Pastor Josh Combs, Lead Pastor of The River Church in Goodrich, offered the following invocation:

“Father,

Thank You for each of these men and women serving our state today. I ask that You would bless them with great wisdom, discernment, and understanding. God, in Your word You declare that You have placed each of them in these roles, for a specific time and season. In their time here, I pray that each of them would work together to advance justice and righteousness. I pray they would care deeply for the poor, the widow, the orphan, and the immigrant.

I ask Your blessing on each of them, on their families, spouses, children, and grandchildren. I pray for their safety and prosperity. For those who are sick, please heal them. For those who are grieving, please comfort them.

I pray for their staff who work so tirelessly. I pray for strength and endurance for them. I pray that we would be a people who honors not just those who serve in the public eye, but those who so faithfully and dutifully serve in quiet, unseen roles.

I do ask Lord that You would bless our state and our country. Thank You for the beauty of Michigan, whose lakes, forests, dunes, and rivers truly do declare Your glory.

Thank You Lord for Your glory in creation and Your glory in the gospel. Your love for the whole world demonstrated in Jesus’s death and resurrection. I pray that each person here today feels and knows Your love.

Thank You for hearing our prayers. In Christ’s name, Amen.”

Rep. Fitzgerald moved that Reps. Edwards and Whitsett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. BeGole moved that Rep. Posthumus be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. MacDonell, Glanville, Paiz, Rogers, Snyder, Witwer and Wooden offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 42.

A resolution to declare March 2025 as Disability Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Disability Awareness Month serves as a time to recognize and promote the rights, contributions, and achievements of individuals with disabilities in Michigan; and

Whereas, According to the U.S. Census Bureau, millions of Americans, including a significant number of Michigan residents, live with disabilities that impact their daily lives, requiring increased awareness, accessibility, and advocacy; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan is committed to fostering an inclusive society that provides equal opportunities for individuals with disabilities in employment, education, healthcare, and community participation; and

Whereas, Michigan recognizes the importance of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) a in advancing accessibility, independence, and full participation for people with disabilities; and

Whereas, Disability Awareness Month is an opportunity to educate the public on the barriers faced by individuals with; and

Whereas, This month also serves as a time to celebrate the invaluable contributions of individuals with disabilities to Michigan’s workforce, culture, and communities; and

Whereas, Michigan acknowledges the organizations, advocates, and caregivers who work tirelessly to support and empower individuals with disabilities, ensuring that their voices are heard and their rights are upheld; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of the Michigan House of Representatives declare March 2025 as Disability Awareness Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That we encourage all citizens, businesses, and institutions to be more accessible for individuals with disabilities, ensuring that Michigan continues to be a leader in disability rights and advocacy.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Conlin, Hoskins, McFall, Koleszar, Martus, Hope, MacDonell, Pohutsky, Weiss, Breen, Dievendorf, Glanville, Morgan, Miller, Grant, Byrnes, Andrews, Tsernoglou, Mentzer, Brixie, Wooden, Scott, Rheingans, Arbit, Skaggs, Foreman, Paiz, Rogers, Snyder and Witwer offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 43.

A resolution to support the Obergefell decision and to reaffirm the definition of marriage as put forth by the founding principles including the separation of church and state.

Whereas, The decision by the Supreme Court of the United States in Obergefell v. Hodges upholds the Constitution of the United States and the principles upon which our nation is established. Liberty has long been understood as individual freedom from governmental action, not as a right to a particular governmental entitlement. Obergefell's reaffirmation of the original meaning of liberty reinforces other aspects of our constitutional order that protect liberty, including religious liberty; and

Whereas, When the Framers proclaimed in the Declaration of Independence that "all men are created equal" and "endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights," they referred to a vision of mankind in which all humans are created in the image of God and, therefore, have inherent worth. Obergefell celebrates this vision by reaffirming that individual rights are protected from the state; and

Whereas, While marriage has historically been regulated by states, the Supreme Court's ruling in Obergefell rightfully affirms that state laws must align with constitutional guarantees of equality and due process, ensuring that no state may infringe upon the fundamental right to marry. In particular, Article I, Section 25 of the Constitution of the State of Michigan of 1963, which states "the union of one man and one woman in marriage shall be the only agreement recognized as a marriage" was determined to be in direct conflict with the constitutional principles upheld in Obergefell; and

Whereas, Marriage, an institution that has remained a critical aspect of society for thousands of years, has been defined through time by some people of varying cultures and faiths as a union between one man and one woman. Obergefell wisely rejected this narrow, historical definition of marriage, instead choosing to rely on founding principles of the Equal Protection and Due Process clauses within the Constitution of the United States and our nation's legal and cultural precedents; and

Whereas, Obergefell relies on the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States as a font of substantive rights, a doctrine that reinforces the full meaning of the Constitution and preserves the power given by the people, for the people, through which all government authority is established. As the Fourteenth Amendment has no explicit language prohibiting a constitutional right to marriage, Obergefell aligns with the principle of individual liberty by ensuring that marriage rights are protected under the Fourteenth Amendment; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we support the Obergefell decision and we reaffirm the definition of marriage as put forth by the founding principles including the separation of church and state; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Speaker of the Michigan House of Representatives, Minority Leader of the Michigan House of Representatives, and the Governor.

The resolution was referred to Committee on Government Operations.

Rep. BeGole moved that House Committees be given leave to meet during the balance of today's session. The motion prevailed.
