Rep. Christine Morse, from the 40th District, offered the following invocation:

“This is an invocation attributed to County Commissioner David Williamson of Osceola County, Florida edited as needed.

Through the millennia we as humans have learned the best way to govern the people is for the people to govern themselves. Today, in this tradition, we travel from our homes and businesses across the state; citizens, staff, and those elected converge on this chamber to work as one community united and indivisible by every measure. Each of us arrives as individuals with unique ideas and experiences but all with a need or, in the spirit of goodwill, to fulfill the needs of others.

Citizens require assistance and offer their concerns and we are ever grateful for their interest and for their trust in the process. Staff provides invaluable expertise in their particular field and we truly appreciate their continued service. Elected officials listen, debate, and choose the path forward to us all out of a sincere desire to serve and honor the people of the state of Michigan while shaping its future.

When we leave this chamber this evening, let us carry with us this same spirit of service and goodwill tomorrow and every day that follows.

This is how we assemble to serve and govern ourselves.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Rep. Aiyash moved that Rep. Bezotte be excused from today’s session. The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
Rep. Aiyash moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Lightner, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

This allows a fee carveout to continue for the City of Detroit. Marriage fees should be the same in the entire state.”

Rep. Bollin, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I support raising the minimum age of consent to 18 but cannot support allowing one county to charge a different fee than other counties and using a population threshold from 2010. The $20 fee charged by a county is lowered from 2 million to 1.5 million as per the 2010 census, which would allow Wayne County to change the fee.”

House Bill No. 4295, entitled

A bill to amend 1897 PA 180, entitled “An act to provide for the issuance of marriage licenses and certificates without publicity in certain cases; and to provide criminal and civil penalties for violation of this act,” by amending section 1 (MCL 551.201), as amended by 1983 PA 199.
