Rev. Marcus Shammami, Parochial Vicar of Saint Thomas Chaldean Catholic Church in West Bloomfield, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty and merciful God,

We give thanks to You, loving God, for the gift of life. We gather before You today as representatives of our communities throughout Michigan, Seeking Your wisdom and Your guidance in all of our deliberations.

We ask for Your Holy Spirit to enlighten our hearts and our minds. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness. So that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, One and equal in dignity, Especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of the unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race, creed, or religion.

Lord, grant us the courage to uphold truth and the strength to act with compassion. May Your grace inspire us to build bridges of understanding and to foster a spirit of unity amongst diversity.

Lord, we ask that You bless and protect our country and the great state of Michigan.

Bless the members of this assembly as they begin on the important work that faces them and help them to make wise decisions that will benefit our families and communities for generations to come.

May Your blessing, O Lord, be with us all on this day and every day, and may all we do be done for Your greater glory and honor.

We ask all this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.”

The Speaker called the Speaker Pro Tempore to the Chair.

Rep. Wozniak offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 289.

A resolution to declare June 27, 2024, as Public Employee Freedom Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The Supreme Court of the United States issued its landmark decision in JANUS v. AFSCME on June 27, 2018, affirming the constitutional rights of public sector employees regarding union membership and dues; and

Whereas, The principles of free speech and freedom of association guaranteed by the First Amendment ensure that public sector employees have the right to make decisions that are in their best interest; and

Whereas, Freedom in decision making empowers public sector workers by granting them the ability to make individual choices regarding their representation, fostering a climate of transparency and accountability within public sector unions; and

Whereas, Safeguarding employee choices in representation protects jobs and has contributed to a more equitable workplace environment by safeguarding the rights of dissenting employees and protecting their freedom from compelled political speech; and

Whereas, Michigan had the foresight to ensure workplace freedom for public sector employees six years before the JANUS decision, further demonstrating Michigan's unwavering dedication to the principles of fairness and competition in employment; and

Whereas, The principles articulated in the JANUS decision continue to resonate as a cornerstone of constitutional jurisprudence, serving as a bulwark against coercion and ensuring the protection of individual liberties; and

Whereas, June 27th marks the sixth anniversary of the JANUS court decision as it continues to have a profound impact on safeguarding the constitutional rights of public sector employees across the United States; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare June 27, 2024, as Public Employee Freedom Day in the state of Michigan.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Explanation of “No” Votes

Rep. Smit, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of House Bill No. 5803, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I won’t support a plan that allows the governor to gamble with the teacher pension system. Michigan’s public school teachers’ retirement fund, commonly known as MPSERS, is currently underfunded by more than $34 billion. This plan would take away more than $600 million from MPSERS to bankroll more unnecessary government spending. We aren’t going to attract or keep our hardworking teachers by playing around with retirement benefits that were promised to them. By voting no, I’m standing up for Michigan taxpayers, our teachers, and their hard-earned benefits.”
