Senator Marshall Bullock II of the 4th District offered the following invocation:

Father, we give thanks for the state of Michigan and its government. We hold up in prayer before You the men and women of this chamber who are in positions of authority. We pray and intercede for the Senators and staff assembled here. We pray that Your Spirit rests upon us all.

Lord, we are in need of a healing. We believe that Your skillful and godly wisdom and will has entered into our knowledge and hearts and it will be pleasant to us. Lord, allow us to disagree—and we will disagree—and not become enemies. Touch our tongues with civility and not speak things so demonizing. Give us the discretion to do that which is right and just and that understanding keeps us—delivers us—from the way of evil.

Lord, we ask that You would allow our hearts and ears to be attentive to Your godly counsel and that we do that which is right in Your sight. We believe You cause us to be men and women of integrity and that we are obedient concerning this body, and that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and honesty. We pray that the upright shall dwell in our government.

Your word declares that blessed is the nation whose god is the Lord. We receive Your blessing. Lord, You are our refuge and stronghold in times of trouble. So we declare with our mouths that Your people dwell safely in this land and we prosper abundantly. We are more than conquerors through Christ. It is written in the Bible that the heart of the king is in the hand of the Lord and You turn it whichever way You desire. We believe the hearts of our leaders, this chamber, and our partnering entities are in Your hands and that our decisions are divinely directed of the Lord.

We give thanks unto You that You have given us this opportunity to do great and mighty works and we shall continue to give Your name all the praise, honor, and glory. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

The motion prevailed, and the President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, designated Senator Moss as Chairperson.

After some time spent therein, the Committee arose; and the President pro tempore, Senator Nesbitt, having resumed the Chair, the Committee reported back to the Senate, favorably and without amendment, the following bills:

House Bill No. 4674, entitled

A bill to amend 1976 PA 223, entitled “An act to create an agency concerned with crime victim services; to prescribe its powers and duties; to provide compensation to certain victims of crimes; to provide for the promulgation of rules; and to provide for penalties,” by amending sections 1, 4, 9, 11, and 15 (MCL 18.351, 18.354, 18.359, 18.361, and 18.365), sections 1, 9, and 15 as amended by 1996 PA 519, section 4 as amended by 2008 PA 390, and section 11 as amended by 2010 PA 282, and by adding section 16a.

House Bill No. 4675, entitled

A bill to amend 1976 PA 223, entitled “An act to create an agency concerned with crime victim services; to prescribe its powers and duties; to provide compensation to certain victims of crimes; to provide for the promulgation of rules; and to provide for penalties,” by amending sections 5, 10, and 12 (MCL 18.355, 18.360, and 18.362), sections 5 and 10 as amended by 2008 PA 390, and section 12 as amended by 1996 PA 519, and by adding section 16a.

The bills were placed on the order of Third Reading of Bills.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of Resolutions

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 26.

A concurrent resolution offered as a memorial for Dale Kildee, former member of the Michigan House of Representatives, the Michigan Senate, and the United States House of Representatives.

(For text of resolution, see Senate Journal No. 39, p. 523.)

The House of Representatives has adopted the concurrent resolution.

The concurrent resolution was referred to the Secretary for record.

Senators Schmidt, Moss, Zorn, Hollier, Wozniak, Bullock, Bizon, Horn, MacDonald, Runestad, Wojno, Daley, VanderWall, Theis, Irwin, McMorro, Polehanki, Victory, Bayer, Brinks, McCann, Geiss, Alexander, Ananich, Hertel, Chang, Nesbitt and LaSata offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 133.

A resolution to recognize April 28, 2022, as Suits And Sneakers® Day.

Whereas, The Coaches vs. Cancer program is a nationwide collaboration between the American Cancer Society and the National Association of Basketball Coaches, leveraging the personal experiences, community leadership, and professional excellence of coaches nationwide to increase cancer awareness and promote healthy living through year-round awareness efforts, fundraising activities, and advocacy programs; and

Whereas, The American Cancer Society saves lives and creates a world with more birthdays by helping people stay well, get well, find cures, and fight back in partnership with its nonpartisan advocacy affiliate, the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network; and

Whereas, More than 62,150 Michiganders will be newly diagnosed with cancer in 2022; and

Whereas, Cancer patients face countless challenges associated with their diagnoses including physical, emotional, financial, and day-to-day challenges; and

