Rep. Robert J. Bezotte, from the 47th District, offered the following invocation:

“Father we come to You today in gratitude for the great gift of self-government which our nation has enjoyed for over 245 years. You have blessed this nation and this state more than any other nation, and for that we are truly grateful. We also come to You as a people and nation in need. When we look to Your word, we see many promises, and today we pray those promises back to You.

Regardless of the social, or political divide between us all, it’s important to remember that we must work together, as one, for the betterment of our communities.

We ask today that You grant the men and women in this chamber the courage to do what is right, and what honors You, not necessarily what is popular.

I’d like to take this moment to thank all of those who are a part of the United States Military – whether you’re a veteran like myself, or an active-duty service member, I thank you for your efforts on behalf of our great country. I would also like to thank all of our first responders for their ongoing efforts on our behalf.

We ask You today to bring peace upon our nation as we are seeing division unlike any we’ve seen in generations. May those of us elected to office be peacemakers and leaders, not the source of division. Today we ask God to hear our prayers and continue to bless our nation. We ask these things in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.

Rep. Rabhi moved that Reps. Anthony, Bolden, Tyrone Carter, Scott and Yancey be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Frederick moved that Reps. Eisen and Marino be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Messages from the Senate

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 22.

A concurrent resolution offered as a memorial for Shirley Johnson, former member of the House of Representatives and the Senate.

Whereas, The members of the Michigan Legislature were deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Shirley Johnson. A long-serving member of this legislative body, she will be remembered as a hard-working legislator who did not shy away from tough jobs or issues. She was a tireless public servant who worked for the betterment of her constituents in Oakland County and Michiganders across the state; and

Whereas, Shirley Johnson was a native of Chicago and moved to Michigan when her husband accepted a job with Chrysler. She attended Wayne State University and Oakland Community College. Shirley Johnson became very engaged in her new community, both as a leader and member of various organizations dealing with health, education, politics, and other matters. Her community engagement included being president of the Royal Oak Republican Women’s Club, a coordinator for the March of Dimes and Muscular Dystrophy Association, and a member of the League of Women Voters and the Royal Oak and Berkley parent teacher associations, among other endeavors. In addition to her community service, she worked in private industry. Shirley Johnson’s entry into legislative service started when she managed the winning campaign for State Representative Dave Campbell and subsequently worked in his office. Her vast experiences and civic-minded spirit prepared her well for her time as a legislator; and

Whereas, First elected to the House of Representatives in 1980, Shirley Johnson’s tenure in the House lasted for 18 years through 1998. Shirley Johnson broke the glass ceiling when she became the first woman to serve as majority vice chair of the House Appropriations Committee. She served on many appropriations subcommittees, including those dealing with social services, health, consumer and industry issues, the judiciary, and many other areas. In the House, she was also vice chair of the standing Committee on Colleges and Universities and a member of the standing committees on Constitutional Revision and Women’s Rights, Public Safety, Senior Citizens and Retirement, and Urban Affairs; and

Whereas, In March of 1999, Shirley Johnson won a special election to the Senate and was re-elected in 2002. Dealing with the budget and crafting smart, sound appropriations bills were still at the forefront of Shirley Johnson's legislative career. In fact, she broke ground again as the first woman to chair an appropriations committee, doing so in the Senate. In addition to serving as chair of the Senate Appropriations Committee, she chaired the subcommittees on Career Development and Strategic Fund Agency, Capital Outlay, and Transportation; was vice chair of the subcommittees on General Government, Higher Education, and the Department of Natural Resources; and was a member of the subcommittee on Community Health. In the Senate, she also served on the standing Committee on Education as vice chair; as a member of the standing Committee on Families, Mental Health and Human Services; and on the Legislative Council and the Senate Fiscal Agency Governing Board; and

Whereas, Shirley Johnson was known to be an effective legislator who mastered the appropriations process during difficult economic times. Her diligent work and strong leadership on the appropriations committees guided the wise allocation and use of taxpayer dollars; and

Whereas, While the state budget was her specialty, Shirley Johnson also worked on many other issues in her more than 25 years in the Legislature. She was an early advocate for improving mental health policy. Welfare and school finance reform were two of the multitude of other issues in which she shepherded the passage of legislation. She also sponsored a bill to allow mothers to safely and legally abandon a newborn, among many other policies; and

