

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 160

Reps. Schriver, Cavitt, Meerman, Maddock, Pavlov, Kelly, Posthumus, Roth, Frisbie, Rigas, Alexander, DeSana, Markkanen, Fox, Wozniak, Wortz, Greene, DeBoer, Martin, Neyer, Aragona, Hoadley, DeBoyer, Smit, Fairbairn, Bohnak and Glanville offered the following resolution:

1 A resolution to congratulate His Holiness Pope Leo XIV on his
2 historic election as the 267th pontiff of the Holy Roman Catholic
3 Church and the first American pontiff.

4 Whereas, On May 8, 2025, white smoke rose from the Sistine
5 Chapel, signaling the election of Robert Francis Cardinal Prevost
6 as the new Bishop of Rome and head of the Roman Catholic Church, 7 taking the papal name Leo XIV; and

8 Whereas, Pope Leo XIV is the first American-born pope in the 9 2,000-year history of the Catholic Church, marking a historic

1 milestone for American Catholics and faithful Catholics around the 2 world; and

3 Whereas, Born on September 14, 1955, in Chicago, Illinois, to 4 a patriotic American family, Pope Leo XIV was raised in the 5 Catholic tradition in Dolton, a working-class suburb where faith, 6 family, and service formed the foundation of his life; and

7 Whereas, A graduate of Villanova University with a degree in 8 mathematics and an alumnus of the Catholic Theological Union of 9 Chicago, Pope Leo XIV embodies a life committed to both 10 intellectual and spiritual rigor; and

11 Whereas, As Prior General of the Order of St. Augustine, Pope 12 Leo XIV has lived out the Order's mission to be "of one mind and 13 one heart on the way to God," emphasizing humility, unity, and 14 service; and

15 Whereas, Pope Leo XIV spent decades as a missionary and church
16 leader in Peru, where he served faithfully as a bishop, and 17 ministered to the spiritual and material needs of his communities; 18 and

19 Whereas, Pope Leo XIV has exemplified the humility and courage
20 of a true servant of Christ, not seeking worldly acclaim but 21 bearing witness to the Gospel in places where it is often ridiculed
22 or rejected, reminding the faithful that a lack of belief often 23 coincides with "the loss of meaning in life, the neglect of mercy,
24 appalling violations of human dignity, the crisis of the family, 25 and so many other wounds that afflict our society"; and

26 Whereas, In 2023, Pope Francis elevated him to the College of 27 Cardinals and appointed him Prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops, 28 entrusting him with the vital role of shaping episcopal leadership

1 worldwide; and

2 Whereas, Pope Leo XIV is the first Augustinian pope,
3 continuing the Church's long tradition of drawing upon the wisdom
4 and example of the great religious orders; and

5 Whereas, He speaks five languages fluently and can read Latin
6 and German, reflecting his deep theological formation and ability 7 to connect with all members of the Universal Catholic Church; and

8 Whereas, The name Leo XIV honors a tradition of socially
9 engaged papacy dating back to Pope Leo I ("Leo the Great") and Pope
10 Leo XIII, who championed Catholic social teaching and the dignity 11 of work; and

12 Whereas, In his ministry and teaching, Pope Leo XIV has 13 proclaimed that "the credibility of the Church does not come from 14 popularity, but from fidelity", and thus has called clergy and 15 laity alike not to shape the Church in the image of the world, but 16 to be conformed to Christ through truth, chastity, self-sacrifice, 17 and Eucharistic love; and

18 Whereas, His first public words as pope from the central 19 loggia of St. Peter's Basilica were "Peace be with all of you", 20 setting the tone for a pontificate grounded in the unity, humility,
21 and love of Christ, The Good Shepherd: now, therefore, be it

22 Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of 23 this legislative body congratulate His Holiness Pope Leo XIV on his
24 historic election as the 267th pontiff of the Holy Roman Catholic
25 Church and the first American pontiff. We recognize the historic 26 significance of his election for the American Catholic community,
27 commend Pope Leo XIV for a lifetime of service, humility,
28 missionary zeal, and commitment to embodying Christ's mercy and

1 pastoral care, and extend our prayers as he begins his pontificate
2 and shepherds the world's 1,400,000,000 Catholics with wisdom and 3 grace.
