REVISED JUDICATURE ACT OF 1961 (EXCERPT) Act 236 of 1961

600.6080 Civil arrest; bail.

Sec. 6080. (1) Any person arrested on civil process is entitled to bail during the time within which he may appeal the proceeding on which the arrest was made, or until a final determination of his appeal has been made.

- (2) In a contempt proceeding, the amount of bail shall be set by the judge or officer presiding over such proceeding.
- (3) In all other cases, the amount of bail shall be twice the amount of the judgment, fine or penalty on which the arrest was made.

History: 1961, Act 236, Eff. Jan. 1, 1963.