were ineligible for direct payments. This funding is also expiring and may only be used for costs incurred by the end of this year; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to work collaboratively with states on a national strategy to help small businesses and local units of government; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, and members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Commerce and Tourism.

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 357 out of numerical order.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

He also served as a member of the Communications and Technology, Regulatory Reform, Tax Policy, Ways and Means, and Workforce and Talent Development committees; and

The resolution was adopted.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 33.

A concurrent resolution of tribute for the Honorable Stephen J. Markman.

Whereas, It is a privilege to recognize Justice Stephen J. Markman as he completes his service on the Michigan Supreme Court. Justice Markman has served the state's judiciary, the legal community, and the people of our state with distinction during his lifetime of public service; and

Whereas, Justice Markman brought a wealth of experience from the state and federal levels, as well as the private sector, when he arrived at the Supreme Court in 1999. He served for seven years as chief counsel of the United States Senate Subcommittee on the Constitution and as deputy chief counsel of the United States Senate Judiciary Committee. Justice Markman was appointed by President Ronald Reagan to serve as a U.S. Assistant Attorney General in 1985, when he led the Department of Justice's Office of Legal Policy, which is the principal policy development office within the department and coordinates the federal judicial selection process. President George H. W. Bush appointed Justice Markman to serve as U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Michigan in 1989. After his term as U.S. Attorney ended in 1993, Justice Markman practiced law at Miller, Canfield, Paddock, and Stone until he was chosen to serve on the Michigan Court of Appeals in 1995. He served on the Court of Appeals until Governor John Engler elevated him to the Supreme Court in 1999; and

Whereas, Following his appointment to the Supreme Court, the people of Michigan elected Justice Markman three times, first to a partial term in 2000 and then to full terms in 2004 and 2012. His colleagues later selected him as Chief Justice for the 2017-2018 session; and

Whereas, During more than two decades on the state's highest court, Justice Markman was a thoughtful and hardworking arbiter of the state's constitution and laws. He left his mark on the state and the legal community, writing thorough and well-argued majority, concurring, and dissenting opinions during his time on the bench. His contributions have also extended outside of his appointed and elective offices, penning numerous articles and book chapters, teaching constitutional law at Hillsdale College, and assisting Ukraine with the development of its most recent constitution on behalf of the U.S. State Department in the 1990s; and

Whereas, Throughout his time on our highest court, Justice Markman contributed immensely to the application of criminal sentencing guidelines in cases such as People v Kimble, 470 Mich 305 (2004), and People v Francisco, 474 Mich 82 (2006), where he penned pivotal opinions on Michigan's criminal sentencing scheme, including providing in Kimble that "a sentence that is outside the appropriate guidelines sentence range, for whatever reason, is appealable"; and

Whereas, Justice Markman has demonstrated throughout his tenure strong support for the constitutional foundations of federalism and the separation of powers, as well as a reverence for the legislative branch of government, as evidenced most recently in the landmark decision ruling in support of state constitutional law in the case challenging gubernatorial emergency powers. In this opinion, Justice Markman restored the constitutional balance of power while noting the importance of co-equal branch communication and cooperation, and in doing so "left open many avenues for the Governor and Legislature to work together to address" the COVID-19 Pandemic; and

Whereas, Justice Markman's instructive opinions have guided both practice and the law. In this vein, his dissent while on the Court of Appeals in a 1997 Headlee Amendment case about determining what is considered a tax or a fee under the constitutional provision became the building blocks for the Supreme Court in Bolt v City of Lansing, 459 Mich 152 (1998) and the Legislature's subsequent amendment of the law; and

Whereas, Justice Markman has written impactful dissenting opinions while on the bench, like his strong defense of the best interests of children in his dissenting opinion in favor of the "one-parent doctrine" in In re Sanders, 495 Mich 394 (2014), or the resounding dissent he wrote in support of self-defense in People v Richardson, 490 Mich 115 (2011), stating:

"This Court must continue to speak strongly and clearly on the right of self-defense, particularly with regard to the sometimes difficult and insecure environments of some of our state's largest cities; and because the instructional error here was far from harmless, implicating a quintessential right of a free society, on which the Second Amendment of our Constitution is predicated—the right of personal self-defense—I respectfully, but very strongly, dissent.”

