

FOOD LAW (EXCERPT)
Act 92 of 2000

289.6113 Rescission of construction authorization.

Sec. 6113.

(1) The director may rescind his or her authorization for construction, conversion, alteration, or remodeling of a food establishment if he or she determines that the license applicant or license holder is not undertaking construction in accordance with approved plans and specifications. The director shall notify the license applicant or license holder before rescission of construction authorization, advise him or her of required corrective action, and afford him or her the opportunity to take any required corrective action.

(2) The director shall order the license applicant or license holder in writing to cease construction, alteration, conversion, or remodeling activities if the applicant or license holder does any of the following:

(a) Fails to submit required plans and specifications for the construction, alteration, extensive remodeling, or conversion to use as a food establishment.

(b) Fails to construct, alter, extensively remodel, or convert a food establishment in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the director.

(c) Fails to take corrective action as required pursuant to this section.