Whereas, Shirley Johnson was a tremendous lawmaker, evidenced by the numerous awards she received during her time in office from both local and statewide organizations, including being named Legislator of the Year by the Michigan Association of Community Mental Health Boards, United Cerebral Palsy of Michigan, the Michigan Credit Union League, and the Michigan Judges Association, among others. She was honored for her great work by advocates of business interests, health matters, children's rights, and other issues; and

Whereas, Shirley Johnson's reputation is one of a fierce advocate who worked across the aisle to get things done. It has been said that no woman wielded more power in the history of the Michigan Legislature than Shirley Johnson. In fact, only one other woman has served longer in the Michigan Legislature than Shirley Johnson's tenure of 25 years and 9 months; and

Whereas, Shirley Johnson was more than a public servant. She loved her family and was proud to be called wife, mom, and grandma. Moreover, Shirley Johnson's staff was also her family. Under her mentorship and high expectations, many are now leaders in organizations and businesses that regularly interface with the Legislature. Her love also extended to the Capitol building where she was known to give impromptu tours and invite strangers in to see her office; and

Whereas, Shirley Johnson was a committed and hardworking legislator who cherished her family. Upon her passing, we offer our condolences to her family and friends. We hope that they may find comfort in the knowledge that the community and state share in their bereavement and that the legacy of Shirley Johnson's contributions will long continue to enrich our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Shirley Johnson, a member of the House of Representatives from 1981 to 1998 and a member of the Senate from 1999 to 2006; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Johnson family as evidence of our lasting esteem for her memory.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

The concurrent resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Glenn, Bezotte, Breen, Fink, Haadsma, Kahle, Rogers, Sneller, Steenland, Thanedar, Witwer and Yaroeh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 199.

A resolution to commemorate the 80th anniversary of the Civil Air Patrol.

Whereas, Civil Air Patrol (CAP) was founded on Dec. 1, 1941, to supplement the U.S. military during World War II; and

Whereas, In 1948, CAP was designated as the U.S. Air Force's official auxiliary with three missions – emergency services, cadet programs and aerospace education; and

Whereas, Since CAP's beginning, the organization has set itself apart during the country's most tumultuous times: Locating enemy submarines during World War II, assisting rescuers and state agencies immediately following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks, heavily supporting hurricane relief efforts in 2005, 2008, 2012, and 2017 and in response to the Gulf Coast oil spill in 2010, as well as aiding communities during other natural disasters, such as floods, wildfires, ice storms and tornados; and

Whereas, CAP further provides vital homeland security missions that help ensure the protection of the nation's capital and the nation as a whole by assisting Air Force pilots with target-intercept training as well as the military with acquiring distant targets; and

Whereas, CAP provides exceptional education and growth opportunities for youth through its nearly 25,000-member string cadet program, which annually provides access to top national summer flight academies to learn to fly powered or glider aircraft, as well as to more than 30 national programs emphasizing leadership and careers in aviation; and

Whereas, CAP's Aerospace Education Program annually touches more than 1,800 educators, more than 200,000 youths – cadets and others in classrooms across America – teaching multidisciplinary aviation concepts that emphasize aviation's connection to history, math, science, government and economics; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 80th anniversary of the Civil Air Patrol. We commend CAP for its "80 years of Missions for America" and its outstanding cadet and aerospace programs, which annually touch the lives and ensure the safety of thousands of American citizens.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Puri, Aiyash, Bezotte, Breen, Haadisma, Kahle, Morse, Rogers, Sneller, Sowerby, Steenland, Thanedar and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 200.

A resolution to declare December 1-7, 2021, as Crohn's Disease and Ulcerative Colitis Awareness Week in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis are inflammatory bowel diseases that cause chronic inflammation and damage in the gastrointestinal tract and impair the ability of the affected organs to function properly. The most common symptoms of these two diseases are persistent diarrhea, abdominal pain, rectal bleeding, weight loss, and fatigue; and

Whereas, Individuals with inflammatory bowel disease (IBD) often go through periods of remission with few or no symptoms, alternating with periods of flare-ups when the disease is active and presenting symptoms; and

Whereas, The exact cause of these diseases is not entirely understood, but they do involve a complex interaction between genes, the immune system and environmental factors; and

Whereas, Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis affect millions of adults and children in the United States. These diseases are most often diagnosed in adolescence and early adulthood between 15 and 35 years of age. The conditions are chronic and can significantly affect a patient's quality of life; and

