Nicole Lee, National Day of Prayer Pastor of Community Christian Church in Saginaw Township, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty God...

by Whose great power & outstretched arm the earth was made (Jeremiah 27:5), from one man You made all the nations—that they should inhabit the whole earth. And, because You mark out each person’s appointed time in history, I thank You for each person You have placed here to serve the people of Michigan. (Acts 17:26)

I ask first, that You will direct their hearts to Jesus—the only One given to mankind through Whom we must be saved (Acts 4:12). Enable them to know how deeply they are loved by the God Who knew them before they were born (Psalm 139:16). Grant them saving faith enabling them to become part of the amazing Story You have been writing since before time began.

As I pray for them today, I ask You to raise up others who will bring their needs to Your throne in the days to come—that they might receive grace to help in their time of need (Hebrews 4:16). Bless them with thriving relationships with their families & strong connections with their communities. And, in these days of inflamed passions & overblown rhetoric, protect them from harm.

I also ask You to align their understanding of government with Your Word. Give them hearts that seek wisdom, ears able to hear Your voice & illuminated minds able to understand Your precepts. Refresh those working hard to form righteous government in Michigan. Give them courage and the joy that comes from loving righteousness & hating wickedness (Hebrews 1:9).

Holy Spirit, bring the fear of God upon those making decisions—for You have set a day when You will judge our actions & our words (Acts 17:31). Lead them to make only noble plans that by noble deeds they will stand (Isaiah 32:8).

LORD, what I pray for this chamber, I pray also for our state. Bring an end to the moral & cultural civil war that has embittered & prevented us from seeking Your purposes for Michigan. Send revival, so we can turn to You wholeheartedly, and enable You to truly bless Michigan. Make this ‘pleasant peninsula’ a place where—when people look around—they see You.

In the name of Christ Jesus the LORD, I pray. Amen.”

Rep. Fitzgerald moved that Reps. Brenda Carter, Grant, Weiss and Whitsett be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Rep. Posthumus moved that Rep. Kuhn be excused from today’s session.

The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Woolford, DeBoyer, Wozniak, Schmaltz, Schuette, Robinson, Johnsen, Roth, Bollin, Pavlov, Thompson, Kelly, Meerman, Fox, Bruck, Linting, VanderWall, Hoadley, Alexander, Tyrone Carter, Fitzgerald, Glanville, Jaime Greene, Rogers and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 70.

A resolution to declare April 2025 as Gold Star Spouses Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The term Gold Star dates back to World War I, when families displayed service flags bearing a blue star for each active-duty military member, and gold stars were used to honor those who made the ultimate sacrifice; and

Whereas, Gold Star Spouses Month honors the surviving husbands and wives of members of the United States Armed Forces who lost their lives in service to our nation; and

Whereas, Gold Star spouses bear unimaginable loss with profound strength, resilience, and dignity, and their sacrifices deserve lasting recognition and gratitude; and

Whereas, The unwavering devotion and courage of Gold Star spouses and their families reflect the very best of American values and the enduring cost of freedom; and

Whereas, Communities across Michigan, alongside veterans organizations and support networks, continue to offer care, remembrance, and connection to Gold Star families, ensuring that their loved ones’ legacies are never forgotten; and

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to recognize and honor the patriotism, pain, and perseverance of Gold Star spouses; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 2025 as Gold Star Spouses Month in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That we honor and remember the lives of the fallen service members whose sacrifice is etched into the heart of this nation and express our deepest gratitude to the spouses who carry their memory forward with courage, grace, and enduring love.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Weiss, Koleszar, Brenda Carter, Wilson, McFall, Tsernoglou, Pohutsky, Tyrone Carter, Martus, Byrnes, Andrews, Mentzer, Hope, O'Neal, Neeley, McKinney, Wegela, Fitzgerald, Glanville, Paiz, Rogers, Xiong and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 71.

A resolution to declare April 28, 2025, as Workers Memorial Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On April 28th, 1971, the Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) went into effect, promising every worker the right to safe employment; and

Whereas, Every year on April 28th, communities and worksites around the world honor friends, family members, and colleagues who have been killed or injured on the job; and

Whereas, The Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Administration (MIOSHA) reported 112 “covered” workplace fatalities between 2022 and 2024—each of these fatalities represents a worker who did not return home from their workday; and

Whereas, National fatality statistics compiled by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, which include transportation accidents, heart attacks, and other causes not “covered” by MIOSHA, recorded over 16,000 workplace deaths between 2021 and 2023; and

Whereas, While definitions may differ, each of these numbers represents a life lost and underscores the critical importance of workplace safety and health standards; and

Whereas, It is appropriate to honor the memory of the courageous and dedicated members of Michigan’s labor force who have been injured, disabled, or died as a result of workplace accidents; and

Whereas, We remember those who have died in workplace catastrophes, suffered occupational diseases, or been injured due to unsafe working conditions; and

Whereas, Recognition of the integrity of Michigan’s workforce and its contributions to the economic growth of our state is vital; and

Whereas, The Michigan House of Representatives wishes to pay tribute to the workers who have died, been injured, or disabled in workplace accidents. We call for continued vigilance and action to prevent future tragedies and protect Michigan’s valued labor force; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 28, 2025, as Workers Memorial Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Rep. Tisdell offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 72.

A resolution to declare April 2025 as Financial Literacy Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The informed use of credit and other financial products and services benefits individual consumers and promotes economic growth; and

Whereas, The Michigan Legislature approved and the Michigan Governor signed House Bill 5190 (PA 105) in 2022 to provide for a stand-alone financial literacy course requirement for Michigan high school graduates; and

Whereas, Financial literacy and learning these skills at an early age encourages greater economic self-sufficiency, higher levels of successful homeownership, and enhanced retirement security, particularly among low-and moderate-income citizens; and

Whereas, Michigan has formally participated in financial literacy programming for years through the collaboration and coordinated effort of hundreds of organizations including financial institutions, non-profit groups, government entities, schools, and libraries. The initiative showcases these organizations educational resources, strengthens public-private partnerships, engages the media, and connects people with resources to help them better manage their money; and

Whereas, A greater understanding of, and familiarity with, financial markets and institutions will lead to increased economic activity and growth; and