Whereas, Since 1993, coaches and their supporters have raised more than $135 million for the American Cancer Society to help make their services and programs available to those who need them the most; and

Whereas, During January 24-30, 2022, the Coaches vs. Cancer Suits And Sneakers® nationwide effort united coaches across the country to wear sneakers with their game attire while coaching games. Similarly, it also encouraged lawmakers and others to wear suits and sneakers to raise awareness about the fight against cancer, share the importance of nutrition and physical activity in reducing one’s cancer risk, and promote the American Cancer Society as a resource for help and support; and

Whereas, Michigan coaches joined fellow coaches nationwide, as well as thousands of volunteers for the American Cancer Society and the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network, to advocate on behalf of cancer patients, survivors, and caregivers so that one day cancer will be eliminated as a major public health issue; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body designate April 28, 2022, as Suits And Sneakers® Day; and be it further

Resolved, That we urge all Michiganders to use this day as an opportunity to educate themselves about cancer, take proactive steps to reduce their risks, and get appropriate screenings.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Lauwers moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senator Santana was named co-sponsor of the resolution.

Senator Schmidt asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Schmidt's statement is as follows:

As co-chairs of the bipartisan and bicameral cancer caucus, it is an honor to offer Senate Resolution No. 133 recognizing today, April 28, as Suits And Sneakers® Day. More than 62,500 Michiganders will be newly diagnosed with cancer in 2022. The Coaches vs. Cancer Suits and Sneakers is a nationwide awareness effort aimed at uniting coaches across the country to wear sneakers with their game attire while coaching games.

Today, lawmakers and others are encouraged to wear their suits and sneakers to raise awareness about the fight against childhood cancer, share the importance of nutrition and physical activity in reducing one's cancer risk, and to promote the American Cancer Society as a resource for help and support. Since 1993, coaches and their supporters have raised more than $135 million for the American Cancer Society to help make the American Cancer Society's services and programs available to those who need them the most.

Thank you to all my colleagues for joining me to raise awareness for an issue that affects way too many Michiganders each year. On behalf of Senator Moss and myself, we'll do a photograph after session so hopefully you all wore your best sneakers—I'm wearing some really bad Stan Smiths but I think it'll be OK for the picture.

Senators VanderWall, Bumstead, LaSata and Johnson offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 134.

A resolution to designate May 2022 as Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month.

Whereas, Michigan has 255,832 registered motorcycles and 542,809 individuals who have operator licenses with a motorcycle endorsement; and

Whereas, The safe operation of a motorcycle requires the use of special skills developed through a combination of training and expertise, the use of good judgment, and a thorough knowledge of traffic laws and licensing requirements; and

Whereas, The use of proper protective riding apparel is an important part of a motorcycle operator's responsibility; and

Whereas, The advocacy of motorcycle safety awareness is a cooperative effort to decrease the number of injuries and fatalities associated with motorcycling; and

Whereas, The promotion of motorcycle rider education programs available through the Michigan Department of State, including recommendations that motorcycle operators wear the proper gear, in addition to driving their vehicles defensively and cautiously, is intended to reduce the number of crashes; and

Whereas, The emergence of spring is synonymous with the return of motorcycle enthusiasts to our roadways. Throughout Michigan, motorcyclists are on the cutting edge of supporting the wise and sensible use of this enjoyable mode of travel; and

Whereas, Indeed, the disproportionate number of motorcycle fatalities make it vitally important to encourage motorcyclists to understand and practice the highest degree of safety. It is also important to remind other drivers that highway safety is beneficial to all parties traveling on public roadways; and

Whereas, Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month encourages motorcycle operators to wear proper protective riding attire, maintain their motorcycles using safety and maintenance checks found in the owner's manual, abide by the laws of the road, and implement operating techniques that provide an additional standard of safety; and

Whereas, Car and truck drivers are informed of the fact that motorcyclists are resuming their travels on our public roadways and all are advised to be exceptionally vigilant and watchful when approaching or passing a motorcycle; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body designate May 2022 as Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month. We encourage all of Michigan's citizens to participate in the aims and goals of this safety effort.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Lauwers moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Bayer, Chang, Geiss, Santana and Wojno were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senators Santana, Wojno, Brinks, Bayer, McMorro, Polehanki, Hollier, Bullock, Outman, Huizenga, Nesbitt, Theis, Barrett, VanderWall, Runestad, Chang and Schmidt offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 135.

