

THE HOME RULE CITY ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 279 of 1909

117.4k Civic, artistic, and cultural activities; public funds.

Sec. 4k. Each city in its charter may provide for the appropriation and allocation of public funds to a public or private nonprofit institution engaged within the city in the provision of civic, artistic, and cultural activities, including but not limited to music, theater, dance, visual arts, literature and letters, architecture, architectural landscaping, and allied arts and crafts, to the general public.

History: Add. 1978, Act 499, Imd. Eff. Dec. 11, 1978.