Senate Bill 978 (as introduced 8-15-24)
Sponsor: Senator Joseph Bellino, Jr.
Committee: Veterans and Emergency Services

(Senate-passed version)

Date Completed: 9-17-24

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Michigan Memorial Highway Act to designate the portion of Highway M-50 in Monroe County beginning at the intersection with South Raisinville Road and extending east to the intersection with Herr Road as the "Animal Control Officer Darrian Young Memorial Highway".

Proposed MCL 240.1006d

BACKGROUND

Darrian Young was born in Monroe, Michigan on April 29, 1996. She was employed as a Monroe County Animal Control Officer at the Monroe County Sheriff's Office for one year. Around 8 AM on June 4, 2020, Animal Control Officer Young was driving an Animal Control Division vehicle and was struck by a drunk driver going 80 mph at an intersection. Animal Control Officer Young died as a result of the crash.