A resolution to recognize April 28, 2022, as Survivors Speak Michigan Day, a part of National Crime Victims Rights' Week.

Whereas, Survivors Speak Michigan is organized by Crime Survivors for Safety and Justice and the Alliance for Safety and Justice; and

Whereas, Crime and violence can harm any individual and community, regardless of age, national origin, race, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, immigration, or economic status; and

Whereas, Most crime survivors do not receive the help they need; and

Whereas, Only eight percent of all victims of violence receive direct assistance from a victim service agency. This drops to four percent when the crime is unreported, which is the case for more than half of all violent crimes; and

Whereas, Through their experiences, crime survivors are uniquely qualified to provide essential input and influence in discussions of public safety and criminal justice policy; and

Whereas, Michigan must address the immediate safety concerns facing families and invest in a long-term, comprehensive plan to address root causes of violence; and

Whereas, The voices and experiences of survivors are too often ignored, leading to poor policy and justice system decisions that fail to meet the needs of survivors or stop the cycle of crime; and

Whereas, Our state must support trauma recovery centers that play a critical role and resource for survivors impacted by crime; and

Whereas, Crime survivors understand existing gaps to recovery and how to bridge them; and

Whereas, Survivors want a system of justice and safety that prioritizes prevention, rehabilitation, and trauma recovery; and

Whereas, Michigan needs to invest in programs that provide assistance to crime victims and their families to effectively deal with the inherent trauma and residual effects of violence; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body recognize April 28, 2022, as Survivors Speak Michigan Day, a part of National Crime Victims Rights' Week; and be it further

Resolved, That we commend the survivors and advocates of Survivors Speak Michigan for their work to stop violence and help those impacted by it.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Lauwers moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senator Geiss was named co-sponsor of the resolution.

Senator Santana asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Santana's statement is as follows:

Today I rise to recognize April 28 as Survivors Speak Michigan Day, as a part of National Crime Victims Rights' Week. Hundreds of survivors have come to the Capitol from all over Michigan. The voices and experiences of survivors have too often been ignored, leading to poor policy and justice system decisions that fail to meet the needs of survivors or stop the cycle of crime. Crime and violence can leave harm on any individual and community, regardless of age, national origin, race, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, immigration, or economic status. Victims of crime are your neighbors, your family, it's also your co-workers, and your friends. Only eight percent of all victims of violence receive direct assistance from a victim's service agency. This drops to four percent when the crime is unreported, which is the case for more than half of all violent crimes. Crime survivors want a system of justice and safety that prioritizes prevention, rehabilitation, and trauma recovery. Michigan must address immediate safety concerns facing families and invest in a long-term comprehensive plan to address the root causes of violence. I commend all the survivors who have joined us here today and thank them from the bottom of my heart and all of my colleagues' as well to share their stories.

Senators Bayer, Hollier, Wojno, McCann, Bullock, Chang, Polehanki, Brinks, Geiss, Hertel, Santana and Schmidt offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 136.

A resolution to recognize May 2022 as Public Service Recognition Month.

Whereas, Public servants, who work to keep our nation running, assist Americans at the federal, state, county, and city levels every single day; and

Whereas, Our public employees must uphold the United States constitution and take an oath of office, just like our elected officials in public office do; and

Whereas, Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, corrections officers, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals, and several others risk their lives each day in service to the people of Michigan, the United States, and around the world; and

Whereas, Public servants include, but are not limited to, state employees, teachers, doctors, scientists, paraprofessionals, technicians, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, road commission crews, computer technicians, social workers, librarians and those in countless other occupations. Day in and day out, they provide the diverse services people demand and expect from their government with both efficiency and integrity; and

Whereas, These men and women dedicate themselves to serving the public, often without recognition or acknowledgment of their efforts; and

Whereas, During the COVID-19 pandemic, many public servants had and continue to step up to the sacrifice and challenge necessary to be on the frontlines to ensure the people's safety, convenience, and well-being; and

Whereas, Without public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials; and

Whereas, Though the work and efforts of public servants are specially honored this week, Michigan remains grateful each and every day; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body recognize May 2022 as Public Service Recognition Month.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations, Senator Lauwers moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senator Bayer asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Bayer's statement is as follows:

