

SAVINGS BANK ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 354 of 1996

487.3322 Savings bank; election of directors; vacancy; bylaws; meetings; chief executive officer; minutes; quorum; notice of meeting.

Sec. 322.

(1) A savings bank shall be managed by a board of not less than 5 nor more than 25 directors who shall be elected in the first instance by the incorporators at a meeting held before the savings bank is authorized to commence business and afterwards at the annual meeting of the members or shareholders. If for any reason an election is not held at the annual meeting, then the election shall be held at any subsequent meeting called for that purpose of which notice is given as provided in the bylaws of the savings bank. The board of directors may fill a vacancy that occurs in the board by death, resignation, or otherwise for the unexpired term. Subject to limitations as to numbers, the shareholders or members may elect directors not to exceed 2 less than the full board and the unfilled directorships shall be considered as vacancies and filled by the board of directors. Directors shall hold office until their successors are elected and have qualified.

(2) The bylaws of the savings bank shall provide for the shareholder election of directors in 1 of the following methods:

(a) The shareholders annually may elect the full board of directors.

(b) The shareholders annually may elect a board of directors with not more than 2 unfilled directorships. The unfilled directorships are considered vacancies to be filled by the board of directors.

(c) The shareholders may elect directors with staggered terms of office as provided for in subsection (3).

(3) The election of directors with staggered terms of office shall be provided for in the bylaws of the savings bank as follows:

(a) That the directors will be divided into 2 or 3 classes, each to be as nearly equal in number as possible.

(b) The term of office of directors in the first class shall expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class shall expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, shall expire at the third annual meeting after their election.

(c) At each annual meeting after the classification established under subdivision (b), a number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of the meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting if there are 2 classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting if there are 3 classes.

(4) The board of directors shall meet not less than 6 times per year, in person or by means of electronic communication devices that enable all participants in a meeting to communicate with each other, for the purpose of carrying out their duties under this act. The directors shall designate the savings bank's chief executive officer at the first board of directors meeting of each fiscal year. The board shall keep and record minutes of each meeting. The minutes shall be signed by the presiding officer and the secretary of the meeting. A majority of the board of directors constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(5) The commissioner may call a meeting of the board of directors of a savings bank by giving a notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting at least 3 days prior to the meeting to the directors either by personal service, registered mail sent to their last known addresses as shown by the books of the savings bank, or publication at least once in each week for 4 consecutive weeks prior to the meeting.