Whereas, Justice Markman’s contributions have positively changed the way laws are interpreted, resulting in a more faithful application of the law. Notably, on the calculation of days and time in Haksluoto v Mt Clements Regional Med Ctr, 500 Mich 304 (2017), Justice Markman wrote for the majority, “There is no principled reason to treat the last day differently from any other—the abacus bead does not slide over until the day is over,” ultimately holding that the statute of limitations period is tolled when a notice of intent is filed on the last day of the limitations period; and

Whereas, Justice Markman’s work on the Supreme Court and his steadfast commitment to our state will be missed. His principled efforts and commitment to the rule of law will offer guidance to those who follow him into the legal field and the state’s judiciary for years to come. Perhaps most importantly, his respect for the Legislature as an institution and the rule of law has unquestionably improved state government and, by extension, our society as a whole; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That we offer this expression of tribute to commend and thank the Honorable Stephen J. Markman for his notable contributions to our state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Justice Markman as evidence of our gratitude and best wishes.

Whereas, Lawrence Lindemer was born in Syracuse, New York, later settling in Stockbridge, Michigan, which he would call home for decades. He received undergraduate and legal degrees from the University of Michigan in preparation for his future legal career. In between earning those degrees, he served his country as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army Air Forces during World War II. He worked as an assistant prosecuting attorney for Ingham County in 1949 and 1950, the year of his election to the House of Representatives; and

Whereas, From 1951 to 1952, Lawrence Lindemer served in this legislative body as the representative for the then Second District of Ingham County. His intellect and talents were put to good use, as he worked on a wide array of policy issues as a member of the Educational Institutions, Geological Survey, Judiciary, Juvenile Corrections, Retirement, and Revision and Amendment of the Constitution standing committees; and

Whereas, Lawrence Lindemer continued his eminently distinguished career after his time in the Legislature. He served on the Hoover Commission to recommend administrative changes in the federal government in the early to mid-1950s. Upon leaving Washington, D.C., and returning to Michigan, his accomplishments progressed back home. Michigan Supreme Court Justice, University of Michigan Regent, and Republican State Central Committee chair are among the many esteemed positions he held. He also built a storied career as an attorney; and

Whereas, A giant in the fields of law, politics, and public service, Lawrence Lindemer is an illustrious representative of the Legislature and the state. His family can take great pride in his contributions and achievements; now, therefore, be it

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for J. Bob Traxler, former member of the Michigan House of Representatives and the United States House of Representatives.

Whereas, The members of this legislative body were saddened to learn of the passing of Bob Traxler. He represented the areas around Saginaw Bay and the Thumb region for more than three decades. A skilled negotiator with a big heart, he dedicated his life to public service and improving the communities and state that he loved; and

Whereas, Born in Kawkawlin, Bob Traxler graduated from T.L. Handy High School in Bay City and earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Michigan State University. After serving his country in the United States Army, he received a law degree from the Detroit College of Law and became an assistant prosecutor in Bay County. In 1962, he was first elected to the state House of Representatives; and

Whereas, Bob Traxler served as a member of this legislative body for 12 years, distinguishing himself as a conscientious and dedicated public servant. Representative Traxler was an active member on several committees, including serving as the chair of the House Judiciary Committee in his final term. In his second term, his peers elected him majority floor leader. Among his many legislative accomplishments, he is best remembered for his leadership on legalizing bingo games for charitable purposes, for which he received the nickname "Bingo Bob"; and

Whereas, Bob Traxler left the Michigan House of Representatives in 1974 upon his election to the United States House of Representatives. Over the next 19 years, he would rise in Congress to become a leader on the House Appropriations Committee. Earning a reputation as a consummate dealmaker, he was a strong advocate for Great Lakes funding and always worked to ensure Michigan received its fair share of federal funding; and

Whereas, Bob Traxler's public service did not end with his legislative career. He won statewide election to the board of trustees of his alma mater, Michigan State University, in 1992, and, upon his resignation from that board, was appointed to the Mackinac Island State Park Commission in 2000; and

Whereas, Bob Traxler was a tireless advocate for Michigan and the communities he loved. Always willing to listen to the concerns of his constituents, his legacy lives on with the many generations he mentored and the example he set. He will not soon be forgotten; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of J. Bob Traxler, a member of this legislative body from 1963 to 1974 and the United States House of Representatives from 1974 to 1992; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Traxler family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 356.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Alma G. Stallworth, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, It is with great sadness that the members of this legislative body learned of the passing of Alma G. Stallworth. She served her constituents in Detroit and Wayne County and the people of our entire state with distinction in a career that covered four decades in the House of Representatives. She leaves behind a remarkable record of service which is a model for everyone who follows her into public life; and

Whereas, A native of Little Rock, Arkansas, Alma G. Stallworth ultimately made the Detroit area her home and found numerous ways to serve her community over the years. She attended Highland Park Junior College, the Merrill Palmer Institute, and Wayne State University and was active in religious and social organizations. She also worked as a day care director before she was first elected to the House in 1970; and

Stallworth's contributions will long continue to enrich our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Alma G. Stallworth, a member of this legislative body from 1971 to 1974, 1983 to 1996, and 2003 to 2004; and be it further