I rise today to ask for your support of my resolution to designate May 2022 as Public Service Recognition Month. This resolution would honor the people who serve our nation every day—federal, state, county, local, and tribal governmental employees. Our service employees are critical front-line workers—teachers, doctors, firefighters, police officers, nurses, safety inspectors, military personnel, road crews, state employees, and the list goes on and on. Day in and day out, these men and women dedicate themselves to serving the public, providing the services we depend on every day, and so often we take them for granted. We forget to recognize or acknowledge their efforts. So, today we rise to thank them. We shouldn't forget that without public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy like ours because we regularly change our leaders and elected officials. In the past, we have only recognized Public Service Week but choosing to do for a month seems fitting given how many professionals fall under the scope of public service and how much we have asked of these individuals as we went through this pandemic. I ask for your support of this resolution. It's a small way for us to especially honor our public servants this month and show that we are grateful now and every day for all they provide.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of

Statements

Senator Moss asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Moss’ statement is as follows:

The Michigan Senate yesterday adopted my resolution to declare today as Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day, which is commemorated by Jewish people in the state of Michigan, across the country and around the world. In years past, we have gathered in the Capitol Rotunda for a meaningful program, joined with Holocaust survivors who call our state home, to light candles on a menorah to honor the memories of the 6 million Jews and millions more who perished.

In the last few years however, due to the pandemic, we have not been in session during Yom HaShoah to adopt this resolution. And all of us lived through an incredibly difficult period of time—both physically and emotionally—but the day that I felt the first glimmer of hope and light during the pandemic was in January of 2021, when Oakland County Health Division in partnership with Jewish Family Services administered some of the earliest COVID-19 vaccination doses to 170 survivors of the Holocaust. One of the earliest recipients was 102-year-old Zoltan Rubin, who said, “God is trying to show people that they have to believe in something. People should realize they are living on borrowed time—they’re not going to be here forever.” We’re living on borrowed time and we won’t be here forever. That is the most compelling reason to listen to Holocaust survivors while they are here as the direct witnesses to the worst horror in human history.

The Holocaust Memorial Center is in my district in Farmington Hills, and we delivered a state grant and supported the request of a federal grant to continue its educational programming, making it more accessible and participatory. The center provides training and resources for educators and provides opportunities for schools to utilize its services.

One of the center’s longtime educators and lecturers to visitors and students is Edith Maniker. Edith and I first met more than a decade ago when I knocked on her door in Southfield during a campaign. She and her family endured Kristallnacht in 1938 Germany, the night Nazis shattered windows and burned synagogues and Jewish-owned businesses. She said, “I was seven years old and I’ll never be able to get that picture out of my mind, how this great big bonfire was burning and these men in uniforms were singing and dancing around it.” Not long after, she became a child survivor of Kindertransport, as Edith’s parents sent her and her sister to the UK in an operation to evacuate Jewish children from Nazi-occupied areas of Europe. She never saw her parents again.

“It was a final goodbye,” she said. “I didn’t know it. My mother had been very protective and she said ‘have a wonderful time, you’re going to go to this place called England, you’ll have vacation and we’ll see you in a couple of weeks.’” Her father died during the Nazi death march, and she never found out what happened to her mother. Edith came to Detroit at the end of the war to live with an aunt and uncle and eventually started a family of her own. I actually just spoke to Edith this morning on the drive in and she gives everyone her regards.

In 2016, Edith stood next to me—in fact held my hand—at the Holocaust Center as Governor Snyder signed into law legislation requiring instruction in Michigan public school curriculum on genocide education, including the Holocaust and the Armenian Genocide. That bill passed 105 to 1 in the House and 35 to 3 in the Senate because this Legislature recognized that not everyone in the state of Michigan will have the opportunity to hear directly from survivors like Edith, and required our students to learn in the classroom—factually and comprehensively—about the past atrocities. We are providing the most impactful tools to ensure that they are not repeated and hoping to create a more tolerant society that respects each other’s differences.

Surely, these should be our continued shared goals. On Sunday, I will bring our adopted Senate Resolution No. 132 to the Holocaust Center from a Yom HaShoah program where we will be reunited with the survivors after a long absence and let them know that the Michigan Senate says, Never again.
