Sec. 202.

- (1) The department shall establish a procedure that allows an individual to obtain a preliminary determination from the department concerning whether any court judgments against him or her would likely result in a denial of a license or registration for failing to meet the good moral character requirement for that license or registration.
 - (2) All of the following apply for purposes of subsection (1):
- (a) To obtain a preliminary determination under this section, an individual must file a request that meets all of the following:

 - (ii) Identifies the license or registration for which he or she may apply.
 - (iii) Includes a detailed description of any criminal proceedings that resulted in a judgment against him or her.
 - (iv) Includes the nonrefundable fee required by the department.
- (b) The department shall only consider the information provided by an individual under subdivision (a)(ii) and (iii) in making a preliminary determination.
- (c) A preliminary determination under this section that is adverse to an individual does not prevent the individual from subsequently applying for a license or registration.
- (d) The department or a board is not bound by a preliminary determination under this section if the individual applies for a license or registration under this act.
- (e) The issuance of a preliminary determination under this section does not limit the authority of the department to review applications for a license or registration, or to issue or deny a license or registration.
- (f) The department shall notify an individual of a preliminary determination by delivering a preliminary determination letter to the individual, in a form determined by the department.
- (3) An individual shall not request more than 1 preliminary determination under this section in any 120-day period.