Whereas, Cases of inflammatory bowel diseases are on the rise in the United States. The annual financial burden of inflammatory bowel diseases in the United States is estimated to be between $14.6 and $31.6 billion. The costs of care for IBD have increased in the last 5 years and are driven by specific therapeutics and disease features; and

Whereas, Compared with non-IBD controls, IBD patients are increasingly incurring higher costs associated with health care utilization, out-of-pocket expenditures, and workplace productivity losses; and

Whereas, There is no cure for Crohn's disease or ulcerative colitis, only medications and treatments that aim to suppress inflammation, achieve and maintain remission and improve overall quality of life; and

Whereas, Even with treatment, 23 to 45% of people with ulcerative colitis require surgery after 30 years with the disease, and approximately 75% of people with Crohn's disease eventually require surgery; and

Whereas, The Crohn's and Colitis Foundation sponsors cutting-edge research to find a cure and works diligently to improve the quality of life of children and adults affected by these diseases through a wide range of educational programs and support services for both patients and health care professionals; and

Whereas, "Crohn's Disease and Ulcerative Colitis Awareness Week" increases public awareness of these diseases, acknowledges the medical and financial impact these diseases have on affected individuals and their families and promotes initiatives to improve treatments and find a cure for Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare December 1-7, 2021, as Crohn’s Disease and Ulcerative Colitis Awareness Week in the state of Michigan. We acknowledge individuals suffering from these diseases and their desire for a cure.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
The resolution was adopted.

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

My vote is in no way a reflection of my belief in the importance of financial literacy, I just don’t believe it has to be done at the expense of foreign language requirements. Students sharpen their minds as they learn how to read, speak and write in a new language. Studies show there are many cognitive benefits to learning a language, such as increased memory, stronger mental agility, enhanced decision making, and improved multi-tasking skills. Financial literacy is critical and I will continue to work to ensure students receive this financial education in Michigan.”

Messages from the Governor

The following veto message from the Governor was received and read:

Executive Office, Lansing, November 30, 2021

Michigan House of Representatives
State Capitol Building
Lansing, MI 48909-7514

Representatives,

Today, I am returning Enrolled House Bill 4305 without my approval.

From day 1, I have said that state government must be open, transparent, and accountable to taxpayers. An accountable state government starts with an accountable campaign finance system, and the Michigan Campaign Finance Act already lacks key protections that would shine a light on the dark money in our elections.

HB 4305 changes reporting requirements for fundraising events without strengthening campaign finance laws in Michigan one iota. For that reason, I am vetoing it.

I would be delighted to consider bipartisan legislation that:

- Ends the “express advocacy” reporting exception by creating a threshold definition for electioneering in the Michigan Campaign Finance Act;
- Bans foreign money in Michigan elections, as state law only bars it from super PACs; and,
- Tightens LLC reporting requirements to ensure that no secret or foreign money enters our elections.

Respectfully,
Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The question being on the passage of the bill, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding, Rep. Frederick moved that the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Elections and Ethics.

The motion prevailed.

The following veto message from the Governor was received and read:

Executive Office, Lansing, November 30, 2021

Michigan House of Representatives
State Capitol Building
Lansing, MI 48909-7514

Representatives,

Today, I am returning Enrolled House Bill 5259 without my approval.

Every two years, the Supreme Court Administrative Office produces the Judicial Resources Recommendation, which provides guidance on court capacity. The 2019 report identified five counties that require new judicial resources, including Wayne County and Kent County, which each require three additional judges.

HB 5259 would add a fourth circuit judge for Ottawa County. This legislation has arrived on my desk alone – unaccompanied by bills that would fill judicial needs in other parts of the state. Because HB 5259 does not satisfy the need for new judges to be added in a way that reflects the state’s geographic and demographic balance, I am vetoing it.

Nevertheless, I would be delighted to support legislation that accords with both the Judicial Resources Recommendation and the need for geographic and demographic balance in distribution of new judges. Senate Bill 694, sponsored by Sen. Bumstead (R-Newaygo), is just one example of legislation that aims to allow for additional judges in a more equitable way.

Respectfully,
Gretchen Whitmer
Governor

The question being on the passage of the bill, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding, Rep. Frederick moved that the bill be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Frederick moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of
Motions and Resolutions

Rep. Frederick moved that when the House adjourns today it stand adjourned until Thursday, December 2, at 10:00 a.m.
The motion prevailed.
