

PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS (EXCERPT)
Act 336 of 1947

423.216 Violations of MCL 423.210 as unfair labor practices; remedies; procedures.

Constitutionality: <Paragraph><P>The exercise of jurisdiction by the Michigan Employment Relations Commission under the provisions of the public employment relations act with regard to an unfair labor practice claim by a district court employee whose job is essentially administrative or clerical and not central to the administration of justice, bordering on a judicial role, does not violate the constitutional provision for separation of powers. <Emph EmphType="underscore">Teamsters Union Local 214</Emph> v <Emph EmphType="underscore">60th District Court</Emph>, 417 Mich 291; 335 NW2d 470 (1982).</P></Paragraph>

Popular Name: Public Employment Relations