PROFESSIONAL INVESTIGATOR LICENSURE ACT (EXCERPT) Act 285 of 1965

338.847 Death of licensee; carrying on business; notice to department; sale of business.

Sec. 27.

- (1) Upon the death of a licensee, the business of the decedent may be carried on for a period of 90 days by any of the following:
- (a) In the case of an individual licensee, the surviving spouse, or if there is none, the personal representative of the estate of the decedent.
 - (b) In the case of a partner, the surviving partners.
- (c) In the case of an officer of a firm, company, association, limited liability company, or corporation, the officers.
- (2) Within 10 days following the death of a licensee, the department shall be notified by a person described in subsection (1) in writing. The notification shall state the name of the person legally authorized to carry on the business of the deceased.
- (3) Upon the authorization of the department, the business may be carried on for a further period of time when necessary to complete any investigation or assist in any litigation pending at the death of the decedent.
- (4) This section does not authorize the solicitation or acceptance of any business after the death of the decedent except as otherwise provided by this act.
- (5) This section shall not be construed to restrict the sale of a professional investigator business if the vendee qualifies for a license under the provisions of this act.
