Senator Sarah Anthony of the 21st District offered the following invocation:

O eternal God, out of whose absolute power and infinite intelligence the whole universe has come into being, we humbly confess that we have not loved Thee with our hearts, our souls, and our minds and that we have not loved our neighbors as Christ loved us. We have all too often lived by our own selfish impulses rather than by the life of sacrificial love as revealed by Christ. We often give in order to receive. We love our friends and hate our enemies. We go the first mile but dare not travel the second. We forgive but dare not forget.

And so as we look within ourselves we are confronted with the appalling fact that the history of our lives is the history of an eternal revolt against You. But, O God, have mercy upon us. Forgive us for what we could have been but failed to be. Give us the intelligence to know Your will. Give us the courage to do Your will. Give us the devotion to love Thy will.

In the name and spirit of Jesus we pray. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Moss, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senator Brinks' statement is as follows:

I rise with the bittersweet announcement that Dan Dunning will be departing from our central staff. Dan is a digital designer and website specialist who has been with the Senate Democrats for seven years. He designed and developed our beautiful user-friendly websites which are key tools in our constituent engagement, and by all accounts he has been a joy to work with.

When a staff member leaves for a new opportunity, I ask their co-workers to share a little bit about what it was like working with them. The responses we received about Dan were, well, more interesting than most. I wanted to share a few of those with you. One of his colleagues said, He adopted my sister's cat. Another, He needed golf clubs so I sold him my backup set, but then he realized that he never golfs so I bought them back—except for the 9-iron he lost the one time he went. Another colleague said, He really enjoyed lunch. Another, He drew little cartoons on Post-it notes and left them on people's desks—and yes, the cartoons were very fun. I also heard, He was always willing to make the time to brainstorm. He went above and beyond to get you the graphics you needed, even when his plate was full. He is exceptionally talented and he raised our spirits.

Dan, thank you for seven years of raising spirits and using your skills to serve the people of Michigan. We wish you the best of luck in your next endeavor. Please join me in giving Dan a warm send-off.
